

Among the Women's Clubs

Women in Omaha Now Engaged in Crusade to Lift Debt from the Y. W. C. A. Building—Woman's Club to Give Annual Luncheon at the Field Club—Annual Election of Daughters of American Revolution.

WIND and rain were drawbacks last week for the women making efforts to raise the $20,000 indebtedness of the Young Women's Christian association. The amount on hand Saturday was about $13,000. This does not include the $5,000 which Mr. George A. Joslyn has promised if the women can collect $6,000. Next week will be campaign week and about seventy-five women will devote all of their time to the work. Mrs. Emma F. Byers arrived Friday morning and will remain here until June 1 to assist in the work. Campaign headquarters have been changed from the third floor of the association building to the main floor. The members hope to have most of the $6,000 collected by next Saturday evening.

W. J. Bryan has accepted the invitation from the Women's Missionary Federation of Omaha to be in Omaha Sunday, July 16. He will deliver his lecture, "The Fruits of the Tree," which he delivered last year at the International Missionary congress at Edinburgh, Scotland.

Active preparations are being made by the Women's Missionary Federation of Omaha for the summer school and conference which will be held July 12 to 13 at the University of Omaha. The meetings will be held in the new gymnasium.

The aim is to enlarge interest in worldwide evangelization; to present newest conditions in mission fields; to enlist and train leaders in church, missionary, educational and civic enterprises.

There will be studies in the Bible, in foreign and home missionary text books, classes in methods and conferences during the mornings from 9:15 to 12:15, and instruction and entertainment for children from 4 to 5:30 afternoons, and entertainments and lectures in the evenings.

The committees of the Laymen's movement will have charge of the Sunday mass meeting.

Dr. Alexander Corkey, author of the "Victory of Allan Rutledge," will speak July 12.

Dr. E. A. Steiner will lecture July 13. The "Rawies" will give their entertainment July 17. July 18 will be children's night.

Teachers for the summer school will be Mrs. E. H. Silverthorne of Denver, Miss Isabelle Horton of St. Louis and Miss Carrie Barge, field and college secretary of the Women's Home Mission board of the Methodist church.

The May meeting of the Woman's club Railway Mail service, was held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. O. Hathaway in Dundee. Mrs. John Bittinger, the delegate to the second district meeting held at Valley, gave an interesting report.

The last meeting of the Myrtle Story Teller's league will be a picnic Thursday at 4:30 at Lincoln park. All members of the league are invited.

Omaha chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution will meet Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the lecture room of the public library. Officers and members of the advisory board will be elected. The program will include reports of the officers and standing committees. There will also be a report of the Twentieth Continental congress recently held at Washington, D. C., which was attended by Mrs. Stubbs, the Omaha representative who was a delegate from here.

Mrs. Jeannette White will entertain the members of the Woman's league Tuesday evening informally at her home in South Omaha.

The meeting of the state federation of the American Woman's league, which was to have been held in Lincoln last week has been postponed until the return of Mr. E. G. Lewis, mayor of University City, who is now in Los Angeles. Mr. Lewis founded the league, which now has over 100,000 members in the United States. The league is for the benefit of university extension work and various forms of educational work.

A lot has been donated the Omaha chapter near Tenth and Bancroft streets. When the local membership reaches the 500 mark a chapter house, with lecture rooms, will be presented by the national league.

The Federation of the Women's Christian Temperance union will hold its second meeting at the Young Women's Christian association on Wednesday afternoon, May 24, at 2:30. The Benson union will have charge of the program. All women interested, whether members of the union or not, are cordially invited. Following is the program:

- Hymn—Rev. Wilson.
Piano Solo—Miss Liljenstolpe.
Address—Judge Estelle.
Duet—Mrs. M. C. and Mrs. Bosworth.
Paper—"Drunkennes a Disease," by Mrs. Hyman.
Violin Solo—John Larson.
Address—Rev. Atch. "Mispah."

Mrs. Emma F. Byers, who is spending a few weeks in Omaha assisting in the Young Women's Christian association campaign to raise $20,000, will speak Sunday at the afternoon service at 4:30 o'clock at the association rooms. Dean Tancock of Trinity cathedral will conduct the services.

The Omaha Women's club will give its annual luncheon at the Field club, Monday, May 29. All reservations must be made by Friday, May 26, to Mrs. Isaac Douglas. Telephone Webster 4308, or to any member of the house and home committee of the Woman's club.

Miss Amelia Bingham was re-elected president of the Professional Woman's league of New York at its last meeting, Monday. Miss Mildred Holland was the other candidate.

A young American girl, Elsa Roemer, 20 years old, of St. Louis, has just made her operatic debut in Savignano, Italy, as Gilda in "Rigoletto." She was at one time a member of the Metropolitan Opera school.

The teachers for the Women's Missionary Federation to be held in Omaha July 12 to 13 at the Omaha university will be Mrs. E. H. Silverthorne of Denver, Colo., one of the promoters of the recent "Jubilee," who will conduct a class in the new foreign mission text book, "The Light of the World," by Robert E. Speer; Miss Isabelle Horton, principal of the St. Louis Training School for Missionaries, who will have charge of the normal Bible work and school methods; Miss Carrie Barge, field and college secretary of the Women's Home Mission board of the Methodist Episcopal church, who will teach the home mission text book, "The Conservation of National Ideals," and conduct the Young People's conference. Recreation features are in charge of the Young Men's Christian association.

Mr. John McHugh and daughter, Miss Kitt of Oakland, Cal., are the guests of Mrs. William McHugh, Tenth and Arbor streets. Mrs. T. J. Rogers returned early in the week from New York, where her daughter, Miss Mary Alice, will remain two weeks longer.

Miss Clara Southard left Friday for a visit to Denver, accompanying home her sister, Mrs. W. Southard, who has been here for a month.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank T. Hamilton are expected home Monday from New York, accompanied by Madame d'Aquin of Paris, sister of Mrs. Hamilton.

Mrs. D. Clem Deaver and daughter, Blanche, will leave May 21 to spend the summer on their ranch in the Antelope basin country near Gillette, Wyo.

Mrs. Minnie Morris is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Wilbur. Her son Dick returned Thursday evening to Harvard, where he is a student at the university.

Mr. and Mrs. Inaell Reed and visiting daughter, of St. Louis, Mo., are visiting Mr. Reed's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Reed of Dundee, formerly of Omaha.

Miss June Greaves of Omaha, a pupil of the Art Institute of Chicago, is spending the week-end at Ann Arbor, Mich., a guest at one of the house parties at the university.

Miss Margaret E. Walker and her aunt, Mrs. Margaret Haul Gregory and Mr. George Gregory, left May 16 for Wyoming to visit friends in Riverton and Lander.

Miss Cudahy of Milwaukee and Miss Donaldson of Minneapolis will arrive Thursday to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Cudahy until after the Wilhelm-Cudahy wedding.

Mr. John Goodwin of Newcastle, Ind., arrived Wednesday and left Saturday with Mrs. Goodwin and children, who have been here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kennard, for the last six weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Thummel are in Washington and will also visit in Delaware and New York and then go to Itasca where their son, George, is at Cornell. He will return with his mother about the second week in June. Mr. Thummel coming

MISS MILDRED WARBURTON of Grinnell, Iowa, whose marriage to MR. RALPH WEST will be celebrated June 1st

Timely Health Hints

DON'T drink too much ice water or ice drinks of any kind during the hot days. Avoid ice drinks especially when overheated. Indigestion and all sorts of stomach troubles come from this habit. Don't overeat and drink more. Don't eat too much meat. Eat plenty of fresh fruits and vegetables. Don't economize on the ice. Use plenty, as it is cheapest in the long run. Ice prevents decay. Don't keep your garbage in the kitchen. Get it out of the house as soon as possible. Don't worry. Wait until the situation comes, then meet it cheerfully.

You can't die but once, so do a good job of it. Don't worry about sickness. You are no more liable now than you were ten years ago. Don't be afraid. There is no devil like fear. Fear is conducive to disease of the mind and body. Don't fail to take a bath every day. Cold water never hurts anyone. It won't hurt you. Very few people are drowned. Don't stay out late at nights. Besides losing your sleep, you are liable to be picked by the hold-up men. Don't be afraid to laugh. A good laugh is worth more than ten doctors' prescriptions.

back about the first. Upon their return they will go to their summer place in Canada.

Mr. Dyer O. Clark left last week in his private car, accompanied by Mr. F. A. Manley and Mr. C. W. Hull, for a six weeks' trip through the west by way of Seattle and back by way of Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Gurley leave today for Washington to visit Mrs. Gurley's mother at Georgetown. Mr. and Mrs. Gurley expect to be gone three weeks and will visit Atlantic City before returning.

Mrs. Charles T. Stewart and daughter, Miss Marie Stewart, of Council Bluffs and Mrs. H. T. Lemist expect to spend the summer at Seonset on Nantucket island. They will stay at the Seonset Cottage club. Mrs. Miller Borglum of Bakersfield, Cal., is visiting Mrs. J. M. Borglum. She will leave Tuesday for Minqua, Wis., where she has taken a cottage for the summer. Miss Theodora Bogue will accompany her.

General John G. Butler has arrived for an extended visit with his son, Captain Lawrence P. Butler, at Fort Crook. Mrs. J. J. Morrow of Portland, Ore., sister of Captain Butler, will arrive the early part of next week and also will be his guest. Mrs. T. M. Orr, the only Omaha representative at the whist congress which met this week in Baltimore, won a pin for the highest score in the first day's play. The tournament ended Saturday and Mrs. Orr goes to Washington for a few days before returning to Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Kinler and family have sailed from Yokohama, Japan, on the Mongolia, due to arrive in San Francisco May 28, so that their arrival in Omaha is expected about June 1. Mr. and Mrs. David Cole and Mr. and Mrs. George H. Kelley, who left Omaha in the same party with Mr. and Mrs. Kinler, have continued on through India and Egypt and will reach Naples after traveling in Europe.

MILLER PARK SCHOOL ENTERTAINS FRIENDS

Parents of the Pupils Are Invited to Hear Program of Much Merit.

A successful school entertainment was given by Miss Hunt, principal of the Miller Park school Friday evening for the pupils of the school and their parents. Several of the teachers assisted Miss Hunt in carrying out the entertainment. This was the first entertainment which has been held at the school, and the teachers hope to become better acquainted with the parents as a result of the entertainment.

More than 200 were present, including about ten pupils from each grade. The special purpose of the entertainment, according to Miss Hunt, was to create a desire on the part of the parents to subscribe for school pictures. After the program was given, Miss Hunt talked of the interest the pupils took in beautifying the school and of the educational value of pictures to the pupil. About $20 was raised for pictures, and several large amounts were subscribed for this cause.

A delightful program was carried out by the neighbors of the parents of the pupils, and their friends. Following was the program.

Piano Solo—Miss Myrtle Brown. Song—Carrie Fairchild. Reading—Mrs. Evans. Violin Solo—Gertrude Theim. Reading—Mrs. Evans. Piano Solo—Catherine Handschuh. Vocal Solo—Fred Hayes.

Piano Solo—Miss Hull. A trio of stringed instruments concluded the program by giving several selections. Mrs. Evans and Mr. and Mrs. Theim composed this trio. After the program was given refreshments were served.

Creighton Students in Comedy Roles to Present Play Monday

Annual College Play is to Be Presented by the University Students.

Creighton university's annual play will be given Monday evening at Creighton auditorium. This year "The Make-Up Man" is the bill and is accounted an especially rich comedy. The annual play is the feature event at Creighton each year. The cast is composed entirely of students and is under the able direction of Father Bosen. Two months of constant practice has given each character mastery of his part and with these talented amateurs "The Make-Up Man" promises to surpass the success of previous years. The comedy is made up of many complete parts and has even a touch of novelty in the way of plot that furnishes the diversion so looked for by the staid theater-goer.

Tickets for the play are on sale at

Boston's drug store and owing to the unusual demand for seats the auditorium will be taxed to its capacity.

Flattering.

"My name is Biley," said the stranger to the moving picture proprietor. "I'm Biley, the composer. I understand you are using my illustrated song, 'When the Sun Slips Down Behind the Dusky Hills.'"

"Why, yes," the proprietor replied. "We tried it was just the song we wanted."

"Thanks, thanks!" cried the delighted author.

"Yes," the proprietor continued, "we needed something to get the audience out between our half-hour shows—and your song empties the house quicker than anything else we ever tried."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Nebraska Boys Have Club at Harvard

A Nebraska club was organized at Harvard university consisting of a membership of thirty-three men. Of this number ten are Omaha boys. The purpose of the club is to promote a closer fellowship among the Nebraskans at Harvard, and to encourage men to come to Harvard from Nebraska. The club also expects to cooperate with the Nebraska Harvard club at Omaha, which is made up of Nebraskans who have formerly attended Harvard university. The present officers of the club at Harvard are Omaha boys, having formerly attended the Omaha High school. The president is Alan McDonald of 302 Woolworth avenue and the secretary is Lyle J. Roberts of 248 Hillman avenue. Both Mr. McDonald and Mr. Roberts are sophomores in the college of liberal arts and sciences. The other members coming from Omaha are: Albert P. Brogan, '11; Irving S. Cutler, medical school; George C. Flack, '11; Morton Hillier, '11; Thomas H. Matters, Jr., third year law; Richardson Morris, '11; George H. Roshon, '11; William F. Williams, '11. Five other men who were formerly in the Omaha High school but who are not now residents of Omaha are: Arthur F. Felker and Edward F. Felker of Burlington, Ia.; James H. McCulloch of Chula Vista, Cal.; Kenneth McIntosh and Rushton McIntosh of New York City and Harry W. Drucker, '12, of Beemer, Neb. The members who now have a residence in Nebraska, not coming from Omaha are: Earle E. Farnsworth, medical student, Grand Island; Carl A. Hedblom, medical student, Aurora; William R. King, Osceola; George Nelson Lyon, second year law, Nelson; Enor K. Matson, first year law, Newman Grove; Arthur L. Palmer, first year law, Loupville; Samuel M. Kinaker, first year law, Beatrice; Alfonso J. Sturzenegger, special student in law, South Bend; Carl E. Croson, second year law, York. Mr. Croson is vice president of the Nebraska club. The nonresident members of the club admitted because of their former interests in law, Nebraska, are John P. Ballard, Nucleo, Colo.; Deane Critchell, graduate law, Boise, Idaho; Calvin Smith, New Haven, Conn.

In the foreground. They are: Edward R. Burke, third year law, Chadron, graduate of Beloit college, who has led and won two debates against Yale; Melvin C. Hunt, Lincoln, Neb., graduate of Nebraska Wesleyan university, special fellow in philosophy; Harvey Warren Cox, University Place, Neb., graduate of Nebraska Wesleyan university, assistant professor of philosophy and psychology, and professor of philosophy in the University of Florida; Harry O. Palmer, Louisville, Neb., graduate of Nebraska Wesleyan university, editor, Harvard Law Review, and Roscoe Pound, Lincoln, Neb., of the University of Nebraska, Story professor of law in the college of law, Harvard university. Shortly after the organization of the Nebraska Club of Harvard University a banquet was held at the Hotel Thonrdike, Boston. Alan McDonald, president of the club, presided as toastmaster. Toasts were responded to as follows: "Nebraska and Harvard College," Harry W. Drucker; "Nebraskans in the Graduate Schools," Carl E. Croson; "A Word from the Bar," Prof. Pound. Rustin McIntosh at the piano discoursed music at intervals. Besides this banquet the Nebraska club has been entertained at smokers at the rooms of Alan McDonald and George Flack at Weld Hall.

In athletics the Nebraskans have made some showing. Mr. Flack took first place in the high hurdles, winning a silver cup in the fall track meet. He was also a member of the Weld crew on the river. Mr. McDonald was coxswain of the Weld crew and member of the sophomore lacrosse team which won the interclass championship. Mr. Drucker was also a member of this team.

There are five members of the club who have served to keep the name Nebraska
