

COUNTRY CLUB SEASON BEGINS

Society Renews Its Enthusiasm for Outdoor Games.

MANY ENTERTAINMENT PLANS

Unique Program of National Dance Will Be Given by Young Society Women for Benefit of the City Mission.

Social Calendar. MONDAY—Mrs. T. J. Mahoney, Amateur Musical club, guest program; Mrs. George Lindley, Bermo club.

The summer season is here for society. Though the formal openings of the country clubs are still two weeks and more in the future, the clubs are now informally open.

The Country club announces that its formal opening will be held Saturday, May 13, but yesterday was the real beginning of the club season, as the club is now ready for club entertainment of members.

Happy Hollow club is open now from the golfers' point of view, but the season of the club is not to be formally launched until May 29. Even this date is provisional and may be moved to May 27, if the extensive improvements now under way at the club house are not completed before that time.

May is to include several entertainments philanthropic in impulse and social in expression. One of the important of these is the card party which is given annually in benefit of The Creche and the date of which is May 22.

An innovation this year is the large society entertainment which is to be given in benefit of the City Mission. This entertainment is called a "Trip Around the World With Terapichore" and will include dances representative of all nations. It is to be given at the Brandeis theater, May 20. The dancers will include young women of social prominence and younger members of prominent families. It is an entertaining which is certain to be replete with charm because the young performers in their former public appearances have delighted by their enthusiasm for the revived art of dancing.

The entertainment is under the supervision of Miss Loudon. Among those who will assist as patronesses are Mrs. F. P. Kirkendall, Mrs. Charles Offutt, Mrs. George A. Joslyn, Mrs. John Burke, Mrs. G. M. Hitchcock, Mrs. J. M. Daugherty, Mrs. E. W. Nash, Mrs. E. A. Cudahy, Mrs. L. F. Crofoot and Mrs. John A. McShane.

Many dancing parties are being planned for the spring and early summer. The earliest of these is the party which will be given at the Country club Wednesday evening, May 10, by Miss Agnes Burkley in honor of Miss Jean Cudahy and Mr. Frank Wilhelm. This will be the first party to be given at the Country club this season and will precede the formal opening.

Wedding Bells

Mr. and Mrs. George D. Miller, 607 Park avenue, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Wilma Miller to Mr. H. Howard Spear of Omaha. The wedding will take place in the early summer.

The engagement is announced of Miss Charlotte Rose, daughter of Mr. Cyrus Rose and Mr. George A. Prichard, all of Los Angeles and all of whom formerly resided in Omaha. Mr. Prichard was formerly justice of the peace in Omaha. The wedding will take place in June.

The marriage of Miss Lena Pike, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Pike to Dr. Charles H. Root of Bassett, Neb., formerly of Omaha, was celebrated at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Rev. J. F. Clyde of the Plymouth Congregational church officiated. The bride was gowned in white marquisette over white satin with trimmings of pearl bands. Dr. and Mrs. Root left for a stay of several months in the east.

The wedding of Miss Marie Crouse and Lieutenant William Storis Bowen was celebrated Saturday evening at 8 o'clock at St. Barnabas' church, Rev. John Williams officiating.

The church was attractively decorated with palms, ferns and spring blossoms. Miss Ruth Hitchcock, niece of the bride, was maid of honor and her only attendant. Miss Hitchcock wore a gown of white net over pink silk and carried a cluster of pink roses.

The bride was charming in her wedding gown of white satin, made with a short train. The gown was in white marquisette in surplice effect and trimmed with bands of satin. The bodice was trimmed with thread lace and made with round neck and short sleeves. The long tulle veil was held in place with white blossoms. A shower of lilies of the valley formed the bouquet.

Mr. Jack Bowen, brother of the groom, was best man, and the ushers were Mr. Frank Moreman, Mr. Hal Yates and Mr. Wallace Lyman.

Following the ceremony there was a reception at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Gilbert M. Hitchcock, and Senator Hitchcock, where a profusion of cherry blossoms and plum blossoms were used in decoration of the rooms. About 100 guests were present.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Bowen left last evening for a western trip and will make their home at Fort Columbia, Wash., where Lieutenant Bowen is stationed with the Coast Artillery corps.

Secretary and Mrs. McVeagh entertain a Brilliant Gathering—Daughter of Senator Tillman Weds Atlantic City Man—Mrs. Pullman Reopens Her Washington Mansion—Miss Colgate to Marry an Army Officer.

SUNDAY—LEAD WASHINGTON GOSSIP (BY CONSTANCE CARRUTHERS) WASHINGTON, April 28.—(Special to the Bee).—Secretary of the Treasury McVeagh and Mrs. McVeagh were hosts at dinner Thursday evening to one of the most brilliant assemblies of society that has gathered at the capital during the season.

President Taft and Mrs. Taft were among the honored guests and when the chief executive and first lady of the land joined the guests at the beautiful McVeagh home, another precedent was broken. Of all the unwritten laws which bind the social life of Washington, none has been more rigidly observed than the one which says that the president and his wife shall dine only with the cabinet officials and with each of them only once a year.

Earlier in the season Secretary and Mrs. McVeagh gave their dinner for President Taft and Mrs. Taft. It was a great disappointment to them that the dinner could not be served in their handsome new home, but it was not completed at that time. Now they are located in the new home and the dinner was given in honor of the president and Mrs. Taft. Besides the large number of Washington society leaders, many out-of-town persons were guests of the Secretary and Mrs. McVeagh. Mrs. Hobart Chastfield Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. James Waller, Jr., Mr. Edward Ryerson, and Miss Caroline Kirkland of Chicago were among the guests from a distance.

Of interest in society at the capital is the announcement of the engagement of Miss Hazel Bradford Witten, daughter of Judge and Mrs. James W. Witten and Mr. Augustus Seymour Dennison of Chicago. The wedding will take place in the early part of June.

The marriage of Miss Lena Tillman, daughter of Senator and Mrs. Benjamin R. Tillman to Mr. Charles Sumner Moore of Atlantic City took place in the church of Our Savior at Trenton, S. C. Miss Tillman's bridesmaids were her sister, Miss Sophie Oliver Tillman, Miss Alice Morse Tower of Boston, Miss Sarah Jenkins Lee of Asheville, S. C., and Miss Addie Harriette Hughes of Trenton, S. C. Her maid of honor was her schoolmate, Miss Sallie May Tillman, and the matron of honor the wife of her brother, Mrs. Henry Cumming Tillman of Greenwood, S. C. Mr. Moore was attended by Mr. Arthur Fringie Hume of Philadelphia as best man, Mr. Nelson Burr Gaskill of Trenton, N. J.; Mr. E. Harrison Burley Hume of Charleston, S. C.; Mr. Evelyn Fenne Chapin of San Cristobal, Cuba, and Mr. Henry Wise Hughes of Trenton, S. C.

Mrs. James Alfred Merritt, wife of Lieutenant Merritt of the Fourteenth infantry who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. M. A. Ringgold, has left Washington to join her husband at Fort Lincoln, North Dakota. She was accompanied by her sister, Miss Ethel Ringgold.

The wedding of Miss Caroline Shepard, daughter of Chief Justice Shepard, and Mr. John W. Falson will take place Saturday afternoon, May 20. The ceremony will be performed in the home of the bride's parents in Massachusetts avenue. Miss Helen Otis of Chicago will act as maid of honor and Mr. Sherwood Falson will be his brother's best man.

Mrs. George M. Pullman, who has been spending some time the guest of Mrs. Isaac Requa at Santa Barbara, Cal., is expected to arrive in Washington in a few days. The Pullman mansion is being made ready for occupancy.

Senator and Mrs. William Alden Smith have as their house guest for several weeks, Mrs. Smith's sister, Mrs. Frank Jewell of Grand Rapids, Mich.

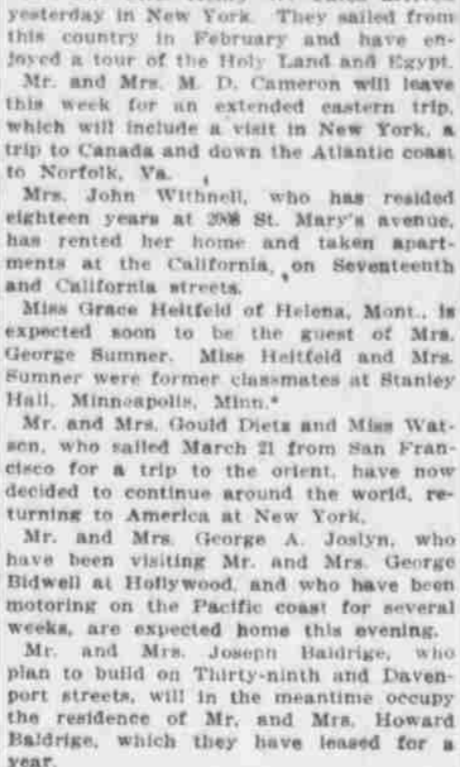

Mrs. Elbridge Jordan has had as her guest Mrs. Francis Kine Wainwright of Philadelphia, daughter of former Senator James B. Forsaker of Ohio. Mr. and Mrs. John F. Dow and daughter of Davenport, Ia., have been recent guests in Washington.

Miss Helen Varick Boswell of New York, who spent several days in Washington, has left to continue her visit to friends in Memphis and Atlanta. Miss Boswell has recently returned from Panama, where she spent as the guest of the government to visit the women's clubs on the canal zone, which were organized by her three years ago.

Hon. Maurice D. O'Connell of Washington, who recently resigned after a long service as solicitor for the treasury, has been enjoying in China, Japan and the Philippine Islands. He is accompanied by Mrs. O'Connell.

And a suit by "La-Book" this spring, will be a smarter suit than ever. One might, for instance, choose the newer straight line effect, slender and hipless, or, one might carry out the prevailing idea of harmony of line and trimming, on coat and skirt, or bodice and skirt. "La-Book" creates a masterful design on the slender silhouette order, and displays unusual cleverness in concealing the joining of skirts and bodices of tailored dresses. This he accomplishes, either by novel trimmings, or in the cut of the models. $50.00, when one considers the amount of sparkle, vim and dash put into a suit by "La-Book," is indeed a special price, and better dressed Omahans will be quick to see the policy of placing orders during the FIRST TWO WEEKS OF MAY.
