The Sound Sleep of Good Health. Can not be over estimated and any ailment that prevents it is a menace to health. J. L. Southern, Eau Claire, Wis. says: "I have been unable to sleep soundly nights, because of pains across my back and soreness of my kidneys, my appetite was very poor and my general condition was much run down. I have been taking Foley's Kidney Pills but a short time and now sleep as sound as a rock, my general condition is greatly improved, and I know that Foley's Kidney Pills have cured me. BY-PRODUCTS OF EDUCATION.

The Master Key in the Training of American Youth.

President Charles Alexander Richmond of Union college spoke at the Ten Eyck hotel in Albany, N. Y., before the Schoolmasters' association of the Hudson valley on the subject, "By-Products of Education." Dr. Richmond said in part: "Education is not a means to an end, it is an obsession—a national epidemic. We must all have it, and as a matter of fact it is the best of our national diseases. The sight of thousands of men and women who earn their bread literally by the sweat of their face, slaving and sacrificing to give their children the slightest sympathy with that unscrupulous process of training that goes under the name of a gentleman— I mean something very superior and uncompromising by that word. A gentleman is a highly finished product, but the finish is not the substance; and so the end of education must be, not to polish an inferior man, but to create a fine man, and by any means we can make him feel the compelling beauty of Noblesse Oblige, we have given him the master key."

MASTER KEY OF SCHOOL LIFE

Preparations for Summer Sessions at the Universities—Extension of New York's Public Schools.

The dedication exercises for the new administration building were held at 10:30 Tuesday morning at Peru Normal school. The structure is complete with the exception of the setting of some of the marble, which was delayed in reaching Peru. Many were disappointed by the failure of Prof. J. M. McKenzie to reach Peru in time for this dedication, as he was to have delivered the principal address, but this was unavoidable, as he has been sick with the grip. He plans to be here in a short time.

The music department of the town were closed during the exercises and the chapel was crowded with citizens and students. The exercises began with an open air band concert, after which the following program was carried out in the chapel, Dr. Sheilhorn presiding: Music—Orchestra, Invocation—Rev. W. E. Darrow, Music—Glee club, Address—State Superintendent Crabtree, Address—N. P. McDonald, Kearney, Address—J. J. Tooley, Anselmo, Address—Dr. J. H. Hensch, Lincoln, Address—T. J. Malors, Peru, Address—Representative Eksen, Nemaha, Address—Dr. E. L. Linton, Lincoln, Music—Normal quartet, Miss Anna Tibets of Lincoln, principal of the Temple High school, gave a very interesting discussion of the "Fagion Play," as seen in Europe last summer.

Miss Hazel Hieck, who has been instructor in music at the normal the last year, has accepted a position in the schools at Santa Monica, Cal., and left Friday for that place to take up her work at once.

The State Board of Education met at Peru Monday evening and passed upon the question of certificates for 33 students, twenty-eight for degrees, 18 seniors, twenty juniors for junior certificates, and thirty-one trainees for elementary certificates. At the afternoon session the election of members of the faculty was taken up. Prof. C. B. Cornell resigned from the mathematics department at Peru and was elected to the head of the same department at Chadron. Peru is sorry to lose Prof. Cornell and he expressed himself as sorry to leave; but he goes to the head of the department at a very material increase in salary, and feels that it is a chance that he could not afford to turn down.

At Peru, L. B. Ohmstead of Lincoln was elected to fill the place made vacant by the resignation of Prof. Cornell and Prof. F. C. Smith of Kallispell, Mont., was chosen as head of the new department of manual training, which is to be opened here next fall. Prof. C. R. Weeks of the department of agriculture was promoted from rank of associate professor to professor of agriculture at the recent meeting of the Board of Education.

FREMONT COLLEGE.

Brief Mention of Events of the Last Week.

President Clemmons was out of town most of last week in the interest of the school fund. He has contracted for the brick, the stone finish and the roof. The building will be commenced within a few days and will be pushed to a speedy finish.

Prof. Soffley and Mrs. Gilbert of the college faculty spoke before the teachers' association at Fullerton last week. Mrs. Gilbert's subject was "Wanted," she spoke of the need of the future for men and women. Mr. Soffley's subject was "The Third Step." He gave as the first step the education of man, the next the education of woman and the third step he gave as the recognition of the soul as the supreme portion of man. Both were well received.

Prof. Clemmons addressed the teachers' association at Schuyler last week. Samuel McLean, Afral-of-a-Bear, left school at the close of last term and he writes that his people were so well pleased with his work while here, especially in the art studio, that he has decided to return. His class work was perhaps as well done as his work in art, and he was writing here a careful and enthusiastic student. Miss Naana Lynn Forbes gave several readings at the informal music evening given by Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Smalls on Wednesday evening.

Miss Florence Loftus has taken a place as stenographer in the college office. The highly strung quartet of Berlin, Germany, now making a tour of America, gave a very pleasing program at the college Thursday evening. Mr. Borgess and Mr. Swihart of the music department of the college were the promoters and the musicians of the city and school were indeed glad to have the chance to hear this organization. The audience was made up largely of musicians, many of whom were capable of judging the merits of the company, and they voice nought but universal satisfaction.

Wayne Normal. The Board of Education has employed J. H. Craddock of Omaha as architect for the building of this regular session of the larger university seems likely to be one of the most important before the governing boards.

Among the new courses this year at Columbia will be two in agriculture, a new study in the university. Then there will be complete courses in architecture, corresponding to the first and second years of the regular terms, and one will be in landscape design. Two new courses in anthropology will be given by Prof. Kroeber of the University of California. Another new feature will be the courses in economics with particular relation to commerce. They will be on money and banking, accounting, corporation finance, transportation and commerce and commercial policy and will be given by such well-known experts in the subjects as Prof. Hatfield of the University of California, Prof. Meeker of Princeton and others.

Demands for space in the dormitories are already 100 per cent greater than last year. Brooks Hall of Barnard is almost filled, and Whittier has had demands for 100 per cent more space. All this points to record-breaking sessions for the demands were made before the plans for the session were announced.

KEARNEY NORMAL SCHOOL.

Rooster of Students Elected to Teaching Positions.

The following named students report recent elections: Miss Eisle Smith, Mitchell; Miss Ada Hanna, Harvard; Miss Lena Gundersen, Blue Hill; Miss Blanche Wideman, Callaway; Miss Mary Wesley Kearney; Miss Ella Trimble, Shelton; Miss Hazel Sheridan, Shelton; Miss Florence Miles, Hastings; Miss Beattie Hartley, Kearney; Miss Maud Goodwin, Kearney; Miss Reva Dawson, Kearney; Miss Gladys Stone, Curtis; Miss Lulu Dugdale has accepted a position in District eighteen of Buffalo county at St. Earl Lantz has fluences which surround the students, and impressed upon the citizens of the town the importance of seeing to it that no resorts be permitted to open which would tend to make Wayne a less desirable home for the young men and young women who attend school here.

At the meeting of the Board of Education held on April 1, the following new teachers were elected to positions in the faculty of the normal school, their work to begin in the summer session. Agriculture and geography, E. E. Lackey, reading and elocution, Olive M. McBeth, music, J. J. Coleman.

An interesting precedent in the first year of the State Normal is that set by the juniors last Saturday evening in tendering a delightful reception at Kingsbury hall to the graduating class of the year. The guests assembled at 8 o'clock. The place cards were hand-painted. The color scheme was orange and black, the school colors. The room was decorated with the pennants of many schools and colleges. The favors were jonquils and carnations. A six-course menu was served by six young women.

One of the pleasing features of the evening was that of having the toasts named for the Playes of Shakespeare: "Comedy of Errors," President Conn; "Taming of the Shrew," Mr. Bright; "Midsummer Night's Dream," Miss Luers; "Measure for Measure," Mr. Huntmer; "Much Ado About Nothing," Mr. Nordgren; "All's Well That Ends Well," Miss Kites; "As You Like It," Prof. House. Walde Hall made a capital speech welcoming the guests and dwelling especially upon the purpose of the gathering, to express regard for the senior class. Two of the toasts, those of Miss Kites and Mr. Huntmer, were in neat verse. In the midst of the program Miss McElen was called upon as a surprise to the guests and made a number of delightful good-natured hits at both classes. Probably the greatest interest of the evening centered in the toasts of the two seniors, Miss Luers and Mr. Nordgren. Mr. Nordgren professed to be a devotee of wit. The guests laughed at a late hour, wishing many happy years to the senior class, the first class of the State Normal school at Wayne, who go now to join so many classes of the school that has done so many years of noble work in this community.

Prof. Johnson of the university visited Major Coulter last week, and took a number of pictures of company maneuvers on Friday.

COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY.

Extensive Preparations for Summer Session.

More elaborate plans than ever have been made for the summer session this year at Columbia university. The courses which have been successful in other years have been greatly strengthened and many have been added, so that it nearly approaches a third term of the university, and it is believed that in this regular session the year, rank with those of the scholastic year. This is only natural in these days when the student's desire is to finish his education as expeditiously as possible, and the colleges are beginning to see that the expensive plants should not be left in idleness for so many months of the year. The vast sums of money expended in lands and buildings become so much larger every year that it will soon be absolutely necessary to keep them in operation all the year in order to justify their existence. With 3,000 students seeking summer study for a period of six weeks and willing to devote even more time, if they are permitted, the question of the third regular session of the larger university seems likely to be one of the most important before the governing boards.

Among the new courses this year at Columbia will be two in agriculture, a new study in the university. Then there will be complete courses in architecture, corresponding to the first and second years of the regular terms, and one will be in landscape design. Two new courses in anthropology will be given by Prof. Kroeber of the University of California. Another new feature will be the courses in economics with particular relation to commerce. been elected to a position in the Kearney High school. All are seniors. Word has just been received at the normal that Norval Pearce, the normal's speedy quarterback of last year, is elected to the superintendency of the schools at Keosauqua, Neb. Mr. Pearce has been teaching in the high school at Lexington during the second semester. Friday evening occurred the annual debate between Peru and Kearney. The young men debated at Peru, while the young ladies debated at Kearney. The question, "Resolved, that public opinion should support the movement of organized labor for a closed shop," was debated. The young ladies of the Kearney school supported the negative and won. The young men of the Kearney Normal in the debate at Peru supported the affirmative and lost. The representatives are as follows: Kearney, Misses Fay Gilliam, Matilda Strasser and Effie Hutt; Peru, Misses Lantz, Lee and Hanna.

Prof. Porter, accompanied by F. W. Deyke, Leonard Steuberg and Reynold Kirk, went to Peru Thursday morning to be ready for the debate at that place. Dr. H. C. Illinois of Peru, who accompanied the delegation from that place, paroled the audience in the Kearney chapel with a couple of solos to the delight of all. Miss Anna V. Jennings, librarian, last week presented to the normal library a beautiful carbon of Burne-Jones' "The Golden Stairs." Miss Jennings, a substitute on the debating squad from Kearney, spent the fore part of the week visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Delsell at Lincoln.

Recently the school has supplied matter to aid in research work to Cornell university and the University of Pennsylvania. Through the State department request was made by the government of Brazil for data and information concerning the school. An extensive exhibit has just been prepared for the industrial exposition which is to be held this year in Turin, Italy. UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN.

Summer Session Course in Agricultural Bacteriology. A course in agricultural bacteriology of a practical nature is to be offered in the summer session at the college of agriculture of the Wisconsin university. It will be primarily adapted to the needs of teachers in high schools and the grades who must teach considerable agriculture. An intensive study will be made of tuberculosis and the tuberculin test and the diseases which cause great economic losses. The control of milk contamination, the relation of soil bacteria to legumes and nitrification will also be studied. A general course in farm home hygiene will be given. Laboratory demonstrations will be as simple and practical as they can be made so that teachers attending the course may repeat them in their own schools with very little expense.

After an illness of several years Dr. John Charles Freeman, emeritus professor of English literature at the University of Wisconsin, died last week at the home of his son, Dr. J. D. Freeman, in Topeka, Kan. Dr. Freeman was 69 years old and became a member of the faculty of the university thirty-two years ago. He was an orator and lecturer of note and had contributed numerous articles on literary and political subjects to various periodicals. Prof. Freeman was a graduate of the University of Michigan in the class of 1883.

EDUCATIONAL NOTES.

Cleveland has started its first open air school for tubercular and anemic pupils. The legislature of Michigan outlawed high school fraternities, and the school authorities of the District of Columbia are reaching for a stout club to swing in the same direction. Miss Mary Todd, for thirty-nine years a school teacher in West Aurora, Ill., has never believed in the motto, "Spare the rod and spoil the child." In all her years of teaching Miss Todd has never inflicted corporal punishment on a pupil. By the expenditure of more than $400,000 in the next five years—$14,000,000 this year and the same amount in 1912—for the improvement of its public school system, New York City will try to do its duty in assimilating its vast and varied citizenship of the future and in giving every individual child an elementary education. The money is to be used in buying thirty-six school sites and in the erection of seventy-five school buildings and thirty-seven additions. There are 90,500 pupils on half time in the schools of the city.

GOOD HOUSEWIVES decide in favor of TIP-TOP BREAD the quality loaf with a taste and flavor all its own. Why worry, weep, rail or rave about baking disappointments? Look for the "TIP-TOP" label.
