Pick and Nishoff have proven to be a has inspired the while team and gets by him has to be far above his head outside of the diamond. At the bat the new players are clouting the ball for nect with the sphere for the entire circuit. Everything promises to be fair for a day and a large crowd is expected out at the park this afternoon. The warm weather and the sun is going to play around the players for fair. To make things instresting and look like a real mid-summer game every man that sits in the stands or bleachers this afternoon is supposed to don a straw sky piece, as today is straw hat day

Lincoln will leave here Thursday night and give way to the Pueblo team, formerly the Wichita bunch. Isbell will be with the team the same as usual and everything will look familiar except the After this series the Rourkes will leave for a two-days launt to Denver and then return and meet the Kawa for

Flynn Says He Will Win on July Fourth from Carl Morris

Pueblo Fireman Expects to Have Little Difficulty with the Big

Jim Flynn, the Pueblo fireman, and Carl Morris, the Oklahoma angineer, the two premier claimants for the title of the white man's hope, will clash in battle for supremacy July 4. The fight will be held when he defeated Al Kaufman, proclaimed tured. See as the best of the white fighters. Carl Morris. A giant in stature, has not won any great battles, his biggest fight being against Mike Schreck, but he is nevertheless considered as one of the dangerous ticles that has occurred is the choice of a referes. Morris wants an Oklahoma man in the ring, besides wanting the fight there. while Plynn declares that no fight will Oklahoman referees. 'Carl Morris will look like a giant bede me in the ring," remarked Flynn in Omaha Monday, in speaking of the fight I will weigh about 165 pounds when

In spite of his size I think I can whip him. He isn't a real fighter, for the simple reason he hasn't had the experience. If I can whip Morris, of course I will have no other obstacle toward getting a fight with Johnson. I have a standing challenge to Johnson now, ready to fight him any place, any time, and for almost anything

Higgins Gets Some of the Rourke Team

Anderson and Graham to Play with Des Moines-Pickering and Patton Seek Berths.

Former Second Baseman George Graham will in all probability go to Des Moines by Powell, a. as Higgins has been after him since he derson was sold by Rourke outright to the Des Moines aggregation and will play taking the game by 9 to 2. Philadelphia made its hits off Blanding count while Pickering and Patton, who were given their unconditional release by Rourke have yet failed to sign up with any team, but the former is dickering with the Milwaukee management of the American association. Pickering played a stellar game for the Rourkes at the beginning of the season, but his batting and fielding, both tell off as the season grew older. Williams was secured and the old veteran was placed on the retired list. Graham has not yet signed with Des Moines, but he is awaiting word from Higgins now. Anderson, the former right fielder for the Rourkes left the boys with a long face yesterday. He said he hated to leave, but says he will make up his slump at the

Pa announced yesterday afternoon that he was in the market for two new pitchers. He is now negotiating with the White Sox for a pitcher, but refuses to divulge the name of the hurler he is after. "I am going to get a pennant winning team TOLEDO, O., May 22 - The Toledo club if I have to spend a fortune," said Rourke
