OMAHA. May 15, 1911. Tablas were firm and some higher, caus-ing a strong opening, coupled with builds. Russian reports. I domestic news was very hearish, how-ever, and selling became general on the builds, shorts showing more willingness to follow the advantage. The market ruled weak and lower. The corn trade feels certain of a big movement for the balance of the month and the now low stocks will be replenished, as the shipping orders are slack and there is a lack of export business. Cash demand keeps strong and any letup in country offerings would cause a reaction. Bearish crop estimates by prominent wheat may values were sent lower again and wheat was 4c lower. Corn and Wheat Begion Sulletin.

Prices on Board of Trade.

Prices on Board of Trade. CHICAGO, May 16.-Wheat prices sank under free selling in the last half of the session today. The decline was coincident with talk by a prominent operator that crop prospects in this country could hardly be better and that a fall of 10c a bushel from present values might easily take place. Closing figures were the same as last night to %c down. Final trades left corn %c off to a shade up, oats unal-tered to %2%c higher and hog products 10220c lower. According to the bear argument, if the present wheat prospects were harvested a
