Larger Athletic Field. More land was bought recently by the Cornhusker Athletic board from the surplus of funds arising from a successful foot ball and basket ball season. The board has been renting two lots at an enormously high rent for the last year, and the members thought it much wiser to make the investment before expending further sums as rent. The land is already included in a part of the athletic field. Next Monday the annual athletic board in election will be held at the university. Five are to be selected from eleven candidates.
