while sheep are quotable about a quarter higher. Receipts have been well up to a season able average and included a liberal run of wooled Mexican lambs. This class of stock was practically alone in the wooled display, as the bulk of old sheep lately arrived without fleece. Shorn lambs wers in good supply on most days and generally sold at ratnet broad discounts under choice wooled Mexicans. A 55.50 top was made on best Mexicans stopped at 55.40. The former price is the highest paid locally in over five months. Good spring lambs have been selling around 57.00. Mexican yearlings brought as much as $5.25 this week, but arrivals have been few. Wethers, also wooled, are youtable up to $4.75, while $4.36 wooled, are youtable were seen selling around $4.00 western lambs, $5.00076.40; common shorn lambs, $4.50076.40; common shorn and started a run of lightdation at the opening Bül leaders, however, are keep-ing up a possible entrusinsm, enlishing everything from bilgsards and drouth in the northwest to caterpillars and hot winds in the southwest to keep the market going. These efforts are meeting with consider-able success, although some conservative reaction is probable from this strong turn. Bulls in corn have found more difficulty in advancing values, as the belief exists among the trade that the country will have a large amount of corn to move as soon as the active planting sease or servative reaction is probable from this strong turn. Bulls in corn have found more as found as the active planting season is over, and because of this heavy selling has checked the advance. At the same time cash corn is in a very strong position, stocks are re-duced and shipments are on a large scale compared with the current receipts. Wheat ruled steady and had a firm tone, though the range was slightly under yes-terday's close. Cash wheat was strong, with values be higher. inal. During the week demand for all kinds of offerings has been active and ample, each day's clearance being easy and early. On Monday buyers acted conservatively, but their attitude changed at Tuesday's opening and orders were filled with some show of urgency throughout the rest of the week. Prices improved under the influence of better competition and both sheep and iambs are closing on a higher basis than prevailed at last week's finish Lambs, with and without fleece, claim margins sogistic above quotations last Saturday,
