PRESBYTERIANS IN SESSION

Progress of General Assembly Interests All Churchmen.

"ADVANCED IDEAS" TO COME UP

Rev. D. Jowett of Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church is a Maker of Epigrams and a Drawer of Definitions.

D. V. FRANCIS

NEW YORK, May 20.—(Special to The Bee.)—The Presbyterian general assembly now in session at Atlantic City and will be watched with keen interest by churchmen of all denominations. It will be one of the most important church gatherings held in a long time and its action will have a marked influence on the question of higher criticism, new thought and the breaking away from the old moorings. Some of the strongest men in the denomination are inclined to favor the so-called advance ideas, while others are fearful that the agitation of the question will be likely to do more harm than good. There is, however, a strong element in the church which seems determined to have the matter threshed out and the position of the Presbyterian church clearly defined. Hence the interest in the big meeting.

Jowett Epigrams. Rev. D. Jowett, the new pastor of the big Fifth Avenue Presbyterian church in New York, is perhaps the first and most forceful pulpit orator of the day. An admirer of Dr. Jowett has compiled some of his epigrammatic sayings which are worth remembering. Here are a few:

"His shell baptizes you with the Holy Ghost and power to burn.
"The warden of sin is"—benumbed.
"When ye pray"—get beneath somebody's burden.
"Know ye not that your bodies are"—churches, not pigsties.
"The things which happened unto me"—had a twist.
"Whoso—drinketh my blood"—hath blood to give.
"Who—shall all be"—vitalized.
You tell the age of a tree by the number of its inner rings. By the increasing rings and circles of intercession you register the man's growth in grace.
A perfectly dry religion has no light.
Always the clearest views when there is a little moisture in the atmosphere.
The dregger in the river deepens the channel. An awe is a dredge deepening the life, taking out vanity and frivolity.

Definitions by Jowett. Grey is black shot through with light. Grey is black with the halo on it. Faith is reasonable dealing with reasonable things.

Prayer is a mighty business, a tremendous business in the waters of grace. Belief is the acceptance of a map. Faith is taking the voyage. Faith is belief ventured upon. The individual is only an organ, not an organism. Hope contemplates a possibility; faith converts a possibility into actuality; love is the resulting disposition. Hope is a foundation; faith draws the water and drinks; love distributes the water to others. Faith is an attitude of soul which extracts the substance out of hoped-for possibilities. Faith is the venture of the will acting on the suggestions of the mind. Grace is the divine energy of holiness issuing in the ministry of love in quest of the lovely and by the communication of itself converting the unwelcoming into the lovely. Wordliness is a spirit, a temper, an attitude, a pose, a posture, a disposition of the soul, a certain inclination, a certain aspect of the soul. The heart is that part of the personality of a man which feels after God. Jesuit College to Move.

Woodstock college, officially known as a Jesuit house of students, located for more than fifty years at Woodstock, Md., is to be removed to a site on the Hudson river a few miles north of New York City. The reason for removal is insufficient transportation facilities to Woodstock. Some years since the Jesuit novitiate, where future priests under direction of the society are educated, was removed from Frederick, Md., to a Hudson river site north of Foughkeeps. The new buildings for the college will cost $300,000 in addition to the site, which cost $75,000. Many of the best known Jesuit priests in the United States of the past and present generations were educated at Woodstock.

Balance in Mission Fund. The Congressional Home Missionary society, one of the many American societies having long records of service, was able to begin its fiscal year on April 1, with a balance of $2,300, carried over from its previous year. No money was borrowed last year as no interest paid on old debts, a record not attained before in many years. The total income last year amounted to $27,000, which was $2,000 less than the year before. But appropriations had been reduced with the knowledge that 1910 figures were phenomenal. Congregational churches in Minnesota and Washington undertook for the first time last year their own missionary work, which meant $2,500 going to their state organizations direct, and there was a falling off in legacies of $5,000, a feature that nobody can control. Private gifts amounting to $20,000 were received during last year, a quite new experience, and the society kept up its full complement of work without falling into debt. Presbyterian Missions. The Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions issues supplementary statement of its finances, which statement will be presented to the forthcoming general assembly. It shows the largest gifts to missions ever made by the board, amounting to $1,000,000. The receipts of the board were also the largest, and were $2,000,000 from regular sources. To these receipts credits on account of income were added amounting to $25,000, showing a surplus on the year's account of $20,000. The year before carried only eleven months, owing to a change of date in closing. Compared with two years ago, churches last year show a gain in gifts of $21,200 and in legacies of $100,000. A debt of $28,000, carried over for two years has now been reduced to $8,000. An earlier statement, amended by later receipts, indicated a small addition to the debt rather than a slight diminution of it. Therefore, to date the new interest in missions on the part of laymen results in increase in receipts of this board in two years of $21,200. The four other societies just ending their fiscal year show decreased receipts and three fall heavily into debt.

Why Gaynor Believes. The Rev. Christian F. Reiser, pastor of Grace Methodist Episcopal church, in West One Hundred and Fourth street, recently addressed letters to a number of prominent men asking them their reasons for believing in God. The following characteristic reply from Mayor Gaynor was read to the congregation at last night's service:
"You ask me, 'Why I believe in God?' Because I cannot help it. I simply know there is a God, and that settles it with me. I have absolute confidence in Him, and am willing to submit to whatever He wills in respect to me. You also ask, 'What good comes from reading the Bible?' An immense deal of good. It soothes you and makes you content and charitable. I might add that it educates you, and gives you a good literary style, but that is another mat-arduous labor at scrubbing floors. Missouri is a state of great natural resources. Let them all be developed at once. They will be needed. Widows and orphans at $60 a year apiece will be very expensive. Missouri must pay the piper. The theory of her legislation is that at every cost the family should be preserved and that orphans in asylums are particularly unlucky orphans, even when the asylums are all that asylums could be. As for the widow without any children, it has been agreed by the late Charles Dickens and the present George Bernard Shaw that she can take care of herself. It is for more man to "behave" in her "life force" is at its strongest in her. The only safety for the bachelor is in precipitate flight. She needs no pension. She asks for no pension. Propriety is enough for her. Prosperity in matrimony is propinquity's sequel. The legislators of Missouri were wise as well as frugal in leaving the unhampered widow out of their benevolent scheme.—Brooklyn Eagle.

PENSIONS GRANTED TO WIDOWS

Kindly Gallantry of Missouri Soldiers Manifested in a Substantial Manner. The practical enforcement of Missouri's statute granting pensions to widows who have children dependent on them is just beginning. The Missouri widow is fortunate in the kindly gallantry of the state legislators. She is provided for, if she has one child she gets $10 a month. Each additional child means $5 more. So the widow with six children is to be awarded $55 a month, or as much as she could make in less progressive states by
