

Oriental Rugs Not Luxuries

A great many persons hold the mistaken idea that Oriental Rugs are luxuries. But surely a love of the beautiful—a love of art—is a trait to be cultivated for everyday use, and not to be classed with those indulgences which we commonly call luxuries.

An Oriental Rug, like a beautiful oil painting, satisfies a natural longing for the refined—the artistic. As you would buy a rare picture—after studying it and developing a real appreciation for it—so you should buy an Oriental rug.

In our Oriental rug department you are given full opportunity for studying the magnificent specimens that we show from the looms of the Old World. And while you are studying and making your decisions, we shall render all the assistance we possibly can in the way of information and advice.

Oriental rugs are long-lived. Age increases their beauty and increases your fascination for them. As the only importers of Oriental rugs in Omaha, we know we have a collection that will give you genuine delight. The prices show a wide range. There are rugs here at prices to fit all purses. Our Department of Selection will help you, and we hope you will call.

reminds me of the man who jumped off the thirty-second story of the Singer building in New York. When he got down to the efficient floor, he shouted: 'I'm all right so far,' but when he landed on the sidewalk there wasn't enough left of him to hold a post mortem upon; and so it will be with you when you hit the sidewalk in 1912."

Predicts Invasion of Mexico.
Mr. Focht predicted an early invasion of Mexico, saying an army officer associated with him had told him that the army was going over the Mexican border "to stay."

"I would not think that the president would object," Mr. Focht said. "We have been absorbing everything they did not want in Europe for years and years. We have taken as trade in stock what nobody else wanted in the Philippines—another white man's burden. We added a little more down here in the West Indies. Why couldn't we do something that is worth something, as could be of great good to somebody?"

"I am not a soldier of fortune," he said. "I do not expect to be at the head of the army, but I believe this will be a mighty interesting question before the house adjourns."

Mr. Focht contended that the United States wanted empire and it was about to follow the "lure of gold and the call of adventure."

BATTLE OVER LORIMER CASE

Friends of Senator Will Try to Refer Resolution to Regular Committee.
WASHINGTON, May 4.—Premier of an impending battle between senators who want a special committee of new senators to conduct a reinvestigation of the Lorimer case and those who want the whole question of a second investigation referred to the standing committee on privileges and elections, was begun in the senate today. When it appeared that the resolution reported from the committee on contingent expenses to provide funds for another probe of the bribery charges filed against the Illinois senator were certain to arouse a squall, the whole matter was allowed to go over until another day.

The discussion was on the La Follette resolution, which proposed that another investigation be ordered and that the cost be borne by the senate contingent fund.

The resolution named five senators, headed by Works of California. In reporting the resolution today Senator Briggs, chairman of the senate committee on contingent expenses made it clear that the recommendation was not to be taken as an endorsement of the demand for another inquiry. It merely indicates that the money needed for another trial was available.

Senator La Follette desired time in which to address the senate and asked that the matter go over. Several senators who voted in favor of Senator Lorimer last session asked that the resolution be referred to the standing committee on privileges and elections.

It became apparent at once that such a motion, carried, which would be equivalent to the repudiation of the proposed special committee, would provoke a great deal of debate. It is expected to come again on Monday.

After a two years' fight the senate today adopted the Bailey resolution fixing 2 p. m. as the time for convening instead of noon as heretofore. The new rule will be in effect "until otherwise ordered."

The opinion is expressed that the innovation will not long be in force, but in the meantime opportunity will be given to try out the new scheme. The resolution was passed without a dissenting vote. When the senate adjourned it did so to meet at 2 o'clock Monday.

Senator Borah sought vainly today to have the house joint resolution providing for the election of senators by popular vote made the unfinished business of the senate. He finally yielded to a request of Senator Clark of Wyoming for time to prepare a report on the resolution and permitted the matter to go over. He indicated he would make the request again early next week.

PEANUT, PUSHGART REVOLT

Frank Opinion of the Revolution in Mexico by a Fighter.

COLONEL PAUL MASON WILL QUIT

Professional Soldier of Fortune Gives Some Interesting Information Concerning the Revolt and Its Leaders.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
EL PASO, Tex., April 28.—(Special Correspondence.)—"This is a peanut revolution and I am through with Mexico," sneered Colonel Paul Mason, professional revolutionist, filibuster and soldier of fortune, who has been through five revolutions and holds a commission of colonel in the Nicaraguan and Honduran armies and a commission of captain in the Peru and San Domingo armies, besides his Mexican commission of colonel.

"This is the worst disorganized affair I ever saw. The leaders are incompetent and know nothing of military affairs, but hold to the opinion that they know all about it. They have the men, arms and enthusiasm, in fact the making of a first-class revolution if they only knew how to do it.

"The lack of money, or rather the unwillingness to spend it, is the greatest handicap. War is expensive. I offered to furnish two large bore cannon, three machine guns and all kinds of ammunition, but there was no money in sight. The leaders do not agree and are all jealous of one another.

Criticizes the Leaders.

"Madero is a fine man with a weak character. He has not the strength of a leader and is too easily influenced. I rather do not say anything about Garibaldi, because we are not friends. If he has the military ability they say he has, he has not shown it. He was one of the men who quailed the battle of Casas Grandes. An attack was planned which any child might have known would fail. They had no reserves, and no scouts out and so were unaware of Cuellar's 700 cavalry four miles away which came down on our backs and defeated us.

"Rafael Madero is only a boy and nothing can be expected of him. He knows absolutely nothing about war.

"Orozco is brave and energetic. There is no manna business about him. He settles matters on the spot, but he knows nothing of military tactics.

"General Blanco has shown a remarkable lack of common sense in the revolution in Mexico is as compared with revolutions in the smaller republics of Central and South America.

"Before a battle every man loads himself down with all of the ammunition he thinks he will need. If that runs out no more is to be had.

Insurrecto Artillery.

"The only artillery which the insurrectos have is the two cannons destined by myself. They are made out of the axles of locomotives. They are smooth bore, that is, they have no rifling, so that the shells seldom strike on the point. The shells cannot be relied upon, therefore, to explode.

Colonel Mason cleaned out the robbing bands about Colonia Dublan so thoroughly a short time ago that the citizens of the town present him with a fine saddle for his work. He has the reputation of being able to make something out of nothing. He says he is thoroughly disgusted and is going to South America and try to find some real fighting.

ROOSEVELT ON DYNAMITING

to make common cause with the capitalists against whom he proceeded merely because they were capitalists. Whenever any politician of either party or any capitalist did actually take this position, whether in the case of the men prosecuted by Mr. Burns, or in any other case, the Outlook unhesitatingly and severely denounced them. In exactly the same spirit I state the convictions of the Outlook in expressing its hearty reprobation of the conduct of those labor leaders who, without waiting to know anything of the facts of the case, have at once flown publicly to the defense of the alleged dynamiters whom Mr. Burns has now arrested, and who talk about the arrest as being part of a conspiracy against labor unions.

"Crime Against Unionism."

"No worse service can be rendered by labor union leaders to the cause of unionism than that which they render when they seek to identify the cause of unionism with the cause of any man guilty of a murderously attack of this nature. I have no idea whether the men arrested in connection with the statements are or are not guilty, the labor leaders in question have no idea whether or not they are. They are entitled to an absolutely fair trial. If they have no money to provide counsel for themselves, then it would be entirely proper for anybody of men to furnish them the requisite funds, simply as incident in securing them a fair trial. But it is grossly improper to try to create a public opinion in favor of the arrested men, simply because the crime of which they are accused is committed against a capitalist or a corporation, and because the men who are charged with committing it are members of a labor union. This is an integrity gross as it would have been if when three years ago, the sugar trust was indicted for swindling operations in the New York custom house, the forces of organized capital had been put behind the indicted men on the ground that the attack on capitalists guilty of crime meant an attack on all capital.

Position of Outlook.

"Undoubtedly there have been repeated cases where representatives of capital have thus endeavored to prevent successful assault on abuses committed in the interests of capital and in every such case, no matter how wealthy or influential the offender. The Outlook believes that he should be condemned. It now takes the same attitude when the question is one of identifying the cause of unionism with alleged murder, that it has always taken when the question is one of identifying the cause of capital with alleged corruption, and it appeals to the honest and law-abiding laboring man exactly as it appeals to the honest and law-abiding business man; for both are, first of all, American citizens, whose attitude towards the fundamental principle of morality and good citizenship must be identical. The union of organized labor or organized capital, or of the relations of either with the community at large, has nothing whatever to do with this issue.

Grave and Vital Question.

"All we are now concerned with is the grave and vital question of fact whether or not the accused men have been guilty of murder and of murder under peculiar foulness and atrocity. Whether we do or do not approve the policy of the Los Angeles Times and the Outlook very heartily disapproves of its policy on certain matters; has nothing whatever to do with the question, the stern responsibility of murderous violence—above all of murderous violence under circumstances of such cowardly infamy as always accompany the use of dynamite—must, of necessity, be a prime need of any civilization calling itself such. Whether the man attacked is a capitalist or socialist, a wage earner or a professional man, has nothing whatever to do with the question, and whether the man attacking him does or does not belong to any organization whether of labor or capital, whether social or religious, has nothing to do with the question. The only and only question is as to the guilt or innocence of the men accused. Any man who seeks to have them convicted if they are innocent, is guilty of a crime against the state, and any man who seeks to have them acquitted if guilty is also guilty of a crime against the state.

Miles' Fortune Heir is Again Defendant

St. Joseph Father Brings Action to Recover Damages from Falls City Man.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., May 4.—(Special Telegram.)—Joseph Miles of Falls City, Neb., an heir to the great fortune, has been made defendant in a second damage suit growing out of an accident on April 22, when he is alleged to have run down and seriously injured Edgar Wasson, a messenger boy. Aside from being sued Miles is under arrest on the charge of feloniously wounding Wasson.

The suit filed today was for $10,000 and was filed by the father, W. M. Wasson. The parent alleges that he will be deprived of the services of his son on account of the accident. The father has also filed a suit for $5,000 for the injuries alleged to have been sustained when the boy was run down.

neighborhood, but they do not appear to be working in union.

DOUGLASS, Ariz., May 4.—Firing heard last night to the east and west of Agua Prieta is believed to have been the Mexican federal garrison endeavoring to stop bands of insurrectos crossing from the United States.

News has been received of the destruction of a large steel bridge on the main line of the Southern Pacific a short distance north of Yavapai. The rebels wrecked the bridge with dynamite.

WASHINGTON, May 4.—The State department regards as a closed incident the recent operations of federal and insurrectionary forces at Agua Prieta, concerning which the Washington government formerly complained to Mexico. The two governments now agree as to the facts and the amended Mexican reply is entirely satisfactory to Washington.

NEBRASKA RANCHMAN WEDS WEALTHY HEIRESS

Wannetta Max Meets Miss Augusta Schultz of Pittsburgh After Long Journey.

DENVER, Colo., May 4.—(Special Telegram.)—A 1,000-mile railroad journey and a 500-mile automobile trip with Denver as the destination, led to the climax of a romance which began in New York City several years ago, when Miss Augusta Schultz, daughter of a wealthy steel manufacturer of Pittsburgh, became the wife of Clifford Wood, a Yale graduate, and now a wealthy ranchman of Wannetta, Neb., in Golden, Colo., this morning.

Denver was the meeting place selected when a few weeks ago they decided to take their matrimonial affairs in their own hands because as the groom said: "It really was our own affair."

Mrs. Wood, who was Miss Schultz until this morning, arrived on an early train from the east. About the same time Wood was entering the outskirts of the city in his big touring car, which he had driven from his ranch in Nebraska.

Wood met her at the depot, bundled her into the automobile and made a record run to Golden and were married. The couple met in New York when Wood was a student at Yale. He declined to say whether there was any objection to his marriage, explaining that the wedding had been contemplated for some time, as "it was awful lonely down there on the ranch."

CIVIL SERVICE PROBES POLICE

R. C. Lawyer Says Five Men Knew Gambling Going On.

HUSH FUND TO PAY OFFICERS

Witness Testifies He Contributed to It—Polk County Prohibitionists Seek to Get National Convention for City.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

DES MOINES, May 4.—(Special Telegram.)—The civil service probe into the police department is turning up some matters rather sensational. According to testimony submitted by R. C. Lawyer before the civil service commission, five men connected with the department of public safety, over which Councilman Roe has supervision, knew gambling was going on in Des Moines. The list includes Charles Kiddle, secretary to Roe, and several policemen.

Mr. Lawyer, who asserts he lost between $1,800 and $1,500 gambling in Des Moines since April, 1910, recited the story he told to the council some days ago. He was questioned by the commission especially about the knowledge certain men connected with the safety department are said to have had of gambling. He told of police officers actually witnessing the gambling and his contributions to a hush fund for certain patrolmen.

LOBECK SHOWS THE SIGHTS

Omaha Congressman Entertains Visitors from This City at National Capital.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 4.—(Special Telegram.)—R. T. Fredrickson, editor of the Danish Pioneer of Omaha, with his wife is in Washington today on their way home from a trip to Europe. Mr. Fredrickson, with Dr. H. H. Brock, and Malita Mullen, the latter being mayor of Rudolph, Denmark, called upon Representative Lobbeck today and by him were shown the sights of the capitol building and the city.

Mrs. Burckett, wife of ex-Senator Burckett, showed considerable improvement today, her temperature having gone down considerably, which has encouraged Senator Burckett and physicians to believe that the crisis has been passed.

Mrs. Alvin Saunders of Omaha, mother of Charles A. Saunders and Mrs. Russell Harrison, has left for her western home after spending the winter in Washington with her daughter.

Representative Sloan will speak tomorrow.

Assault on Former Wife.
GRAND ISLAND, Neb., May 4.—(Special Telegram.)—Assault with intent to do great bodily injury will be charged against A. E. Ankeny, who today assaulted his divorced wife with a banister, but was prevented from doing any harm by the interference of others. Mrs. Ankeny came here to visit a son. The father has been living here in another portion of a double house occupied by the son and family. He met the divorced wife, an altercation soon ensued, and then the alleged assault. Ankeny is being held in the city jail until the return of the temporarily absent county attorney.
