PEACE CONGRESS NEARS END

Resolutions Will Be Adopted Late This Afternoon.

ADDRESS OF JOHN W. FOSTER

Former Secretary of State Suggests Needed Changes in the Neutrality Laws of All the Nations.

BALTIMORE, Md., May 5.—The chief feature on the program today at the third national peace congress was the report of the committee on the armistice which was scheduled for presentation at the close of the afternoon meeting. The resolutions are expected to be a crystallization of the sentiment which has inspired the sessions and which marks the present development of peace movement.

One of the resolutions endorsed the Anglo-American arbitration treaty and calls for its ratification. Another asks that congress pass such acts as will make the government hold each state responsible for any outrage committed on the person or property of foreign subjects within the state. Still another resolution approves the proposed celebration at the close of the season of the English speaking nations and will pledge its support to the movement.

At the forenoon session Dr. T. Iyemaga, a native of Japan and a professor in the University of Chicago, spoke on "Peace in Asia." Dr. Iyemaga said that what vitally concerns Japan is the continuation of peace in Asia, and declared that his country to further that end had left no stone unturned so far as lay in its power.

Address of John W. Foster.

John W. Foster, former secretary of state and one of the foremost authorities on international law, in his address declared that the principal lesson of the present conditions on the Mexican border was the need of better neutrality laws. Mr. Foster suggested three modifications, which, in his opinion, the laws should undergo:

"First—Some restriction should be placed upon the free commerce as a mercantile commodity of arms and munitions of war, and power should be conferred upon the president to limit or suspend, in his discretion, their export across the border in time of disturbance or insurrection.

"Second—It should be made unlawful for Americans to enter the military service of any power or chief of state with a nation with which we are at peace.

"Third—Greater power should be conferred upon the president in time of civil disturbance on the frontier, to limit or prohibit intercourse across the border, to prevent the abuse of our territory by foreign conspirators and in his discretion to enforce martial law on our soil within the zone of disturbance."

Taft Tells of Good Work of Army Medical Corps on the Border

President Points Out Only Case of Typhoid Fever Appears Among Nineteen Thousand Troops.

PHILADELPHIA, May 5.—President Taft was the guest of honor at a reception given here tonight by the Medical club of Philadelphia. The president was hailed as the chief executive who had done the most for the advancement of medical science, and his two recommendations that a national department of health be created by congress were dwelt upon approvingly by Dr. W. L. Rodman, the president.

President Taft referred in his address to the efficiency of the medical corps of the army and pointed out that in the camp at San Antonio where 19,000 troops are quartered only one case of typhoid fever had appeared. He compared this to the dreadful scourge in Cuba during the Spanish-American war, where, he said, 90 per cent became infected within eight weeks from the date of mobilization.

The president said that much money had been expended and many lives sacrificed in the Spanish-American war, but they are nothing compared with the benefits to humanity which have accrued from the discoveries made during that period.

Surgeon General George T. Horn, in the army spoke on "Sanitary Progress in the Fort and Field" and Surgeon General Charles F. Stokes of the navy told of "The Hospital Ship and Its Mission of Mercy."

GENNARO CONFRONTS ACCUSER

Alleged Assassin of Cuocoolo Faces Abbatemaggio in Court.

STORY OF MURDER IS RETOLD

Informant Gives Dramatic Recital of Killing of Former Leader—Accused Emphatically Denies Every Detail.

VITERBO, Italy, May 5.—Mariano de Gennaro, who it is alleged, was the first to attack Gennaro Cuocoolo, stabbing him with a dagger, was given the chance today to confront his accuser, Abbatemaggio.

In accordance with the criminal procedure of Italy, the alleged principals in the murder of Cuocoolo and his wife, having been separately interrogated, are now in turn being given an opportunity to stand face to face with the informant in open court and to verbally defend themselves.

As the accuser and accused stood before the judges' bench today Abbatemaggio recited what he affirmed was the part played by De Gennaro in the tragedy at Torre del Greco on the evening of June 8, 1906.

He said in substance:

"De Gennaro was armed with a dagger and also carried in a pocket a kitchen knife which had been thrust into the hands of the Cuocoolo's home. This knife was later placed in the right hand of the dead man to give the impression to those who might discover the body that Cuocoolo had been slain in a duel. When the assassin, accompanied by the unsuspecting Cuocoolo, reached the scene of the murder, De Gennaro suddenly drew his dagger and stabbed the victim. Cuocoolo attempted to defend himself with a pocket knife and wounded Corrado Sortino on the hand, but he was soon overpowered. Nicole Morra also stabbed him and Antonio Cerrato struck him over the head with his cane. When Cuocoolo ceased to breathe De Gennaro placed the kitchen knife in his hand, while others took a ring from his finger and from a pocket a latch key to his apartments.

"De Gennaro then went to the Inn of Mimi-Mare to report the success of their mission to Enrico Alfano, sure that Alfano proceeded to the Cuocoolo home and murdered Maria Cuocoolo."

Abbatemaggio's confession has been supported by the carabinieri, who claimed to have found Cuocoolo's ring at the home of a woman friend of one of the assassins. This ring they claim was to have been sent to Luigi Arena, who, from his prison cell, had asked for the death of Cuocoolo, alleging that the latter had betrayed him to the authorities. Sortino was found to have a wound on his hand as described by the informant.

De Gennaro denied every incident of the story related and emphatically protested his innocence of the crime.

KIMBALL SEEKS HOSPITAL

Home of Representative Bushee After Tubercular Home.

NORTH PLATTE OBJECTS TO IT

Department Commander Denies Sends Letter to Veterans Over State in Regard to Memorial Day.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, May 5.—(Special).—Besides Lodgepole, which recently made a bid for the location of the proposed hospital for indigent consumptives established by the act of the legislature, Kimball, the home of Representative Bushee, the author of the bill creating that institution, has come out as a candidate for the location. The following letter from the business men's organization of that place was received by the State Board of Public Lands and Buildings today:

"In the matter of a state home for tuberculars, it is the unanimous desire of the Kimball Business Men's club that Kimball be placed on record as an applicant for the location of this home. Our geographical location, climate and altitude bring about a condition that is very beneficial to sufferers of this malady. We have a good, clean town with all lines of business represented, excellent water and rail road facilities—transcontinental line of the Union Pacific railroad. We have for your inspection several choice sites and we trust that you will look them over at your convenience as well as the other advantages which we think make Kimball the best location obtainable. Will you kindly advise us a few days in advance of your coming?"

In regard to the offers looked to come from North Platte the county medical association of Lincoln county, through its officials, has sent the following communication to the board asserting that it is the sense of that body that the hospital be not located there:

"Be it resolved, by the medical society of Lincoln county, Nebraska, that the said society be in no way considered as inviting the location of a hospital for indigent consumptives, as provided for by an appropriation of the recent legislature of this state, at North Platte, Neb., or in the immediate vicinity of said city. Said society and the members therefore desire to suggest that the proper location for a hospital of this character is in the vicinity of some small town rather than a city of the first class."

"J. H. LANGLEY, President.
"T. J. KERR, Secretary."

H. P. Eames Recovering.

Prof. H. P. Eames, who has been seriously ill of pneumonia, has passed the crisis of his disease and his physicians say that he will recover.

WOMAN'S SUFFRAGE BILL IN HOUSE OF COMMONS

Measure Providing for Limited Franchise Passes Second Stage by Decisive Vote.

LONDON, May 5.—Another woman's enfranchisement bill was introduced in the House of Commons today by Sir George Kemp, liberal member for the north-west division of Manchester. The measure confers the right to vote on every woman, possessed of the household qualification, but it is provided that married women shall not be permitted to vote in the same constituency with their husbands. It is calculated that such legislation would enfranchise 1,000,000 women.

The bill passed the second reading stage by a vote of 36 to 28 and was referred to a committee of the whole house.

JAPAN LOANS CASH TO CHINA

Deal Quietly Negotiated to Prevent Protests From Provincial Celestials.

TOKYO, May 5.—The subscriptions to the $5,000,000 loan which Japan has made to the Chinese government through Yokohama specie banks aggregate $5,000,000. Foreigners will be allotted more than $2,000,000.

The loan was quietly negotiated and came as a surprise to the foreign financial interests. Since it was announced there had been an outcry from the provincial Chinese, who are jealous of the Japanese and who are easily inflamed by those having political purposes to serve. However, it is not thought this opposition will be serious.

The loan will be used to meet a deficit of the railway board and China gives in security 5 per cent railway bonds.
