New Provisional President Says in Open Letter He Will Not Be Candidate Either for President or Vice President.

MEXICO CITY, May 16 .- President Por-Trio Diaz is dead! Long live Citizen Por-

President Diaz, in a letter read by the president of chamber of deputies Thursday afternoon, resigned the presidency of the republic of Mexico and at 4:54 o'clock the acceptance of the resignation by the deputies was announced. Every one had expected an uproas and demonstration when the announcement should be made, but, within the chamber of deputies the words announcing the event were followed by stlence, the deputies seemed awed by what had taken place.

In the streets which were black with people, with every avenue leading to the hall blocked, news that Diaz was at last no more the president, was the signal for wild shouting and manifestations. There was no violence nor destruction of prop-

For many squares on every side of the chamber the streets were black with people. Great crowds were scattered about the zocale when the ringing of the bells and the firing of the cannon announced the triumph of the revolution. With one accord they rushed toward the chamber, but their progress was halted by the multitude ahead of them.

As the crowds melted away after the session, by hundreds and by thousands, $634,000 they fell into irregular marching clubs. They carried flags and banners of the national green, white and red, lithographs of Madero, laurel wreaths, brooms-appareptly symbolit of the clean sweep of the rabellion-and hundreds of them sported staves and poles after the manner of soldiers with rifles. Practically all business was suspended.

An incident illustrating the temper of the people and the effect of their success against the government, occurred when one of the marching "clubs" came swinging down the gocalo. The last two guards on horses were swinging about on their oval route when the marchers reached them. It was a case of one get out of the way of the other. The foot column moved straight toward the last two riders. This aroused the senators who favored the La Follette resolution providing for an inquiry by a special committee of new senators. Mr. Bailey contended that more than two-thirds of the caucus favored the Martin resolution, and it was thus the duty of all democratic senators to abide by that decision. Mr. Martine replied that while willing to compare his party record with the Texas senator's, he was unwilling to be bound by a party caucus on a moral erating that he would not be bound by it on any except a political question. Almost every other democratic senator present participated in the debate. It developed that the regular republicans had practically agreed to abandon the Dillingham resolution in favor of the Martin measure, and all democrats were urged to upport the provision as a matter of party discipline. The caucus supported the Martin resolution with the understanding that any senator should be free to offer any amendments.

Mr. Hitchcock suggested as a compro mise that a subcommittee on privileges this cordon. They were quiet and well and elections, to be appointed by the senate, should be designated to conduct the To the city generally the acceptance of inquiry. He said he might present such an

RIDS THE SYSTEM OF CATARRH

Catarrh usually begins with irritated, inflamed membranes of the head, nose and throat, from which there is a constant and copious discharge of watery matter. Nature intends that these membranes shall be nourished by the blood, but waste matters and impurities deposited into these delicate parts, sets up inflammation and the discharge is a natural result. There is only one way to cure Catarrh, and that is to remove the cause by purifying the blood. Washes, sprays, inhalations, etc., do not reach the circulation and therefore can only afford temporary relief. S.S.S. cures Catarrh by cleansing the blood of all impure catarrhal matter, and at the same time building up the system by its unequalled tonic effects. In other words S. S. S. cures Catarrh by purifying the blood so that the mucous surfaces and linings of the body are supplied with healthy nourishment instead of being continually irritated from the catarrhal impurities. Then the inflamed membranes heal, the discharge is checked, head noises cease, the stomach is toned up, and the throat is no longer clogged with mucus. Book on Catarrh and any medical advice desired, free. S. S. S. is for sale at drug stores.
