Taken of the second sec	Sunday School Workers from All Over the Country Are to Con- gregate There. The annual convention of the State Sun- day School association will be held at Grand Island, June 6-8. The indications are this will be one of the largest and best conventions of the Sunday school people ever held in this state. According to custom, those interested in the instruction of the little ones will meet in what is known as the elementary in- stitute Tuesday afternoon. The forenoon will be taken up with a sociations. Tuesday evening the conven- tion will open with a review of what has been accompliabed this year by President 4. G. Wallace. This will be followed by an inspirational address by a well-known been accompliabed the year by President 5. G. Wallace. This will be followed by a fresheat. Wednesday forenoon will be devoted for proports and items of interest from over the state. Part of the afternoon will be given to sectional conferences followed by ad- dresses by well known workers from out- side the state. Wednesday evening is usually the climax of the convention and it is expected that R. A. Waite of New York City, one of the best known workers for boys in the country, for some years inter- national secretary of the Young Men's Christian association, will give the address, Charles P. Hall, a well-known Sunday school worker of Chicago, will speak both atternoon and evening. Thursday will be quite a busy day. Her- bert Moninger, who is at the head of the Sunday school work of the Christian church, and one of the meet popular Sun- day school speakers in the country, will deliver an address both afternoon and even- sing. In the afternoon a party of leading sunday school people from different easters of the state way to the international con- vention at San Francisco, will stop and arend the afternoon and events with the	There promises to be an unusually large attendance of Douglas county workers. Every school is entitled to as many dele- gates as they wish providing they pay the enrollment fee of $1. The people of Grand Island furnish lodging and breakfast. Boosters to Have Beautiful Booklet for the Coming Trip P. P. Fodrea is to Be the Official Talker at the Various Stop- ping Places. A handsome brochure containing the it- inerary and other interestings information about Omaha and the forthcoming trade excursion is being prepared by Commis- stioner Guild of the Commercial club. It will not be off the press for about ten days. The souvenir will be printed in two colors, and will be the most artistic of any ever solar out by the club. Four thousand of them will be malled out in advance of the trade trip. "Not only are an unusually large number of heads of houses going on the trip this year," says Commissioner Guild. "but there are more establishments sending two men than ever before. Principal among these are M. E. Smith & Co. Byrne & Hammer bry Goods company. John Deere Flow com- pany. Nebraska Telephone company. "The committee is congratulating itself on the speaker secured for the trip.
