The sentiment is changed in the corn situation, holders of long lines having been good sellers and some reaction in values is predicted. Cash corn, while steady and in good demand, is likely to feel the pressure of increases in receipts.

CASH CORN LIKELY TO FAIL

Long Lines Expected to Feel Pressure of the Increased Receipts—

Trade for the Day is Generally Dall.

OMAHA, April 28, 19th.

Rains have been general covering most of the winter wheat belt, seeding is progressing rapidly in the northwest and is expected to be completed this week.

The forecast is for further rains covering both winter and apring wheat sections. Legitimate influences surrounding the wheat market continue depressing to holders, as the cash demand for wheat and flour is still inactive and more wheat is being bought to arrive than is sold for shipment.

Hour NEW YORK, April 28-Although trading week were made.

The slowing down of business extended to week were made.

The slowing down of business extended to the bond department, but there was still a good demand for first-class issues. Sale by the underwriters of $10,000,000 two-year notes of the National Railways of Mexico and $7,500,000 general mortgage bonds of the Northwestern railway were announced. nounced.

Seasoned dividend paying stocks were chiefly in demand. The inquiry for this class of securities increased as the day progressed and in the last hour resulted in a sharp upturn, which carried prices to the high level of the week. Reading, Union Pacific, Louisville & Nashville and St. Paul are representative of the grade of railroad stocks which advanced a point or more, while among the industrials similar advances were scored by American Smelting, Consolidated Gas, General Electric, International Harvester and United States Steel. Canadian Pacific moved up three points to 200%, the highes, figure at which the stock ever sold.

Bank exchanges for the week make a more satisfactory comparison than a week ago. Total at all leading cities of the country is still less than in the same period of last year, but the loss is considerable smaller than in the preceding week.

The amount of gold dispatched to Canada this week was increased today to $1,900,000 by a shipment of $750,000.

Reading's March report, showing a net increase for all companies of $150,000, represented a satisfactory contrast with other recent statements, and was a factor in strengthening the market. Great Western and St. Louis Southern also reported net increases.

were really not enough in sight to make very much of a market. Still receipts were large enough, considering the size of the demand. Today's run leaves the total for the week to date at 14,000 head, being the smallest since three weeks ago and smaller than a year ago by 4,000 head.

10.2 than a year ago by 4,000 head.

10.2 fat cattle as they needed and were not very active buyers this morning. Still they were willing to take on a few more cattle if they could buy them well worth the money, and while the trade was slow and dull everything was disposed of in fair season. Prices, however, ranged anywhere from stead yto close to steady to as much as 10c lower in some cases.

There were only a few cows and heifers in sight, and what few there were sold at about steady prices there being no quotable change, as compared with yesterday in either direction.

The stocker and feeders supply consisted of a few odds and ends and the market on that kind of cattle was also without any material change.

days this week. About 186 cars were yarded, but buyers assert that outlet channels are becoming closged and that large runs cannot be handled as safely as recently. Prices settled to weaker levels, bulk showing an average decline of about a nickel.

Shipping and speculative orders were hard to find so that clearance of about 25 per cent of supply was left to packers. Long strings ranged from $5.75@5.85, and heavies dropped to $5.75 and less. Best bacon animals on sale brought $5.96, a nickel less than yesterday's top.

Sheep were practically lacking.
On most days this week the market has been well filled with offerings, today's estimate giving a total that is larger than last week's run and much larger than the run this week last year. Lambs, usually shorn, were the rule, but Mexicans are still coming regular in bunches of 1,000 to 1,000 daily.

still coming regular in bunches of 1,000 to 1,000 daily.

In point of prices the entire trade is unevenly lower than a week ago. Best lambs, wooled, are closing around 30c under last Friday's quotations, while shown lambs are little worse than 20%22c lower. Heavy grades, either wooled or shorn, are hard to move at any price. Sheep show declines of 15%25c for the week, these reductions applying to good as well as common kinds of stock.

DUN'S REVIEW OF

Promise of Improvement as Soon as Uncertainties Pass.

ABUNDANCE OF MONEY EXHIBITED Interest in Iron and Steel Still Centers Largely on the Recent Reduction in Price of

> Ore. NEW YORK, April 28.-R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade tomorrow will

> While domestic trade moves sluggishly, export trades continues to expand, and the increase in the amount of manufactured articles sold abroad is very gratifying. Commercial activity abroad is most notice. able and is a promise of improvement on this side of the Atlantic as soon as present uncertainties, which serve to retard enterprise, pass.
> Another contrast is to be seen in the essentially sound fundamental conditions, such as abundance of money and comparative barrenness of stocks on the shelves, on the one hand, and the curtailment of tive barrenness of stocks on the shelves, on the one hand, and the curtailment of production, the inactivity in distribution and the virtual sugnation in speculation and the virtual stagnation in speculation on the other.

Interest in iron and steel centers largely on the recent reduction in the price of ore. The lowering of quotations 50 cents a ten was not expected, but the change has not been followed by any larger inquiry for pig iren and buying is detayed, awaiting further developments.

Cotton goods have not responded much to the sharp advance in the staple, yet the markets are generally steadier.

Exceptionally low prices on wool and yarns make for the possibility of most tempting offers in prices and qualities of woolens and worsteds for the new season.

Conditions in footwear are improved and business shows a fair volume. Jobbers still display considerable conservatism, and orders generally are confined to quanti-ties sufficient to neet current needs.

BRADSTREET'S REVIEW OF TRADE Pentures of Week Include Stimulation of Retail Trade. NEW YORK, April 3.-Bradstreet's tomorrow will say:

morrow will say:

The features of the week have been a slight stimulation of retail trade by warm, bright weather north, west and east; good progress in the planting of and growth of leading cereal crops, and satisfactory developments as regards the outlook for leading fruit crops. The greater activity in retail trade in turn is reflected in a little better business by jobbers, but on the other hand, unseasonably wet and cool weather has checked farming operations at the south and also made for quiet in trade. The net result, the country over, has probably been a total of trade little different from that of the proceding week and hank clearings are not materially different from those of last week. An epitome of iron and steel trade conditions can readily be made. The cut of 10 cents per ton in Lake ore prices, which was announced last Friday, has not stimulated business and furnaces seem to be pretty well supplied for current needs, pig iron is very dull and production is being curtailed. In finished lines new business is light and mill outputs have decreased. Heavy sales of copper are reporting as having been made at reduced prices.

The building trade is inactive and ma-

The building trade is inactive and material markets feel the effects. Paints are dull. Turpentine is considerably off from the top, the price being 78 cents against the top price of $1.14, reached early in April.
