Immediately after the game he made a rush for the grandstand and attempted to make his getaway, but he was assaulted with cushions, stale

Officers escorted Kneeland out of the stands and into a waiting automobile, in whilh he was conveyed to his hotel. During the disturbance in the grandstand some one telephoned to police headquarters for more policemen and by the time the umpire was out of the way a large part of the police force was at the park.

The two grapplers will undoubtly get together Labor day as the Empire Athletic Sub of Chicago has made them an offer for that date. But in the meantime the wrestling fans are kept on the fence for fear the deal will fall through. Gotch admits he received only $6,000 of the money the time he won the championship and declares he will be the one to dictate the terms of the proposed match. Jack Curley, manager for Hackenschmidt, has taken the occasion again to voice his opinion that the champion is afraid of the Russian Lion, but he still believes he can get the two into the ring. Hackenschmidt stated in Omaha shortly before he left for Surope that even if no arrangements were made before his return he would be back next winter trying for a go for the cham-

Aviators Will Engage in War Practices Here Next Week.

WILL DROP BOMBS IN CITY Crook and Omaha by Vane,

Simon, Rene Barrier and Others. Fort Omaha and Fort Crook are to be attacked Tuesday or Wednesday. When the big aviation meet, starting Monday gets well under way the bird men propose to send a pair of fleet aeroplanes to the posts, and bombs just like those used in actual warfare, except that they contain only small percussion caps, will be dropped to the parade grounds. Similar bombs will be dropped on several of the streets of Omaha and the aviators propose to have a set of tickets in each bomb, the tickets to be good for admis- hardt. sion to the aviation grounds. Preparations for the meet are proceeding with vigor and the first flight will be at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon. The special train carrying the party of aviators and

The five bird men are now in St. Joseph and are making thrilling flights each day. Manager C. L. Young, the youngest aviation manager in the business, will accompany-them here. These aviators have performed in many American cities, having been brought here to attend the international meet at Belmont Park in New York where they took some of the first prizes. New Orleans, San Antonio, Houston. Hutchinson, Denver and other cities have seen them. For a mammoth attendance at the big meet and the big auto races June 5 to 12 the Speedway association is going to bend all its efforts this year. Street cars go to imwood park now, and at the end of the line there will be a ticket office. A ticket to the zero meet entities the holder to admittance and transportation to the park

A Bachelor's Reflections. Since a widow can pretend to believe man what can you expect of the rest a man what can you expect of the rest of them?

It seems as if the more people need ancestors the more they can brag about those they didn't have.

If a man got all the salary his wife tells her friends he does, he'd drop dead from the shock of the surprise.

When a man asks a girl to marry him she is so surprised because she has talked it over so often with her mother.

There's nothing a woman can admire a man more for than remembering what she wore the night he tried to kiss her several years ago before she would let him.

There's hardly anything a married woman can be more deceptive about than the way she can act as if she should be envied.

when a giri has a man to dinner her mother's only idea seems to be to make him ashamed of himself for not being in the family.

What a man likes more than anything else is to talk about the constitution, especially when he knows so much about it he thinks congress can amend it.—New York Press.
