

KIRK MUST FACE COUNCILMEN

Funkhouser Says He Has Gone as Far as He Agreed.

MUST PUT UP A LARGE BOND

Must Also Tell the City Council Who His Associates Are in the Proposed Scheme for Getting a Lighting Franchise.

If E. L. Kirk and associates want a franchise to do a general electric light and power business in Omaha, Kirk will have to appear before the council and tell the members who his associates are and satisfy them that he can carry out the provisions of the contract.

Such ultimatum has been delivered to Kirk by Councilman Funkhouser, who introduced the ordinance, granting Kirk and associates a twenty-five year franchise.

"I have told Kirk that he must plead his own case," said Councilman Funkhouser Friday morning. "I do not know whether he will appear before the committee. But I do know that I have done all that I agreed to do. He asked me to introduce the ordinance. I have done so, now it's up to him to show that he means business."

Kirk will be asked to put up a bond of $100,000, instead of $25,000, says Funkhouser, and has been instructed to prepare for the larger bond.

"Kirk says he will have no difficulty in putting up the bond," states Funkhouser.

MEXICAN REVOLT SPREADING FAST

Minister de la Barra is confident that a satisfactory agreement will be reached and his opinion is shared by most of the government officials.

Reports are current in the capital of a battle which is supposed to have occurred yesterday at Tres Marias, forty-five miles from Mexico City between 2,000 rebels and a band of federals which has been pursuing them for several days. No confirmation of the reports can be obtained, however.

NEGOTIATIONS ARE SUSPENDED

Carbaljal Refuses to Transmit Demand for Resignation.

EL PASO, May 5.—Peace negotiations between the Mexican insurgents and the Mexican government were suspended today to await an answer from Mexico City to the proposition submitted yesterday by Francisco I. Madero, Jr., that President Diaz make public his intention to resign. Federal representatives admitted that they did not expect a favorable answer.

Senator Oscar Braniff, one of the go-betweens in the negotiations told an Associated Press representative today that it was he who had conveyed to Madero assurances of President Diaz's intention to resign. He declared that President Diaz in a conversation with him had said he felt obligated to the majority of Mexican voters who had elected him, but the moment he felt convinced that the majority of the Mexican people no longer wanted him as president he would resign.

It was learned this afternoon that the government peace envoy did not transmit to the Mexican government General Madero's suggestion concerning the resignation of President Diaz. Judge Carbaljal is said to have advised the rebel commissioners that he had no instructions from the government to receive or discuss the resignation of the president.

Efforts were being made to resume the conferences of the peace commissioners late this afternoon to determine whether a basis of agreement could be effected despite the ultimatum of yesterday.

Senator Braniff asserted that he had personally ventured the opinion to Madero that President Diaz would resign immediately after peace was restored.

Braniff Speaks for Diaz. Senator Braniff later issued the following statement:

"Mr. Madero declared officially that he has been confided by some of us with the secret that General Diaz intends to retire as soon as Mexico is pacified and on the strength of this assertion appeals to his patriotism and invites him to come out with a confirmation of this secret, thus relieving the actual deadlock.

"In my endeavor to fight the anti-Diaz bogey, which has been exploited by some for purposes which in due course of time we shall make public with appropriate and sufficient proofs, privately and confidentially, I told Mr. Madero that for a long time General Diaz was desirous of retiring from public life. I told him that now more than ever Diaz was anxious to retire to private life, not only because he thought that he deserved a few years' rest and relief from the terrific responsibility of the last thirty years, but because he wanted to have the happiness of witnessing the consolidation of his country's stability through the peaceful administration to be brought about by a patriotically and discreetly exercised suffrage and that his obligations towards the majority of voters who had re-elected him, together with the presence of the patriot, the dignity of the executive, and the prestige and credit of the government and country—both at home and abroad—precluded his retirement under pressure of an armed revolution.

"Alongside of this determination the government was willing to recognize and implant promptly all such reforms, however radical, as responded to the well defined general public demands. In demonstration of good faith it stood ready to grant all practical guarantees to the effect of irrevocably binding the administration to these reforms—but this in a dignified and decorous manner.

Senator Braniff lauded the sincerity of the government and declared that "it was now up to Mr. Madero and his followers," to meet the government in the same spirit.

Ready to Renew War. The commissioners are confident of arranging the other conditions of peace within forty-eight hours if the Diaz question is once settled.

On the interpretation of the Mexican president's reply depends the fate of Mexico, rebel leaders declared today. Should an unfavorable reply be received they are prepared to break off peace negotiations and continue the argument with arms. They have no alternative, they say, for telegrams have been pouring into the headquarters of General Madero from revolutionary chieftains in all parts of Mexico warning him that if he consents to any arrangement which will continue General Diaz in power they will renounce his leadership and continue the rebellion independently.

Reports also have been received at the Madero camp of the mobilization of large bodies of rebel troops prepared to march on the city of Mexico if necessary.

The present armistice for the Chihuahua district will expire at noon tomorrow and should peace negotiations fall an attack on Juarez would be imminent. Some of the insurgents, however, in discussing such a contingency today, thought the attack on Juarez might be abandoned in view of possible complications with the United States and expressed the opinion that should be a good move to turn the insurgents army southward where the revolution is declared to be acquiring momentum rapidly.

Should the attack be made the rebels will be met by a garrison composed of 2,000 artillerymen, 1,000 infantrymen, 500 cavalry and 2,000 policemen.

INSURGENTES TAKE TORREON

Report that Rebels Hold Large Town in Coahuila.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., May 5.—That Torreon, Coahuila state, Mexico, has fallen into the hands of revolutionists is the news in a private telegram received in San Antonio today. The telegram was in cipher.

Gomez Palacios, according to a letter received from San Antonians residing there, had been in the hands of the revolutionists for several days preceding the writing of the letter. When the letter was written Torreon, just across the river, was under martial law and street car and railroad connection between the two cities was broken. All wire communication with the city is cut off, according to the telegraph company.

LAREDO, Tex., May 5.—Two automobiles alleged to contain arms and ammunition intended for smuggling across the Rio Grande were captured by army officers about ten miles south of this city last night and four persons were arrested and brought to Fort McIntosh. The four men were later arraigned before the United States commissioner here and released on bonds of $2,000 each.

Those arrested are Charles Ferrus, Constantino Flores, J. S. Mendolia, and E. Huasteca.

GOLD MEDAL FOR CARNEGIE

Steel King Given Mark of Esteem from South American Republics.

CALLS IT HIS GREATEST HONOR

First Time in History that Twenty-One Nations Unite in Paying Tribute to an Individual.

WASHINGTON, May 5.—Increasing anxiety, approaching alarm, is felt by administration officials for the safety of Americans in Mexico, especially in the vicinity of Acapulco, on the west coast.

Conditions described as intolerable were reported to the State department today by Ambassador Wilson. It is probably naval forces will be ordered to Acapulco at once. State department officials plainly were worried by the disquieting advice received from the American ambassador, despite the fact that Mr. Wilson said that the Mexican war department had sent urgent telegrams to the United States, not far from Acapulco. The neighborhood of the reported crime is said to be overrun by bandits, who owe no allegiance to any reported organization.

Mr. Wilson states also that Americans in Mexico City are becoming alarmed and that their unrest is in some measure due to the apprehension of the failure of peace negotiations and a consequent prevalence of anarchy.

Official reports received here today indicate the impenitency of battles in various parts of Mexico.

Consul Voetter at Seattle reported that an attack was expected on that city today.

Consul Garrett at Nueva Laredo reported that General Travino is leading a force against Salinas, eighty miles away.

Consul Miller at Tampico declared trouble was expected there by the end of the week and the consul at Vera Cruz sent word of an impending attack on Orizaba.

Reports to the State department indicate that the revolutionists are in control of nearly the entire state of Sinaloa. At Tonala a band of twenty revolutionists bound and carried off the local judge, who was stopping at a hotel. American citizens were not molested.

EDWARD M'CANN IS RELEASED

Former Chicago Police Inspector Pardoned by Governor Deane as Given Freedom.

CHICAGO, Ill., May 5.—Edward M'Cann of Chicago, former inspector of police, who was pardoned yesterday by Governor Deane, today left the Illinois state prison where he was serving sentence following conviction of accepting bribes from owners and keepers of disorderly places. He took the first train for Chicago.

He had no knowledge of the coming pardon when he was sent out to his regular work on the prison farm this morning. When the papers had arrived, he was called into the warden's office, where friends were awaiting him. Realizing from their smiling faces that he had been pardoned, he embraced his cousin, Mrs. Jennie Gillespie, and shook hands warmly with all present.

He then was taken to the office of Recording Clerk William Wickereham and was given his personal property, taken from him when he entered the jail. In addition he was presented with the customary $10 given to all discharged or paroled prisoners. When this was explained to him he smiled, saying:

"Well, it will go well toward getting a new bonnet for Mrs. M'Cann." M'Cann is stouter than when he entered the prison and says he is in better health.

HALSEY COOLEY IVES IS STRICKEN WITH APOPLEXY

LONDON, May 5.—Halsey Cooley Ives, director of the City Art museum of St. Louis, was stricken with apoplexy here today and his condition is very serious.

Mr. Ives is 46 years of age, and is widely known in this and other countries, having been many times decorated in recognition of his attainments in art. Part of his early education was acquired in the technical schools of South Kensington. On several occasions he has represented the United States government as commissioner abroad.

He was chief of the art department of the Chicago exposition in 1893 and of the St. Louis exposition in 1904. Mrs. Ives, who was formerly Margaret A. Lockland of St. Louis, has many friends in this city. Mr. Ives was born at Hontour Falls, N. Y.

Mr. Carnegie's Address.

In accepting the medal, Mr. Carnegie told of his feelings on being informed of the honor conferred on him by the Pan-American conference at Buenos Ayres.

"I was sitting at my desk in the Highlands of Scotland," he said, "when a telegram was handed to me, which I opened and read without seeming quite to grasp the meaning of the words. I was stunned. Was I dreaming? Slowly the truth developed and established itself and I began to realize what it all meant. Truly, my friends, I never before felt so completely overwhelmed and crushed as I did on that day when I learned that the conference had voted to confer with me an honor the like of which had never before been bestowed on a human being. Still ashamed to stand up, I felt as if I would like to sink into the ground conscious that I could never have the audacity to accept it, but the days passed. Hamlet's words came to me—'Treat the poor players not after their deserts, but after your own honor and dignity. The poorer their merits, the larger will be your bounty.' I was indeed in the condition of the poor players. The republic had followed Hamlet's advice and treated me not after my deserts, but after their own dignity and honor and this thought resigned me to my fate."

Tribute to Taft. Referring to President Taft's advice a year ago when he voiced the sentiment for a reign of peace among the Pan-American republics, Mr. Carnegie said:

"This president's first invitation to establish a reign of peace was properly made to you. He recently held out the other branch of peace and it instantly was accepted by the other branch of our English speaking race with such enthusiasm not by one, but by all parties, that today we have every reason to believe that to war as means of settling disputes between two branches of our race will soon become a crime of the past."

In offering thanks to the nations through their diplomats present for the honor bestowed on him, Mr. Carnegie expressed the ardent wish that prompt action be taken by the twenty-one republics to establish a reign of peace by adopting President Taft's policy of submitting all disputes to arbitration.
