YORK. Neb... May 19.—(Special.)—While the York Nebraska State league base ball team has not made a brilliant record, yet the fans are pinning their faith on the team, hoping that they will finish somewhere near 500 per cent or better. Considering this is York's first year and the fact that a new team is handicapped in selection of players, the fans did not expect too much. On Saturday, this week, will be the first time, the backers here will see the team in play against Nebraska State league teams, and it is hoped that the shake-up in the team will be the means of winning a fair per cent of home games that will be played here for the next two weeks.

BRADSTRET'S REVIEW OF TRADE

Events of Week Are Apparently Favorable in General. NEW YORK, May 18.-Bradstreet's tomorrow will say:

morrow will say:

Events of the week have been apparently favorable. Beasonable weather, good crop reports, except from a few sections where dry weather is a serious drawback, and, judging from the early public and stock market recytion thereof, good legal declinons are the three features making for better business and a more hopeful feeling. Actual results are hardly up to sanguine expectations. Retail trade has expanded, but the improvement is late, the feeling heing that retailiers stocks have not been much broken.

Iron and steel were not greatly changed. Business failures in the United States for the week ending May 18 were 285, against 285 last week.

Business failures in Canada for the week number twenty-seven, which compares
