THE BEE: OMAHA, SATURDAY, MAY 20, 1911.

Boxes Engaged

All of the boxes have been engaged for the attraction "Around the World with Terpsichors," which will be given at the Brandeis theater Saturday afternoon and evening under the direction of Miss Lowden for the benefit of the city missions and the Child Saving Institute.

For the matines the boxes have been en gaged by Mrs. C. T. Kountze, Mrs. W. B. Millard, Mrs. K. C. Barton, Mrs. F. Kirkendall, Mrs. C. W. Lyman, Mrs Cowin and Miss Stella Hamilton. The guests of Mrs. Kirkendall will be Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Hochstetler, Mr. Frank Hochstetler and Mr. Myren Hochstetler.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman will entertain Mrs. H. W. Yates, Mrs. E. M. Morsman, Miss Harper, Mrs. El M. Moraman, jr.

The guests of Miss Stella Hamilton will be Mrs. Will Hamilton, Miss Marian Hamllion, Mrs. Fred Hamilton. Mrs. W. B. Millard will entertain Mrs.

A. L. Williams, Mrs. John Williams, Mrs. J. W. Griffith, Mrs. Van Ostrand, Mrs. Kitton, Mrs. Jo Barton, Mrs. A. K. Gault, Mrs. Millard.

Mrs. C. T. Kountze will have a small box party at the matinee for her children, Master Denman Kountze and little Miss Eleanor Kountze.

The boxes for the evening have been taken by Mr. and Mrs. Rome Miller, Mr. and Mrs. George Joslyn, Mr. Luther Drake, Mr. Fred Metz, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Reed. Mr. and Mrs. Kirkendall will have with them Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Wharton, Mrs. Barker and Mr. Bourdette Kirkendall. Mr. and Mrs. Rome Miller will entertain four guests: Dr. and Mrs. Waggoner, Mr.

and Mrs. W Clarke. Mr. and Mrs. George Joslyn will entertain Mr. and Mrs. Walter Page. Mr. and Mrs. Farnsworth, Mrs. Dickey, Miss Helen Scohle, Mr. Milton Darling and Mr. Arthur Coolidge.

With Mr. and Mrs. Fred Metz will be a family party including Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mets, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mets, Miss Harriet Metz, Mr. Louis Mets and Mr. Charles E. Metz.

One of the large box parties will be given Baturday evening at the Brandels by Mrs. Charles T. Kountze. Following the theater Mrs. Kountze will entertain her young guests at supper at the Omaha club. The guests will be:

MIRAR Allsee-Heien Eastman. Marion Kuhns, Lucille Bacon, Jesephine Congdon, Gertrude Metz,

For B. H. Seniors

Mrs. J. J. Dickey will entertain at din ner at the Country club this evening in honor of Miss Bertha Dickey and the other graduates of Brownell Hall. The guests will be seated at one large table. which has a low mound of white marguerites, carying out the class colors of white and green. Those present will be Saving Institute. Those present Mr. Henry T. Clarke. Mayor and Mrs. Dahiman. Mr. and Mrs. Warren Blackwell. Mr. and Mrs. Warren Blackwell. Mr. and Mrs. Nelson B. Updike. Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Griffin. Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Templeton. Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Templeton. Mr. and Mrs. James Woodrough Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Clarke. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Clarke. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Clarke. Mr. and Mrs. Huntley. Mr. and Mrs. Huntley. Mr. and Mrs. Huntley. the graduates: Misses-Nana Cotterman, Manila. Mildred Miles. Sidney. Ruth Wales, Sloux City, Ia. Catherine Hoffman, Neely. Bess Cattle. Seward Misses-Misses-Gienn Way, Omaha. Ava Johnson, Fairfax, S. D. Ruth Streitz, North Platte, Heien Leet, Omaha. sha. Elgin. Seward. Perna Jackson, Elgin. Other guests will be: MISSE Misses-Marsden, principal. Taylor. Helen Scobie. Daphane Peters. Mrs. J. R. Scobie. Among other affairs planned for the Brownell seniors will be a tally-ho party followed by dinner at the Paxton given by Mr. and Mrs. George Seymour of Elgin, Neb. Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Way will entertain at dinner at home Saturday evening, May 27, for Miss'Gienn Way and her classmates. Following Mrs. Way's dinner Miss Ed Phelan Nana Cotterman will take the girls to the F. H. Cole. Isaac Douglas. Saturday evening dance at the Field club. May 29, Miss Ava Johnson of Fairfax, Wagner, Frederick Rouse, 8. D., will entertain at a box party at the Ella Squires, Brandels, where Miss Barrymore will be Misses the attraction. They will be chaperoned Belle Ryan, Katherine Moorhead, by Miss Marsden and Miss Taylor.

Special Uses for Cheese

taste is conservative and the sait and two drops of onion juice. 闽I] family will not eat but one Mold into balls, dip in egg and bread kind of cheese, vary the sercrumbs, and fry in boiling lard before. vice. Fascinating ara the serving. new servers. There are Another fried cheese with lettuce is dilver incrusted glass jars with proportion.

in an airtight cold place.

is passed whole.

made of the English or ordinary heavily monogramed lids of silver to American cheese cut in strips like beautify the porcelain jars that hold French fried potatoes. Dip these in certain cheeses. They come in all seasoned egg and bread crumbs and sizes, and there are cheese scoops in fry in deep fat when ready for use. An artistic arrangement is made by

Cheese balls, cheese squares, the draining the liquid from Spanish pimentos, (sweet red peppers), which cheeses passed whole and cut with a are then covered with Ice water for special chese knife, like Bris and Gorgonzola, have special flat dishes five minutes and well dried. Stuff dedicated to their service. Sometimes with cream cheese, stand on the ice they are or rock crystal, more often for an hour, then cut into slices across and serve the rings as the ordinary of crystals with silver rim or deep sliver border, or their special platters cheese balls or garnish the dish of salad. in plain silver with open work border. Instead of using crackers and cheese Always there is the long-handled cheese fork to facilitate service.

separately they are frequently com-The housekeeper who does not be bined. Salted wafers or butter thins lieve in monotony does not serve are good heavily spread with butter then sprinkled with paprika and Parcheese in the same way two days in mesian cheese. succession. A little planning will en-Even better are cheese breads. Cut able her to run three or four different day old bread, plices a half inch thick, kinds of cheese at the same time, with a ring cutter into rounds two keeping them all fresh by putting them inches in diameter, butter on both The same kind of cheese may be sides, and cover thickly with small served in various forms. Take the pleces of American cheese sprinkled with a little sait and cayenne. Cook popular cream cheese, probably more in a quick oven until brown and used than any other one make. If you pass it out in squares one day, the melted. next mix it in balls sprinkled with Cheese drops are good and unusual. paraley; again mix with chopped Chop two ounces of putter in the botpimolas; or thin slightly with whipped tom of a porcelain saucepan and pour cream, mix with chopped red peppers over it a pint of boiling water. Have and remold into a flat thin cake, which ready a cupful each of grated cheese and flour seasoned with salt, cayenne Instead of serving bar-le-duc and and a little mustard. Add slowly to cream cheese separately, stir together the hot water and butter, stir smooth into a mixture about the consistency and boll for five minutes. When nearly cold add four unbeaten eggs, of creamed butter and sugar. one at a time, and beat slowly for fif-Fried choese balls are delicious served with plain lettuce and French teen or twenty minutes. Drop or iron dressing. Mix into the cheese chopped baking sheets with a teaspoon and parsley, a dash of cayenne, a pinch of bake in a slow over for fifteen minutes.

are included. Miss Tyler formerly lived in Council Bluffs, as did Mrs. Conrad Woman's Work Spens, who was Miss Edna Keeline. - These young women have kept up their interest in social affairs in the Bluffs and are to be found quite regularly at the bi-W. J. Bryan has accepted the invitation monthly meetings of the club. Four tables from the Women's Missionary Federation of members met with Miss Tyler today, although there are twenty-four members of Omaha to be in Omaha, Sunday, July 18 ing at Forest Park university under the of the club, which is one of five years' He will deliver his lecture, "The Fruits of direction of Madam Nordstrom Carter for cured through the rooms by the use of ferns, palms and other greenery.

at Edinburgh, Scotland. An interesting affair yesterday was the Active preparations are being made by luncheon given at the Commercial club by the Women's Missionary Federation of Henry T. Clarke, who entertained for the people who assisted at the sale of flowers Omaha for the summer school and conference which will be held July 12 to 18 at that netted such a nice sum for the Child the University of Omaha. The meetings Saving Institute. Those present were:

meeting.

will be held in the new gymnasium. The aim is to enlarge interest in worldwide evangelization; to present newest tional and civic enterprises.

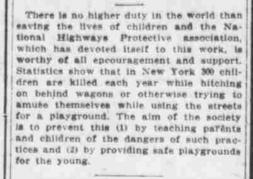

struction and entertainment for children from 4 to 5:30 afternoons, and entertainments and lectures in the evenings.

There will be studies in the Bible, in selves, still many have found that the foreign and home missionary text books, shops cater admirably to this need. They classes in methods and conferences during make a specialty, for instance, of high-the mornings from 5:15 to 12:15, and in-

"Victory of Allan Rutledge," will speak July 12, Dr. E. A. Steiner will lecture July 13. The "Rawies" will give their entertainment July 17. And the 18th will be children's night.

At the Country Club

The membership committee of the Fine Arts society will have luncheon together at the club Saturday. Covers will be faid for neven.

Personal Gossip

Mrs. D. H. Kaley of Red Cloud is spendng a few days with Mrs. J. L. Kaley. Mr. and Mrs. . Harry O. Steele have taken a house at 3566 Woolworth avenue. Mrs. F. A. Shotwell underwent a slight operation Monday, but is recovering satisfactorily.

Mrs. Maria Landrock sailed Thursday, May 18, from New York on the Pring Fredrich Wilhelm.

Miss Alice Wilcox of North Platte, Neb., arrived Wednesday to visit Miss Alice Troxell until Sunday.

Miss Amy Gilmore returned Wednesday from St. Paul, Minn., where she has been visiting for six weeks.

Mrs. Edward Estabrook of Boston, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Carrigan, leaves Saturday morning for her home.

Mrs. Forepaugh and Miss Alice Forepaugh arrived Thursday from California for a short visit to Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Martin. They are returning to their home in St. Paul.

Mr. and Mrs. Max H. Conrad, who have been at the Hotel Baltimore, Kansas City, Mo., for the last week, left today for Excelsior Springs. From there they will go to Chicago for a short stay.

The operetta, "The Egyptian Princess," the Tree," which he delivered last year the benefit of the new college building. at the International Missionary congress Among these taking part, will be Miss Anna Haas of Omaha, who will sing the contraito role, Queen of Egypt.

New Neckwear Rivals Hats.

Large and small shops are filled these days with alluring neckwear. Mind you, this does not merely mean collars and stocks, but all manner of shoulder drapery, scarfs and an infinite variety of guimpes conditions in mission fields; to enlist and Although many women work out this tedlous and exhausting problem for them-

which can be basted or pinned into the

These are of the white eoru net, dotted

Pleasures Past

Mrs. G. Church and Mrs. Gainsford entertained a party of twelve Thursday after. noon at cards in Brandels assembly room. Refreshments were served at 5 o'clock in the green room annex.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Tompkins entertained at dinner and the Orpheum last evening for the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Carrigan, Mrs. Edward Estabrook of Boston, Mrs. John Henry Pratt of Albion and Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Tilden of Albion, N. Y. Mrs. John Shary entertained a party of fifty today at her home at luncheon, prededed by a musicale program. Mrs. Shary, soprano; Mr. Gardner, baritone, gave the program, with Mrs. Edith Wagoner at monte club today at her home. Two tables were placed for bridge. The members Margharetta Burke, present were Miss Mabel Hicks, Mrs. Frank Whitman, Mrs. Frank Engler, Mrs. William R. Wood, Mrs. Edward Boyer, Mrs. Frank Fahs, Mrs. Charles Palmer, Mrs. Egbert.

Mrs. Rodney Bliss entertained the Char-

Miss Nannie Page entertained at luncheon today in honor of Miss Ruth Lord. Covers were laid for six and spring bloasoms were used as a centerpiece. Those present wera

Misses-Muth Lord, Mary Richardson, Helen Forbes, Middred Rogers, Nannie Page.

Mrs. George Magney entertained at bridge today at her home. Peonles and amilax were used in decorating. Those present were Mrs. Henry Hamilton, Mrs. Samuel Potter, Mrs. C. Overton, Mrs. H. Rohrs, Mrs. Dorothy Mills, Mrs. Daniel Horrigan, Mrs. C. J. Merriam, Mrs. C. Corkhill, Mrs. W. W. Shinn, Mrs. John Wilson, Mrs. C. P. Tobin, Mrs. Dell Pearce.

at her home, 2023 California street, Wednesday evening, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Mr. and Mrs. Burton Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Bilaky, Mr. and Mrs. Schwartsbine E. A. McCall, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Carrigan. and Mrs. Alvin Block, all of Chicago. Those present were:

Mr. and Mrs. S.
Mr. and Mrs. Ch	auncey Stoddard.
Mr. and Mrs. Sc
Mr. and Mrs. J.
Mr. and Mrs.
Mrs. Alvin Block
Misses-	Misses
Basale Adler.	Lillian Winehers
Rose Singer,	Bessie Monsky.
Clara Singer,
Monars	Messrs
Sam Block,	Henry Monsky,
Nate Kort,	Harry Singer.

Miss Marion Tyler entertained the members of the Klatter Klub today at her home. Although this is a club of Council Bluffs girls, one or two Omaha membera See your' dealer.

Mr. and Mrs. Huntley. Mr. and Mrs. E. G. McGilton. Mr. and Mrs. E. G. McGilton. Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Rhodes. Mr. and Mrs. Chittenden. Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Straight. Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Healey. Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Hume. Mr. and Mrs. C. Vincent. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Rees. jr. Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Waggoner. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bingham. Mf. and Mrs. J. E. Bingham. Mf. and Mrs. F. C. Tym. Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Rouse. Dr. and Mrs. F. T. Rouse. Dr. and Mrs. Charles Master. Mesdames-Mendames-V. W. Hayes, R. Ward, leorge Wickersham, I. I. Railer, P. Moorhead, Meedamee Russell E. McKelvy, George Tilden, F. W. Lindsay, H. N. Nelson, E. Coon, H. Westerfield,

Dorrance, J. E. Dodds, Edward Johnson, W. B. Millard, Weahm Misses Blanche Sorenson

For the Future

Les Hiboux club will give a hayrack ride the evening of June 3. The Concordia Ladies' Singing society will give a May dance May 21 at the German Home. Mrs. A. V. Shotwell will entertain at an principle of places and companies several times and is content to be excess last night.

The Tom Moore Social club will give a dancing party at Turner hall Monday evening, May 22. This will be the last of the club dances for the season.

Miss Nell Ryan, sponser of Company G of the Omaha High school regiments, and Mr. Frank Larmon, captain, will entertain for the company Friday evening, May 26, the plano. Spring flowers carried out a the members of the company those present at the home of Miss Ryan. In addition to will be:

Majorie Foote, Louise Bedwell, Adelaide Funkhouser, Louise Bedweil, Elisabeth Alderson, Adelaide Funkhouser, Hazel Evans, Ruth Evans, Messrs.-Yoyle Rector, Iaaac Carpenter, Edwin Alderson, Albert Cahas, Chester Nieman Albert Cahn, Chester Nieman,

At the Field Club

Mr. J. Gifford will entertain five guests at dinner Saturday evening, Mr. J. E. Buckingham will have seven, Mr. F. J. Farrington, ten guests.

Several small dinner parties will given Saturday evening at the club. Mr. F. the Boyd theater four or five seasons ago. Johnson four, Mr. L. B. Willis four and by Mr. Crans.

Mr. D. J. O'Brien seven. Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Carrigan will entertain at dinner Saturday evening for their house guests, Mrs. John Henry Pratt, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Tilden, all of Albion, N. Miss Clara Singer entertained informally T. Besides the honor guests there will be present Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Tompkins,

Wedding Bells

Mins Saida E. Prengle, daughter of Mr. J. M. Prengle and Mr. William W. Christman, jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Christman, were married Wednesday at 2 o'clock at the home of the bride. Rev. Miss Anna Killian of Morse Bluff, Neb., was maid of honor and Mr. Edward Schmid of Schuyler, Neb., was best man.

Permits to smoke are now being issued.

huahua, Mex. The dogs are wild, but are becoming extinct. They are said to be the Attractions in Omaha. smallest of all canine breeds. "Chiquita" The Man from Kokomo" at the Boyd. is the oldest of the Casselli troupe. This dog does the one-leg stand and is chauf-Vaudeville at the Orpheum. Burlesque at the Gayety. feur in the act. He lost his last tooth frock or blouse.

The committee of the Laymen's move- and plain, and can be laundered in a basin ment will have charge of the Sunday mass of scapsuds in a few moments. There are here Tuesday night during a melee with one of his companions. He is 15 years of The personnel of the Lloyd Ingraham age and is feeling his years. He has a Stock company, which opens a summer habit of crying in his sleep and Miss Cas season at the Gayety next Sunday afternoon, indicates that it is one of the best where their talents have been previously occupied, are: occupied, are: Lioyd Ingraham will personally direct the stage and appear in every play. Harry Pollard, leads with Pollard Stock, New Haven; Yorkville Theater Stock, New York City; Colonial theater, San Francisco. Margaret Fischer, leads in Walter San-ford's company in San Francisco, leads with the Daniel Frawley Stock company, Winnicer.

consuming, passesulator in acters. Blosser Jennings, heavies, the priest in "The Rosary" at Brandels theater about this city. The opening play will be "The Spenders." which has never been seen here in stock. William H. Crane was seen in this play at

S. Follard will have four guests, Mr. R. S. Lloyd Ingraham will have the role played June 2. Over at the Boyd the laugh is continuous this week, because the merriest of comedies is being played in such way as to bring out all the fun in it. "The Man from Kokomo" is simply irresistible when offered as the Long Stock company is playing it this week. Next week the effort will turn to a more serious offering, and "Carmen" will be the bill. It is an acting version of the celebrated opera and gives the story in full with all the color incident to "he romance of Spain it unfolds in its teiling.

The opening of the seat sale for the Bern- performances given at the Gayety all sea-hardt engagement at the Brandeis de-

of these dogs is in the mountains of Chi- are selling.

native state they eat roots, herbs and nuts. would include the United States who can be A month or so hence Miss Cassell will be in Paris with her dogs, proceeding from the Namars's trial is to be the day of the induced to join. The day set for Mclin. One of the peculiarities of the Chistrike. The suggestion met with an enthusiastic huahua dog is a hole in the skull at the response from the large gathering of sotop of the head, just under the skin. It Winnipeg. Corwin Lusikmoor, juveniles, last season with "The Squawman" and previous season with Liebler's 'The Conflict." Edith Spencer, a local favorite and ison Square garden in the miscellaneous class. cialists present. The Industrial Workers sending out a set of resolutions to all its local organizations which is intended to act as the basis of the plan. William D. Haywood is known as

and Gorgeous Gowns in the Lenore Gilbert, Ingenue with Lieb-ler's "The Fourth Estate" during the run in New York and Chicago. Chester Wallace, juvenile heavies with James Donian, more recently with this divertions. James Donian, more recently with this divertion. James Donian, more recently with the Boy for the state of the strike in the credit "Get Rich Quick Wallingford" is still playing to house full sudiences at the

Tuesday, May 20, and seats are selling for George M. Cohan has possessed hims.if United States. Governor Marshall of Inof a thirty-five-foot racing motor boat in diana was charged with being in alliance which he will cruise the water-bound shores with the hirelings of the capitalists. He of Atlantic City, where he has leased a sgainst the toiling masses. bost, which he has christened the "So Long, Mary," is equipped with a sixty-horse power engine guaranteed to push, the Beautiful Costumes "water wagon" along at a twenty-fourille-an-hour clip.

With performances twice today and twice n Saturday and then the extravaganza Miss Lowden's Pupils Will Wear Gay Employes of Local Associated Press

Ames Burg, treasurer of the Orpheum, season of thirty-eight weeks will be but a leasant memory of hundreds of excellent

European Scenes. "The Bon Tona" are giving a pleasson. The attractive features of the program veloped the fact that the great star will ing performance and much satisfaction. of the pupils of Miss Lowden, who are to Frederick Thomas of Diagonal, Ia., cousin face an audience as big as the theater will Sunday matines the Lloyd Ingraham Stock perform for the benefit of the Child Saving ent to Harry L. Swan, local correspondent progress of Omaha and its adjacent terrihold on Sunday night when she plays company opens a summer seasor engage- institute at the Brandels Saturday, are by of the Associated Press, as a memento tory. From Omaha the Associated Press

Spenders." which William H. Crane played will be especially good and the costumes curred Thursday. It came from the em- Omaha is the gate city. Rosina Casselli's Chihuahua dogs, at the at Boyd's theater several season's ago, themselves for the different scenes in the ployes of the local office of that associa-Orpheum this week, are interesting little The company is in constant rehearsal and trip "around the world" will be beautiful tion, who attempted to secure his presence anines in many ways. The native habitat a finished performance is assured. Seats and interesting.

anauccessful. The present was later sent to his home. Mr. Swan has been in Omaha six years and has witnessed an increase in the business locally of that institution A beautiful cut glass vase was the preswhich has been in keeping with the general "L'Aigion" and says goodbye to Omaha. ment, the introductory play being "The no means limited to dancing. The music of his twenty-fifth anniversary, which oc- now serves nearly all the territory to which

> The Omaha Bee's Great Booklovers' Conat the office when the day and night test-Thirty-nine prizes. You can enter at In the Paris scene, for instance, the shifts were exchanging places, but were any time

Office Present Correspondent

with Memento.