

The paper that is read by women brings best returns to advertisers

For Nebraska—Generally fair. For Iowa—Showers.

ASSAULT MADE ON RECIPROCITY BILL

Farmers, Fishermen and Paper Makers Have Inning Before Senate Committee.

FORMER GOVERNOR MAKES TALK

John Strange of Wisconsin Calls it Cowardly Measure.

FARMERS' CONGRESS TO OPPOSE

Legislative Agent of Body Tells of Its Purpose.

STAHL SAYS MANY WILL FIGHT

Declares Agriculturists of Several of the Middle Western States Are Aroused and He Points to Price of Meat.

WASHINGTON, May 10.—Violent assaults on the Canadian reciprocity bill marked today's hearing by the senate finance committee.

Probably the greatest outburst occurred when former Governor John Strange of Wisconsin, introduced by representing the warring paper manufacturers of Neenah and Menasha, Wis., addressed the committee.

He said that congress would not be in session today, considering the bill if it had not been for "this combination in restraint of trade."

The witness contended that the purpose of the "alleged reciprocity trust" was to monopolize news through the incorporated Associated Press.

Judge Charles F. Moore of New York, for the book paper manufacturers, characterized the measure as a "retrograde variety of reciprocity that really does not reciprocate."

Farmers' National Opposes. CHICAGO, May 10.—John M. Stahl, legislative agent of the farmers' national congress, announced today that the alliance, which is represented in its membership in nearly all the important farming states, would oppose reciprocity with Canada.

The farmers' national congress is composed of about 6,000 delegates, appointed by the state governors on the recommendations of the agricultural organizations of the states.

TIME GIVEN TO FILE BRIEFS

Hearing on Charges of Alpha Portland Cement Company is Concluded.

NEW YORK, May 10.—The hearing by the interstate commerce commission on the charges of the Alpha Portland Cement company that influence of the United States Steel corporation gave favorable freight rates to a subsidiary cement plant of the steel corporation was concluded today and permission was given for the plaintiff to file briefs within thirty days at Washington.

THE WEATHER.

FOR NEBRASKA—Fair. FOR IOWA—Showers.

Temperature at Omaha Yesterday.

Table with columns for Hour, Deg., and Comparative Local Record.

NEW HIGH MARK FOR COTTON

Bulls Take Hold and Force Price Up to the Top Level of the Season.

NEW ORLEANS, May 10.—Following the excitement in the New Orleans Cotton exchange yesterday, occasioned by the offer of Frank E. Hayne, the bull leader, to take the entire supply of spot cotton in New Orleans at 15.75 cents, comparative quiet ruled the ring when the market opened today.

Edinburgh Theater Burns

Eight Persons Are Dead, Including Lafayette, the Great.

FIRE STARTS IN FILE OF SCENERY

Iron Curtain in Front of the Stage is Dropped, Thus Preventing a Panic in Audience in Body of the House

EDINBURGH, Scotland, May 10.—Eight bodies have been recovered this morning from the ruins of the Empire music hall, which burned last night. The bodies so far identified are those of "Lafayette the Great" and two members of his company.

Madero's Fighters Ready to Continue, While Wounded Suffer in Neglect

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

BY GUY C. CORE.

EL PASO, Tex., May 10.—(Special Telegram.)—A bright moon, which floods the sandy stretches of the Ciudad Juarez battlefield with soft mellow light, finds the closing second day of the bloody fight with the rebels surrounding the city holding many advantageous points.

Though Madero's army of 1,200 men is now in the city or in the Sakas nearby, 800 federal reinforcements are within striking distance and will be in town before morning.

Colonel Villareal with 300 men has arrived at the outposts from Ojinaga, 200 are now marching from Bañico and Gustavo Madero declares that General Blanco with his three hundred reserves has been ordered to a night attack.

Despite all this, Rafael Hernandez, Madero's uncle, the volunteer peace envoy, responsible for the peace negotiations of last week, declared tonight that he yet considered peace a possibility.

Colonel Tamborel, commandant of Juarez, ranked only by General Navarro, and considered one of the greatest strategists in Mexico, is reported killed.

Tonight the wounded on both sides are being brought to El Paso and for a time fight has practically ceased.

At 3:45 o'clock Captain Juan S. Hart, "Australian Billy" Smith, a former prize fighter, now a detective; Lou Gasser, a former rough rider; Earl Harding of the New York World, and myself, crossed into Mexico with an automobile, waving a white flag and ironed the first consignment of wounded to the American side.

Disposition of the Arms. At 8 o'clock today, when his men were fighting heroically in the face of machine guns, Francisco I. Madero, was found by a correspondent peacefully sleeping at his camp near the smelter.

He had been on the firing line all night. The rebel situation was intelligently explained for the first time by Major Juan Lopez, commanding the rebels on the north side of town, whom our party found at the improvised hospital at the ear barn.

Places and People Where Battle Raged

FEDERAL SOLDIERS DEFENDING SAN GUADALUPE CHURCH

INSURRECTO CAVALRY IN CHARGE OF GEN. BARCIAL OROZCO

GEN. TRINIDAD AND GROUP OF INSURRECTO LEADERS

INSURRECTO SHARPSHOOTERS "POTTING" FEDERAL SENTRIES IN JUAREZ

Edinburgh Theater Burns

Eight Persons Are Dead, Including Lafayette, the Great.

FIRE STARTS IN FILE OF SCENERY

Iron Curtain in Front of the Stage is Dropped, Thus Preventing a Panic in Audience in Body of the House

EDINBURGH, Scotland, May 10.—Eight bodies have been recovered this morning from the ruins of the Empire music hall, which burned last night.

The bodies so far identified are those of "Lafayette the Great" and two members of his company.

Alice Dale, who impersonated the Teddy Bear midwife, and Joe Coster, two bodies are those of members of the orchestra and three others have not been identified.

Miss Dale and Coster were natives of England. Lafayette was a German. He played for twenty years in the United States.

Those behind the stage door through which the performers made a mad rush in a moment the stage was filled with flames. The iron fire curtain was hastily lowered and the audience, which at first thought that the burst of fire was a part of the spectacle, escaped with little panic.

The bodies of the scene, having secured the safety of auditors, made a mad rush for the exits. When the fire was at its height, the iron curtain fell in on the stage.

Lafayette, who was a popular and picturesque character, recently finished a season at the largest London halls. He had a residence in London and across the sea a residence in the United States.

Under this were pictures of himself with horse and dog. Several American negroes composing his brass band are supposed to have escaped.

The bodies of the scene, having secured the safety of auditors, made a mad rush for the exits. When the fire was at its height, the iron curtain fell in on the stage.

Lafayette, who was a popular and picturesque character, recently finished a season at the largest London halls. He had a residence in London and across the sea a residence in the United States.

Under this were pictures of himself with horse and dog. Several American negroes composing his brass band are supposed to have escaped.

The bodies of the scene, having secured the safety of auditors, made a mad rush for the exits. When the fire was at its height, the iron curtain fell in on the stage.

Lafayette, who was a popular and picturesque character, recently finished a season at the largest London halls. He had a residence in London and across the sea a residence in the United States.

Under this were pictures of himself with horse and dog. Several American negroes composing his brass band are supposed to have escaped.

The bodies of the scene, having secured the safety of auditors, made a mad rush for the exits. When the fire was at its height, the iron curtain fell in on the stage.

Lafayette, who was a popular and picturesque character, recently finished a season at the largest London halls. He had a residence in London and across the sea a residence in the United States.

Under this were pictures of himself with horse and dog. Several American negroes composing his brass band are supposed to have escaped.

The bodies of the scene, having secured the safety of auditors, made a mad rush for the exits. When the fire was at its height, the iron curtain fell in on the stage.

Lafayette, who was a popular and picturesque character, recently finished a season at the largest London halls. He had a residence in London and across the sea a residence in the United States.

Under this were pictures of himself with horse and dog. Several American negroes composing his brass band are supposed to have escaped.

The bodies of the scene, having secured the safety of auditors, made a mad rush for the exits. When the fire was at its height, the iron curtain fell in on the stage.

Lafayette, who was a popular and picturesque character, recently finished a season at the largest London halls. He had a residence in London and across the sea a residence in the United States.

Under this were pictures of himself with horse and dog. Several American negroes composing his brass band are supposed to have escaped.

The bodies of the scene, having secured the safety of auditors, made a mad rush for the exits. When the fire was at its height, the iron curtain fell in on the stage.

Lafayette, who was a popular and picturesque character, recently finished a season at the largest London halls. He had a residence in London and across the sea a residence in the United States.

Under this were pictures of himself with horse and dog. Several American negroes composing his brass band are supposed to have escaped.

The bodies of the scene, having secured the safety of auditors, made a mad rush for the exits. When the fire was at its height, the iron curtain fell in on the stage.

Lafayette, who was a popular and picturesque character, recently finished a season at the largest London halls. He had a residence in London and across the sea a residence in the United States.

Under this were pictures of himself with horse and dog. Several American negroes composing his brass band are supposed to have escaped.

The bodies of the scene, having secured the safety of auditors, made a mad rush for the exits. When the fire was at its height, the iron curtain fell in on the stage.

Lafayette, who was a popular and picturesque character, recently finished a season at the largest London halls. He had a residence in London and across the sea a residence in the United States.

Under this were pictures of himself with horse and dog. Several American negroes composing his brass band are supposed to have escaped.

The bodies of the scene, having secured the safety of auditors, made a mad rush for the exits. When the fire was at its height, the iron curtain fell in on the stage.

Lafayette, who was a popular and picturesque character, recently finished a season at the largest London halls. He had a residence in London and across the sea a residence in the United States.

Under this were pictures of himself with horse and dog. Several American negroes composing his brass band are supposed to have escaped.

The bodies of the scene, having secured the safety of auditors, made a mad rush for the exits. When the fire was at its height, the iron curtain fell in on the stage.

Lafayette, who was a popular and picturesque character, recently finished a season at the largest London halls. He had a residence in London and across the sea a residence in the United States.

Under this were pictures of himself with horse and dog. Several American negroes composing his brass band are supposed to have escaped.

The bodies of the scene, having secured the safety of auditors, made a mad rush for the exits. When the fire was at its height, the iron curtain fell in on the stage.

Lafayette, who was a popular and picturesque character, recently finished a season at the largest London halls. He had a residence in London and across the sea a residence in the United States.

Under this were pictures of himself with horse and dog. Several American negroes composing his brass band are supposed to have escaped.

Places and People Where Battle Raged

FEDERAL SOLDIERS DEFENDING SAN GUADALUPE CHURCH

INSURRECTO CAVALRY IN CHARGE OF GEN. BARCIAL OROZCO

GEN. TRINIDAD AND GROUP OF INSURRECTO LEADERS

INSURRECTO SHARPSHOOTERS "POTTING" FEDERAL SENTRIES IN JUAREZ

Edinburgh Theater Burns

Eight Persons Are Dead, Including Lafayette, the Great.

FIRE STARTS IN FILE OF SCENERY

Iron Curtain in Front of the Stage is Dropped, Thus Preventing a Panic in Audience in Body of the House

EDINBURGH, Scotland, May 10.—Eight bodies have been recovered this morning from the ruins of the Empire music hall, which burned last night.

The bodies so far identified are those of "Lafayette the Great" and two members of his company.

Alice Dale, who impersonated the Teddy Bear midwife, and Joe Coster, two bodies are those of members of the orchestra and three others have not been identified.

Miss Dale and Coster were natives of England. Lafayette was a German. He played for twenty years in the United States.

Those behind the stage door through which the performers made a mad rush in a moment the stage was filled with flames. The iron fire curtain was hastily lowered and the audience, which at first thought that the burst of fire was a part of the spectacle, escaped with little panic.

The bodies of the scene, having secured the safety of auditors, made a mad rush for the exits. When the fire was at its height, the iron curtain fell in on the stage.

Lafayette, who was a popular and picturesque character, recently finished a season at the largest London halls. He had a residence in London and across the sea a residence in the United States.

Under this were pictures of himself with horse and dog. Several American negroes composing his brass band are supposed to have escaped.

The bodies of the scene, having secured the safety of auditors, made a mad rush for the exits. When the fire was at its height, the iron curtain fell in on the stage.

Lafayette, who was a popular and picturesque character, recently finished a season at the largest London halls. He had a residence in London and across the sea a residence in the United States.

Under this were pictures of himself with horse and dog. Several American negroes composing his brass band are supposed to have escaped.

The bodies of the scene, having secured the safety of auditors, made a mad rush for the exits. When the fire was at its height, the iron curtain fell in on the stage.

Lafayette, who was a popular and picturesque character, recently finished a season at the largest London halls. He had a residence in London and across the sea a residence in the United States.

Under this were pictures of himself with horse and dog. Several American negroes composing his brass band are supposed to have escaped.

The bodies of the scene, having secured the safety of auditors, made a mad rush for the exits. When the fire was at its height, the iron curtain fell in on the stage.

Lafayette, who was a popular and picturesque character, recently finished a season at the largest London halls. He had a residence in London and across the sea a residence in the United States.

Under this were pictures of himself with horse and dog. Several American negroes composing his brass band are supposed to have escaped.

The bodies of the scene, having secured the safety of auditors, made a mad rush for the exits. When the fire was at its height, the iron curtain fell in on the stage.

Lafayette, who was a popular and picturesque character, recently finished a season at the largest London halls. He had a residence in London and across the sea a residence in the United States.

Under this were pictures of himself with horse and dog. Several American negroes composing his brass band are supposed to have escaped.

The bodies of the scene, having secured the safety of auditors, made a mad rush for the exits. When the fire was at its height, the iron curtain fell in on the stage.

Lafayette, who was a popular and picturesque character, recently finished a season at the largest London halls. He had a residence in London and across the sea a residence in the United States.

Under this were pictures of himself with horse and dog. Several American negroes composing his brass band are supposed to have escaped.

The bodies of the scene, having secured the safety of auditors, made a mad rush for the exits. When the fire was at its height, the iron curtain fell in on the stage.

Lafayette, who was a popular and picturesque character, recently finished a season at the largest London halls. He had a residence in London and across the sea a residence in the United States.

Under this were pictures of himself with horse and dog. Several American negroes composing his brass band are supposed to have escaped.

The bodies of the scene, having secured the safety of auditors, made a mad rush for the exits. When the fire was at its height, the iron curtain fell in on the stage.

Lafayette, who was a popular and picturesque character, recently finished a season at the largest London halls. He had a residence in London and across the sea a residence in the United States.

Under this were pictures of himself with horse and dog. Several American negroes composing his brass band are supposed to have escaped.

The bodies of the scene, having secured the safety of auditors, made a mad rush for the exits. When the fire was at its height, the iron curtain fell in on the stage.

Lafayette, who was a popular and picturesque character, recently finished a season at the largest London halls. He had a residence in London and across the sea a residence in the United States.

Under this were pictures of himself with horse and dog. Several American negroes composing his brass band are supposed to have escaped.

The bodies of the scene, having secured the safety of auditors, made a mad rush for the exits. When the fire was at its height, the iron curtain fell in on the stage.

Lafayette, who was a popular and picturesque character, recently finished a season at the largest London halls. He had a residence in London and across the sea a residence in the United States.

Under this were pictures of himself with horse and dog. Several American negroes composing his brass band are supposed to have escaped.

The bodies of the scene, having secured the safety of auditors, made a mad rush for the exits. When the fire was at its height, the iron curtain fell in on the stage.

Lafayette, who was a popular and picturesque character, recently finished a season at the largest London halls. He had a residence in London and across the sea a residence in the United States.

Under this were pictures of himself with horse and dog. Several American negroes composing his brass band are supposed to have escaped.

The bodies of the scene, having secured the safety of auditors, made a mad rush for the exits. When the fire was at its height, the iron curtain fell in on the stage.

Lafayette, who was a popular and picturesque character, recently finished a season at the largest London halls. He had a residence in London and across the sea a residence in the United States.

Under this were pictures of himself with horse and dog. Several American negroes composing his brass band are supposed to have escaped.

WHITE FLAG NOW FLOATS OVER THE CITY OF JUAREZ

After a Long and Pious Battle Mexican Stronghold Falls into the Hands of the Rebels.

NAVARRO FINALLY GIVES UP

Federals Unable to Resist Attack of Blanco, Fresh from Camp.

REBELS IN COMPLETE CONTROL

Capture Many Cannon and Large Quantities of Small Arms.

VILLA IN PURSUIT OF FEDERALS

Wounded of Both Armies to El Paso for Treatment.

RED CROSS NURSES BEGIN WORK

Last Stand of Soldiers of Diaz Made at the Old Mission Church, Which is Bombed for Many Hours.

EL PASO, Tex., May 10.—At 3 o'clock this afternoon, General Navarro and the members of his staff surrendered to Colonel Garibaldi of the insurrecto army.

EL PASO, Tex., May 10.—The white flag is floating over the Mexican barracks at Juarez and the surrender of the city by the federals to the rebels under General Madero is complete.

When the attack was resumed this afternoon, four shots from the rebel artillery tore such large holes in the barracks that the white flag immediately was hoisted and at 12:40, except for occasional shooting in the foothills, the firing had ceased.

The main street of Juarez is in ruins, some of the houses being riddled with bullets. Plaster, brick and piles of debris are scattered everywhere. Windows in many of the stores have been crashed in, but rebels are guarding the entrances to them to prevent looting.

Some of the houses have been demolished by the dynamite bombs and shells.

EL PASO, Tex., May 10.—General Navarro is reported to have deserted Juarez and is said to be fleeing with his men toward Bañico.

He is not believed to know that insurrecto reinforcements are coming from that direction. Insurrectos are shooting wildly at 10:30 o'clock about both bridges and the noise in the town is deafening.

EL PASO, Tex., May 10.—Insurrecto cavalrymen are galloping toward General Navarro, who is about a half mile away in the direction of the camp, to inform him of their success in the battle at the church.

The insurrectos were reported to have taken many prisoners. The insurrectos stole into advantageous positions under cover of darkness and their stealth is believed to have been responsible for the arrests they have made.

EL PASO, Tex., May 10.—Colonel Francisco Villa with 100 rebels has started in pursuit of Navarro. General Madero is reported to be moving rapidly toward Juarez at 1:30 o'clock to take possession of the town.

General Madero is reported to be moving rapidly toward Juarez at 1:30 o'clock to take possession of the town.

EL PASO, Tex., May 10.—Insurrectos can be seen at 10:30 o'clock filling the streets, as their new are coming out from behind their barricades. A number of federals have taken refuge in the adobe houses west of town.

Throughout the night the insurrectos kept the position along the river bank and in Juarez, extending up to the business section of the city. Early today, however, the federals held all points of vantage to Juarez apparently until the attack of Blanco was commenced.

Blanco's men had been held in camp all day yesterday and Monday and were fresh. They went into the fight with a vim and it was impossible for the federals to stop them.

The engagement began in earnest at 12:30 o'clock. The federals are making desperate stands from behind their barricades. The rebels are pushing the fighting. The fed-

Cans of Farrell's Syrup.

Quart bricks of Dalzell's ice cream. Boxes of O'Brien's candy.

All gives away free to those who find their names in the want ads.

Read the want ads every day, your name will appear sometime, may be more than once.

No puzzles to solve nor subscriptions to get—just read the want ads.

Turn to the want ad pages—now.

WHILE WOUNDED SUFFER IN NEGLECT

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

BY GUY C. CORE.

EL PASO, Tex., May 10.—(Special Telegram.)—A bright moon, which floods the sandy stretches of the Ciudad Juarez battlefield with soft mellow light, finds the closing second day of the bloody fight with the rebels surrounding the city holding many advantageous points.

Though Madero's army of 1,200 men is now in the city or in the Sakas nearby, 800 federal reinforcements are within striking distance and will be in town before morning.

Colonel Villareal with 300 men has arrived at the outposts from Ojinaga, 200 are now marching from Bañico and Gustavo Madero declares that General Blanco with his three hundred reserves has been ordered to a night attack.

Despite all this, Rafael Hernandez, Madero's uncle, the volunteer peace envoy, responsible for the peace negotiations of last week, declared tonight that he yet considered peace a possibility.

Colonel Tamborel, commandant of Juarez, ranked only by General Navarro, and considered one of the greatest strategists in Mexico, is reported killed.

Tonight the wounded on both sides are being brought to El Paso and for a time fight has practically ceased.

At 3:45 o'clock Captain Juan S. Hart, "Australian Billy" Smith, a former prize fighter, now a detective; Lou Gasser, a former rough rider; Earl Harding of the New York World, and myself, crossed into Mexico with an automobile, waving a white flag and ironed the first consignment of wounded to the American side.

Disposition of the Arms. At 8 o'clock today, when his men were fighting heroically in the face of machine guns, Francisco I. Madero, was found by a correspondent peacefully sleeping at his camp near the smelter.

He had been on the firing line all night. The rebel situation was intelligently explained for the first time by Major Juan Lopez, commanding the rebels on the north side of town, whom our party found at the improvised hospital at the ear barn.

Major Lopez declared he did not believe there were more than fifty insurrectos killed or wounded. Bombs, thrown by daring rebels, did long distances during the heaviest fire, ran great destruction during the day.