MEETING OF PROGRESSIVE REPUBLICANS NEXT WEEK

Secretary F. A. Shotwell Has Called : Meeting at J. L. Kennedy's Office for Next Wednesday.

Franklin A. Shotwell, secretary of the Progressive Republican league, is sending out notices of a meeting of the executive committee to be held during the afternoon of May 31 in the office of John L. Kennedy. This meeting will be one of importance, because the matter of preference for a national candidate will be discussed. Though Colonel Roosevelt has written to Bishops Make Choice Secretary Shotwell declaring his aversion Though Colonel Roosevelt has written to to the candidacy, it is believed there is still some hope of inducing him to enter the race. At any rate the preference will be given to a progressive, and in this connection the name of La Policite is mentioned with more than ordinary earnest-

Mr. Shotwell says that the sentiment in Nebraska is to send a delegation to the ational convention favoring Roosevelt. The senatorship, as well as the supreme judgeship, will also be discussed at the forthcoming meeting of the executive Committee. Governor Chester A. Aldrich will likely attend this meeting.

LOOKING FOR DECISION IN THE TOBACCO CASE

Seems to Have a Tendency to Retard Speculation in Stocks, According to Local Firm,

The threatened investigation of the International Harvester company is having some little effect on the stock market, according to advices received at the offices of Logan & Bryan. In financial circles. however, the threatened investigation is not regarded seriously. At the present time more interest is being shown in the American Tobacco case The decision is expected in a few days, and in the meantime the case is having a tendency to retard speculation. Since the Standard Oil decision financial matters have gradually been working toward a normal stage, and while stocks are still climbing, everything indicates that the usual order of things will be resumed soon. F. C. Hollinger, manager for Logan campaign started May 17 and the remain-& Bryan, reports good business generally, though there is a duliness evident locally

POLITICAL POT IS SIMMERING

Candidates for Various County Offices Are Lining Up.

BRAILEY IS NOT A CANDIDATE List for Most of the Offices is Long, with Many Vet to Hear From-Primaries Come a Month

Hence. It will be a month yet before filings for the next primary will be due, but the polit cal pot le already beginning to simmer with candidates for county offices coming ou built of brick and will be one story high, whose terms are about to expire happen to be republicans with the exception two county commissioners, and as a conse quence the activity is chiefly on the republican side of the fence. The office-holders out for re-election and renomination as republicans are District Clerk Robert Smith, County Surveyor Mc Bride, County Superintendent Yoder and Coroner Crosby, all of whom hope to get away without serious opposition in th both of whom are yet shy. For county clerk it is understood that Mr. Haverly is ready to retire, and his deputy, Frank Dewey, is the only announced candidate

A similar situation exists in the county treasurer's office, which bars a third term but where two deputies would like first place, Emmet G. Solomon and I. G. Beise lomon has been county commissioner and county comptroller, and Beisel was candidate for the treasurer's place four years ago.

Brailey to Retire. Sheriff Brailey has also let it be known that he is to retire voluntarily, and the was once deputy sheriff, and then head of the city street cleaning department and was once candidate for county commis Omaha, and has not been in politics as a candidate. Isard is a blacksmith, who ran for the city council two years ago, and Lundgren is a field deputy in the sheriff's office, counting on Swedish support.

The next large list of possible entries seeks the job of police judge, which apparently has larger drawing powers since he last legislation raised the pay. In the dice judge list are Councilman "Charlle" Davis, E. F. Morearty, former justice of the Peace Charlie Fields and Charles E Poster, who has served as deputy county
