

GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Foreign and Domestic Conditions Favor Wheat Bears.

CASH DEMAND IS NOT IMPROVED

Corn Has Steady Tone—Country Movement Slight, but Shipping Demand Better—Advance Appears Probable.

Weather conditions over the wheat belt market values at this time. The foreign market has been quiet, but a bullish tone has been reported from the southwest and northwest has had timely and beneficial effects on the market.

Cash demand does not improve, the situation is somewhat unsettled. The changes in corn are not decisive either way, although the market has been disappointing so far, while the shipping demand has improved.

Wheat ruled weaker owing to more favorable weather reports and poor cash demand. News was strongly in favor of the bears.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS

Features of the Trading and Closing Prices on Board of Trade.

CHICAGO, May 19.—Promises of cooler weather and a sharp turn in wheat prices led to a downward course today. A prediction that shipments from Russia would increase on the board side of the market.

Although a ment in the wheat pit was unmistakably in favor of the bears, selling pressure was not strong.

Provisions were quiet, and because of slack demand. When the ground pork had fallen 10c, and lard and ribs were 10c lower.

NEW YORK STOCKS AND BONDS

Buying Movement Appears to Be Spent for Time.

LESSEMED DEMAND FROM SHORTS

Most Extensive Movements of Day Among Active Stocks Are in Reading and Amalgamated Copper.

NEW YORK, May 19.—Trading in stocks fell off largely after three days of heavy dealing and the enthusiastic buying movement appeared to have spent itself for the time.

The most extensive movements of the day among the stocks were in Reading and Amalgamated Copper, both of which were bought only to be sold again.

DUN'S REVIEW OF TRADE

Two Events of Week Have Important Influence on Business.

TRADE REPORTS ARE IMPROVED

Better Feeling is Noted in Iron and Steel Trade in Spite of Concessions.

NEW YORK, May 19.—Dun's Weekly Review of Trade tomorrow will say: Two events of the week have important influence in the business situation.

For the first time in many weeks the reports from leading trade centers are more buoyant, though it would not appear that the actual gain has been much.

It also appears to a limited degree in the textile market, which report some improvement notwithstanding the continued curtailment due to high prices.

Quotations on sheep and lambs: Spring lambs, good to choice, $3.00 to $3.50. Mexican lambs, fair to good, $2.50 to $3.00.
