

With humor, fiction and comic pictures—the best of entertainment, instruction, amusement.

WEATHER FORECAST. For Nebraska—Fair. For Iowa—Fair.

WELCOME FOR THE OMAHA MEN

Boosters Reach Columbia and They Start Opposition to Ring Circus.

SUBORNED, BUT BOO

Schools Dismiss in Many Cities Meet Visitors.

CENTRAL CITY OUT IN FORA

Gather in Public Square, Where Addresses Are Given.

CLARKS OUT WITH THE FLAG

Profusion of National Colors Shown Everywhere the Omaha Men Put in Their Appearance in State.

COLUMBUS, Neb., May 25.—(Special Telegram.)—Martin Brothers moving picture show, Fair Brothers famous thirty-piece band, "Blue" Harris' red torchlight parade, F. W. Harwood's double barrel male quartet and the Boosters in the private ranks are rivals here tonight with a three-ring circus, and up to a late hour the Omaha trade excursionists have all the best of it.

Back on the main line at 3 o'clock and turning on time, the Boosters took off their coats and went to work beneath a sun as hot as May in Nebraska ever knew.

Like a winning ball team the workers are wet with sweat, brown with sunburn and somewhat covered with dust, but they are feeling like making a long successful slide home. They came into Central City singing:

Rah for Omaha, the gayest town you ever saw; We are out on this trip just to give a heavy grip. All we ask of you is that you give us a visit, too. Here's the sheet whenever you order next; Remember O-MA-JIA.

Central City is said to have six hundred school children and it took just one thousand calls to go around.

President G. N. Gray of the Commercial club and Secretary James Henderson headed all the other business men of Central City in one big reception committee. The parade then started. Two blocks of school children carrying flags, twenty-five teachers, two blocks of business men, two blocks of Boosters and two blocks of automobiles.

This line moved to Central City's civic center or triangle, where the children formed a circle around it inside of which marched the Boosters and their band.

Addresses to Citizens. From a platform in the center of this triangle several addresses were made, the Central City people cheering when P. P. Forde, ex-warden, here they spoke of the Central City school children.

The Central City club is one of the strongest in the state outside of Omaha and gives an annual banquet attended by several hundred. The members of the organization presented every Omaha with a souvenir of the city, which consisted of a fifty-page book of views in and around Central City.

Every one of 300 school children at Clark's was out with a flag. If the trade excursionists were a company of real rough riders going to the Mexican border they would have their own men to be given more patriotic receptions and flags would not be more numerous for the soldiers of war than for this small commercial army.

Regardless of the many trains which the Union Pacific handles along its main line during the evening lines the Boosters' train has run right along from station to station, the block signals letting the trains around each other automatically. Thus the Los Angeles limited came up one block behind the trade excursion. Letting the excursion train onto another track while going at regular speed, the Los Angeles went by like a cyclone, when the excursion came out onto the main eastbound line again. Thus the party is getting remarkable illustrations of modern travel on the Union Pacific.

FIND TOWNS NOT ON THE MAP

Boosters Pass Up Some Places for Peculiar Reasons.

SHELTON, Neb., May 25.—(Special.)—This town was not here when we passed up last evening and hence we did not plan on stopping," said Joseph Kelly, chairman of the trade excursion committee.

(Continued from First Page.)

The Weather

For Nebraska—Fair. For Iowa—Fair.

Temperatures at Omaha Yesterday.

Table with columns for Hour and Deg. showing temperature fluctuations from 5 A.M. to 11 P.M.

Comparative Local Record. Highest today 81, lowest today 64, precipitation .00. Temperature and precipitation departures from the normal.

Presbyterians Drop Heresy Charges Against the Browns

President and Professor of Union Seminary Will Not Have to Stand Trial.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., May 25.—One of the expected sensations of the Presbyterian general assembly fell flat today when the heresy charges against President and Prof. William Adams of Union seminary were dropped.

Dr. Grant, in regard to his declaration that Jesus, Mary and Lazarus "danced and sang a bit" on the night after Lazarus' resurrection from the dead, today explained that he believed Jesus had many human attributes and that, naturally, being full of joy at Lazarus' coming to life, they celebrated the event in a good way.

Eagle Attacks Gibert's Aeroplane

Three Cars Start in Final Lap of Race to Madrid, but All Are Disabled Enroute.

SAN SEBASTIAN, Spain, May 25.—The three aviators who are entered in the Paris-to-Madrid race, started for Madrid early today. Gibert was the first to get away, leaving the ground at 4:25 o'clock.

MADRID, May 25.—Gibert left San Sebastian at 4:25 o'clock this morning. When about eighteen miles from Vittoria, it is reported that he was attacked by an eagle and was forced to defend himself by shooting at it with his revolver.

Vedrine landed at Quintanilla, about 140 miles north of Madrid. On landing he met with a slight accident and sought help in repairing his machine.

Garró's motor failed when he was seven miles outside of San Sebastian and he was forced to descend at Usturil. The aviator made an effort to repair the damaged motor.

Democrats Divide on Lorimer Case

Caucus Refuses to Support Martin Resolution—Several Will Support La Follette Resolution.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—By more than a two-thirds vote democratic senators in caucus today declined to support the Martin resolution directing the senate committee on privileges and elections to investigate the Lorimer case.

Senator Martine of New Jersey was among those who declined to subscribe to the majority action. He was taken sharply to task by Senator Bailey and a heated colloquy resulted.

Senator La Follette probably will not be able today to finish his Lorimer speech. Senator Davis of Arkansas says that resolution demanding an investigation of the postmaster general's refusal to admit certain publications to second-class mail.

Rate Advances from North to Omaha Scored

Interstate Commerce Commission Condemns Advances on Coarse Grain from Dakota.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—Proposed advances in the freight rates on grain and grain products from North Dakota and South Dakota producing points to such primary grain centers as Minneapolis, Duluth, Milwaukee and Chicago are held by the Interstate Commerce commission in a decision today to be not unreasonable.

Miss Elkins Sails for Europe. NEW YORK, May 25.—Miss Lorette Elkins, her mother and brother, Stephen E. Elkins, were passengers today on the steamer Augusta Victoria en route for Europe. They were accompanied by the ship's Billy Kitch, U. S. House Representative.

HARLAN ASSERTS OIL RULE WRONG

Associate Justice of Supreme Court Rewrites Dissenting Opinion in Standard Case.

POINTS OUT WHERE IT IS WEAK

Says Court's Opinion Will Greatly Disturb Nation's Business.

DECLARES ARGUMENT FAULTY

Subsidiary Companies Granted Right of "Undue Restraint"

OBJECTS TO MODIFICATION OF LAW

Ruling of Justice White About Normal and Lawful Agreements Among Corporations Contrary to Precedents.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—Associate Justice John Marshall Harlan today filed in the supreme court his formal dissenting opinion in the Standard Oil case. Not satisfied with his oral dissent from the court decision as handed down by Chief Justice White, Justice Harlan entirely rewrote the stenographic report of his remarks from the bench. The oral dissent formed merely a framework for the final document, containing about 5,000 words, put on record today.

Justice Harlan brands as mischievous the modification made by the court in the decree of the lower court permitting subsidiary corporations of the Standard Oil to make "normal and lawful agreements" among themselves. Chief Justice White had characterized this modification as a "minor matter."

"The further declaration is made by Justice Harlan that he is convinced the court's opinion 'will throw the business of the country into confusion and invite widely extended and harassing litigation, the injurious effects of which will be felt for many years to come.'"

"Taking this language in connection with other parts of the opinion," says Justice Harlan, "the subsidiary companies are thus in effect informed—unwisely, I think—that although the New Jersey corporation being an illegal combination must go out of existence they may join in an agreement to restrain commerce among the states, if such restraint be 'undue.'"

Justice Harlan, referring to other decisions, calls particular attention to one of Justice Taft, now president, in the Addyston Pipe case.

"The justice in further support of the statement that the whole country including the court and congress understand that every restraint or combination in whatever form was in restraint of interstate commerce without regard to its reasonableness or unreasonableness, but all monopolies or attempt to monopolize any part of such trade or commerce."

"Justice Harlan, referring to other decisions, calls particular attention to one of Justice Taft, now president, in the Addyston Pipe case. 'Justice Taft said,' continued Justice Harlan, 'that according to the decision of this court in the freight association case 'contracts in restraint of interstate transportation were within the statute whether the restraints could be regarded as reasonable at common law or not.'"

"The justice in further support of the statement that the whole country including the court and congress understand that every restraint or combination in whatever form was in restraint of interstate commerce without regard to its reasonableness or unreasonableness, but all monopolies or attempt to monopolize any part of such trade or commerce."

"Justice Harlan, referring to other decisions, calls particular attention to one of Justice Taft, now president, in the Addyston Pipe case. 'Justice Taft said,' continued Justice Harlan, 'that according to the decision of this court in the freight association case 'contracts in restraint of interstate transportation were within the statute whether the restraints could be regarded as reasonable at common law or not.'"

"Justice Harlan, referring to other decisions, calls particular attention to one of Justice Taft, now president, in the Addyston Pipe case. 'Justice Taft said,' continued Justice Harlan, 'that according to the decision of this court in the freight association case 'contracts in restraint of interstate transportation were within the statute whether the restraints could be regarded as reasonable at common law or not.'"

"Justice Harlan, referring to other decisions, calls particular attention to one of Justice Taft, now president, in the Addyston Pipe case. 'Justice Taft said,' continued Justice Harlan, 'that according to the decision of this court in the freight association case 'contracts in restraint of interstate transportation were within the statute whether the restraints could be regarded as reasonable at common law or not.'"

"Justice Harlan, referring to other decisions, calls particular attention to one of Justice Taft, now president, in the Addyston Pipe case. 'Justice Taft said,' continued Justice Harlan, 'that according to the decision of this court in the freight association case 'contracts in restraint of interstate transportation were within the statute whether the restraints could be regarded as reasonable at common law or not.'"

"Justice Harlan, referring to other decisions, calls particular attention to one of Justice Taft, now president, in the Addyston Pipe case. 'Justice Taft said,' continued Justice Harlan, 'that according to the decision of this court in the freight association case 'contracts in restraint of interstate transportation were within the statute whether the restraints could be regarded as reasonable at common law or not.'"

"Justice Harlan, referring to other decisions, calls particular attention to one of Justice Taft, now president, in the Addyston Pipe case. 'Justice Taft said,' continued Justice Harlan, 'that according to the decision of this court in the freight association case 'contracts in restraint of interstate transportation were within the statute whether the restraints could be regarded as reasonable at common law or not.'"

"Justice Harlan, referring to other decisions, calls particular attention to one of Justice Taft, now president, in the Addyston Pipe case. 'Justice Taft said,' continued Justice Harlan, 'that according to the decision of this court in the freight association case 'contracts in restraint of interstate transportation were within the statute whether the restraints could be regarded as reasonable at common law or not.'"

"Justice Harlan, referring to other decisions, calls particular attention to one of Justice Taft, now president, in the Addyston Pipe case. 'Justice Taft said,' continued Justice Harlan, 'that according to the decision of this court in the freight association case 'contracts in restraint of interstate transportation were within the statute whether the restraints could be regarded as reasonable at common law or not.'"

"Justice Harlan, referring to other decisions, calls particular attention to one of Justice Taft, now president, in the Addyston Pipe case. 'Justice Taft said,' continued Justice Harlan, 'that according to the decision of this court in the freight association case 'contracts in restraint of interstate transportation were within the statute whether the restraints could be regarded as reasonable at common law or not.'"

"Justice Harlan, referring to other decisions, calls particular attention to one of Justice Taft, now president, in the Addyston Pipe case. 'Justice Taft said,' continued Justice Harlan, 'that according to the decision of this court in the freight association case 'contracts in restraint of interstate transportation were within the statute whether the restraints could be regarded as reasonable at common law or not.'"

"Justice Harlan, referring to other decisions, calls particular attention to one of Justice Taft, now president, in the Addyston Pipe case. 'Justice Taft said,' continued Justice Harlan, 'that according to the decision of this court in the freight association case 'contracts in restraint of interstate transportation were within the statute whether the restraints could be regarded as reasonable at common law or not.'"

"Justice Harlan, referring to other decisions, calls particular attention to one of Justice Taft, now president, in the Addyston Pipe case. 'Justice Taft said,' continued Justice Harlan, 'that according to the decision of this court in the freight association case 'contracts in restraint of interstate transportation were within the statute whether the restraints could be regarded as reasonable at common law or not.'"

"Justice Harlan, referring to other decisions, calls particular attention to one of Justice Taft, now president, in the Addyston Pipe case. 'Justice Taft said,' continued Justice Harlan, 'that according to the decision of this court in the freight association case 'contracts in restraint of interstate transportation were within the statute whether the restraints could be regarded as reasonable at common law or not.'"

Three Men Shot During Quarrel in a Denver Hotel

S. L. Von Puhl of St. Louis Shot Three Times in Dispute Over a Woman—Two Bystanders Wounded.

DENVER, May 25.—S. L. ("Tony") Von Puhl of St. Louis, who was shot three times by F. Harold Henwood here last night, following a quarrel, died shortly before noon today. A charge of murder will now be placed against Henwood, who is in jail.

A quarrel, presumably starting over a woman and continuing over the merits of different brands of champagne, resulted in a triple shooting shortly before midnight last night in the barroom of the Brown Palace hotel.

Frank H. Henwood, an agent of the Globe Blow Gas company of New York, did the shooting. S. L. ("Tony") Von Puhl of St. Louis, a wine agent, and William A. Atkinson, a mining man of Victor, Colo., received two bullets, one in the left leg and the other in the abdomen. Atkinson and Copeland were bystanders and had nothing to do with the quarrel. They will recover.

Henwood is in jail and will be held pending the outcome of his victims' injuries. According to Henwood, he and Von Puhl met only yesterday. A quarrel in which the name of an actress was used started later and resulted in Henwood calling Von Puhl a liar. Von Puhl's instant reply was a smash to Henwood's face which sent him reeling. The latter then drew a revolver and emptied its five chambers.

Friends of both men state the quarrel really started over a Denver society woman. Von Puhl has been in Denver several days endeavoring to arrange for a balloon flight, crossing the Rockies. He holds a number of balloon records, including the speed record for long flights, having made the distance from St. Louis to Charleston, S. C., 200 miles in fifteen hours.

"In the first instance he proposed to settle the Alaskan boundary dispute by sending the American army to occupy and hold the territory by force, but finally yielded to the pacific advice of Secretary Hay and in 1903 submitted the question to the London commission. 'Notwithstanding his early declaration in opposition to arbitration he has done more than any other living man to advance this cause and has well earned the Nobel peace prize. Judging the future by the past we may expect this erratic, but patriotic citizen to fall in line with the onward march towards international peace and give his support to the great measure which most enables the administration of his successor.'"

"Believe Man Murdered. PORT MADISON, Ia., May 25.—The body of William Swerdlow, Jr., who disappeared from Burlington last Saturday, was found floating near here in the Mississippi river this afternoon. The police suspect he was murdered.

Negro Woman and Son Are Lynched

Mrs. Laura Nelson and Eighteen-Year-Old Boy Hanged by Mob at Okema, Okl.

OKEMA, Okl., May 25.—Laura Nelson, a negro, and her son, 16 years old, were lynched here today. They shot a deputy sheriff who went to search their shanty for stolen goods.

The woman and her son were taken from the county jail early today by a mob whose members had first gagged and bound the jailer, Lawrence Payne. The bodies were found this morning hanging on the timbers of a bridge across the Canadian river.

The Nelsons were placed in jail charged with the murder two weeks ago of Deputy Sheriff George H. Loney.

Prices Go Up as Soon as Subsidiary Corporation is Organized for Business.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., May 25.—The prices of yellow pine lumber jumped from 50 cents to $1.20 a thousand feet in October, 1906, immediately after a subsidiary corporation of the yellow pine manufacturers' association began publishing the price lists, according to E. J. Schuster in a hearing of the state's quarter suit against the alleged lumber trust today.

R. C. Campbell, a lumber manufacturers' agent and former secretary of the A. H. Bennett Lumber company of St. Louis, was the last witness of the hearing, which adjourned to meet in Kansas City June 12.

W. C. Garrett, senior counsel for the lumber interests, became incensed because of the continued rulings against him by Special Commissioner Reynolds, while Campbell was on the stand. He expressed the opinion that the lumber interests were not receiving the treatment they merited from the commissioner.

VERDICT AGAINST ARCHBOLD. Oil Magnate Must Pay Damages Because His Auto Killed a Girl.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., May 25.—The case in which John A. Archbold of New York was sued by William De Mello of Mattanohuset for damages for the death of his daughter Guilherme, ended today in a verdict of $4300. The child was killed by Mr. Archbold's automobile.

CRITICISM OF ROOSEVELT

John W. Foster's Address Feature of Lake Mohonk Conference.

EX-PRESIDENT IS INCONSISTENT

Recent Utterances Against Arbitration Are Severely Condemned, While His Work for Peace is Praised.

MOHONK LAKE, May 25.—Severe criticism of Theodore Roosevelt's recent public utterances regarding international arbitration marked the speech of John W. Foster, former secretary of state, today before the seventeenth annual meeting of the Lake Mohonk conference on international arbitration. "At the same time," said Mr. Foster, "notwithstanding Mr. Roosevelt's early declaration in opposition to arbitration in general, he has done more than any one living to advance this cause."

"The Anglo-American treaty of arbitration, Mr. Foster said, could have no appreciable effect on the animosities of the world, and that at present Germany could hardly be expected to become a party to a like treaty. Nevertheless, 'the admitted arbitration is extended among the nations its beneficial effect must become more and more apparent, and even the German government must eventually find a modus vivendi with the peaceful nations which will enable it to restrict its armament and cease to be a menace to the world. 'It has been my honor since the preparation of my address at this point when the fulfillment of Theodore Roosevelt appeared in the public press. While I regard its appearance as tending to embarrass the action of the senate, I realize the fact that no man in public life today has shown such an erratic and inconsistent course in relation to the subject of international arbitration. His early public career was marked by a strong hostility to arbitration in general. In a magazine article as late as 1896 he attacked President Harrison for submitting the Berlin sea question to arbitration. 'When he assumed the responsibility of the presidency it was he who sent the first use to the Hague court of arbitration and invited the nations in hostile array against Venezuela to resort to the same court. 'In the first instance he proposed to settle the Alaskan boundary dispute by sending the American army to occupy and hold the territory by force, but finally yielded to the pacific advice of Secretary Hay and in 1903 submitted the question to the London commission. 'Notwithstanding his early declaration in opposition to arbitration he has done more than any other living man to advance this cause and has well earned the Nobel peace prize. Judging the future by the past we may expect this erratic, but patriotic citizen to fall in line with the onward march towards international peace and give his support to the great measure which most enables the administration of his successor.'"

"Believe Man Murdered. PORT MADISON, Ia., May 25.—The body of William Swerdlow, Jr., who disappeared from Burlington last Saturday, was found floating near here in the Mississippi river this afternoon. The police suspect he was murdered.

NEGRO WOMAN AND SON ARE LYNCHED

Mrs. Laura Nelson and Eighteen-Year-Old Boy Hanged by Mob at Okema, Okl.

OKEMA, Okl., May 25.—Laura Nelson, a negro, and her son, 16 years old, were lynched here today. They shot a deputy sheriff who went to search their shanty for stolen goods.

The woman and her son were taken from the county jail early today by a mob whose members had first gagged and bound the jailer, Lawrence Payne. The bodies were found this morning hanging on the timbers of a bridge across the Canadian river.

The Nelsons were placed in jail charged with the murder two weeks ago of Deputy Sheriff George H. Loney.

Prices Go Up as Soon as Subsidiary Corporation is Organized for Business.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., May 25.—The prices of yellow pine lumber jumped from 50 cents to $1.20 a thousand feet in October, 1906, immediately after a subsidiary corporation of the yellow pine manufacturers' association began publishing the price lists, according to E. J. Schuster in a hearing of the state's quarter suit against the alleged lumber trust today.

R. C. Campbell, a lumber manufacturers' agent and former secretary of the A. H. Bennett Lumber company of St. Louis, was the last witness of the hearing, which adjourned to meet in Kansas City June 12.

W. C. Garrett, senior counsel for the lumber interests, became incensed because of the continued rulings against him by Special Commissioner Reynolds, while Campbell was on the stand. He expressed the opinion that the lumber interests were not receiving the treatment they merited from the commissioner.

VERDICT AGAINST ARCHBOLD. Oil Magnate Must Pay Damages Because His Auto Killed a Girl.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., May 25.—The case in which John A. Archbold of New York was sued by William De Mello of Mattanohuset for damages for the death of his daughter Guilherme, ended today in a verdict of $4300. The child was killed by Mr. Archbold's automobile.

From the Chicago Evening Post.

AD CLUB MEMBERS PROTEST

Object to Mentioning Name of Body in "Vigilantes" Meeting.

SAY OFFICERS EXCEED RIGHT

President Gering and Member Wells Declared Not to Have Right to Bring Club Name into Controversy.

COLUMBUS, Neb., May 25.—(Special Telegram.)—Executive committee members and members of the Omaha Ad club on the trade excursion, are writing protests to Omaha tonight against President Gering and Percy Wells of the club dragging the name of the organization into the movement of a so-called home protectors' volunteer police force. They received copies of The Bee at Grand Island and learned that President Gering had participated in the alleged mass meeting to such an extent that the Ad club was connected with the affair and they were thoroughly aroused. Twenty-one members of the club, including Percy Wells, signed the protest. They expressed their displeasure and disgust that Ad club members should be connected with a piece of agitation which can only advertise Omaha to the world as lawless and without police protection.

"Percy Wells wanted to call this meeting in the name of the Omaha Ad club and we protested," said a member of the executive committee of the Ad club. "The organization has been dragged into politics and movements started by people who want newspaper notoriety, the club being dragged in each time. This has gone far enough and we will file protests strong enough to keep the organization out of the alleged home protectors' brigade." Members were open in their denunciation of Mr. Wells and Mr. Gering was severely criticized. Both Ad club men and members of the Commercial club expressed their disgust with a dispatch sent out from Omaha and appearing in San Francisco papers, which told of Mr. Wells being a big game hunter, a man who has smelled powder all his life and is now going to clean up naughty Omaha with his shotgun.

Members of the Ad club on the trip joined in the following statement: "To the Editor of The Bee: 'We, the undersigned executive committee and members of the Omaha Ad club, hereby register an emphatic protest against the use of the name of the Omaha Ad club by any one in connection with the movement of the organization of the so-called volunteer police force in Omaha. We believe this to be poor policy for the club to be connected with in any way and can only result in reflecting discredit on the city of Omaha and placing the city in the wrong light before the entire country.' This was signed by: Penn P. Forde, vice president; Sam L. Reed, Jr., treasurer; A. C. Scott, executive committee; O. T. Eastman, O. W. Dunn, A. G. Store, Frank Harwood, Joe Hayfield, P. E. Zoller, Paul a. Heaton, R. W. Hayward, William S. Hillis, D. J. O'Brien, W. E. Shepard, George Rogers, Rufus E. Harris, H. G. Hoel, F. T. B. Martin, J. M. Guild, Will A. Campbell, M. C. Cole.

Large forces of troops were hurried to the scene and a cordon was thrown about the presidential palace. Twice the orders to disperse were given to the manifestos, but without avail. Thereupon the soldiers opened fire. Immediately there was a scene of the widest confusion. The more timid rioters fled to nearby streets and alleys while the leaders gave ground slowly before the advancing forces, who still kept up their fire. Slowly, however, the mob was broken up, although detached bodies continue demonstrations at various points throughout the city.

People Distrust Diaz. JUAREZ, Mex., May 25.—"Unless General Diaz resigns today or tomorrow there will be a mob demonstration," said a member of the committee.

Base Ball tickets. Cans of Farrell's Syrup. Boxes of O'Brien's Candy. Quart Bricks of Dalzell's Ice Cream.

All given away free to those who find their names in the want ads. Read the want ads every day, your name will appear sometime more than once. No puzzles to solve nor subscriptions to get—just read the want ads. Turn to the want ad page—

PRESIDENT DIAZ RESIGNS OFFICE AT 4:54 O'CLOCK

Expected Demonstration in Chamber of Deputies Fails to Occur at the Reading.

MASS OF PEOPLE SHOUT WILDLY

News is Signal for Manifestations by Crowd in Streets.

RIOTING PRECEDES FINAL EVENT

Excited Throng Parade Highways Shouting for Madero.

POLICE FIRE UPON THE CROWD

One Man is Killed in Front of Hall of Foreign Relations.

MUCH TROUBLE AT GUADALAJARA

Five Persons Killed Tuesday Night—Seven Killed and Thirty-Six Wounded in City of Mexico.

MEXICO CITY, May 25.—General Porfirio Diaz resigned the presidency of Mexico at 4:54 o'clock this afternoon. Francisco de la Barra automatically became provisional president, but will not take the oath until tomorrow. Immense crowds thronged the streets, but there was no violence.

MEXICO CITY, May 25.—After the intense excitement of last night the city is in comparative quiet this morning. An official statement of the number of casualties resulting from the rioting that swept over the city yesterday evening places the dead at seven and the wounded at thirty-six. Several of the wounded are expected to die.

Large forces of police were on duty early today, ready to cope with any renewal of the outbreak, but there were no signs of renewed disorder during the early morning hours.

Foreign Minister De La Barra issued an official statement this morning that President Diaz and Vice President Corral would resign this afternoon and that the provisional government would thereupon assume authority.

Long vistas of broken windows testified today of the work of the mob last night. Among the plate-glass fronts shattered during the tumult were those of the W. G. Walth shop, the Atco land curb shop and the Tampico News company, all Americans.

Serious Riots at Guadalajara. Reports received today from outlying quarters show that five people were killed at Guadalajara Tuesday night. Governor Gallardo of the state of Jalisco, which Guadalajara is the capital, has resigned and has been succeeded by David Gutierrez Alende.

A mob demonstration occurred last night with cries for vengeance for the five persons killed on Tuesday. The outbreak was quieted when Governor Gallardo resigned. The danger of the situation, at that point is not considered over.

Throughout last night there were echoes of the bloody struggle of the early evening when the mob had held sway at many points, storming buildings and menacing the presidential palace until swept back by volleys from the government forces.

The scene last night covered a wide area and at times four different demonstrations were in progress with varying degrees of intensity, all apparently having a common object. The main trouble culminated after dark, when word spread through the city that President Diaz and Vice President Corral had not resigned in accordance with expectation. The Chamber of Deputies was the first scene of manifestation, and this soon spread to the neighboring quarters.

Mob Shouts for Madero. Toward 9 o'clock the mob demonstration was at its height. Shouts for Madero were heard everywhere and processions roved the leading streets, bearing huge portraits of the revolutionary leader. Efforts to check the fury of the outbreak were made by Madero's personal representative, Alfred Robles Dominguez, but the disorder continued, finding its chief center in front of the presidential palace. Arming themselves with rocks, the mob bombarded nearby buildings. Immediately the newspaper office of the El Imperial and the Tampico News company.

Large forces of troops were hurried to the scene and a cordon was thrown about the presidential palace. Twice the orders to disperse were given to the manifestos, but without avail. Thereupon the soldiers opened fire. Immediately there was a scene of the widest confusion. The more timid rioters fled to nearby streets and alleys while the leaders gave ground slowly before the advancing forces, who still kept up their fire. Slowly, however, the mob was broken up, although detached bodies continue demonstrations at various points throughout the city.

People Distrust Diaz. JUAREZ, Mex., May 25.—"Unless General Diaz resigns today or tomorrow there will be a mob demonstration," said a member of the committee.

Base Ball tickets. Cans of Farrell's Syrup. Boxes of O'Brien's Candy. Quart Bricks of Dalzell's Ice Cream.

All given away free to those who find their names in the want ads. Read the want ads every day, your name will appear sometime more than once. No puzzles to solve nor subscriptions to get—just read the want ads. Turn to the want ad page—

VERDICT AGAINST ARCHBOLD. Oil Magnate Must Pay Damages Because His Auto Killed a Girl.