ROURKES WALK OVER PUEBLO

Omaha Takes Game with Thirteen to s

WOMEN CHEER THE PLAYERS Ladies' Day Finds Hundreds Jarnigan's Skill Proves

Clubbing the ball with the fury of demons, the Rourkes vesterday afternoon batted two Pueblo gitchers for a total of fourteen hits and romped away with a 13 to 0 game. Only four hits were made off

The big Rourks blonde dished out an as sortment of twisters to the orphans that fairly bewildered them. It was not until after two men had d'ed in the eighte inning that Hall's mysteries were solved and then the first Pueblo hit was made. In ninth three more were made, but netted no runs. Seven of the westerners fell before the mighty arm of "Blondy" Hall and he gave but three passes. It was ladies' day for fair and the fall sex turned out in multitudes. All the Omaha players donned their best looks and made untiring efforts to win their way into the hearts of the fanerines. They succeeded. The new rightfielder, Williams, almost started a riot when he clouted the ball for the entire circuit.

Pueblo made a desperate attempt in the last inning to at least make a score by hitting out three and filling the bases, out the much-coveted tally had not come in yet. Jarnigan, the pride of Frank Isbell, was placed on the mound, and for three innings heaved some ball, but the Rourkes got his goat in the fourth, when four hits were plucked, paving the way for six runs. The next inning was a du plicate of the preceding one, only two nore hits were made and the same num

The terrific pounding with which the Rourkes were getting away was too much for Issy and he jerked his pride to substitute Wright, but he was very little bette than his comrade. Mass stealing was also in line and nine sacks were pilfered by the Rourkes, while Johnny Gonding held the Pueblo boys on first.

Omaha made the first run of the game in the fourth. Pick singled past second. Wilcleared the bases with a homer. Niehoff St ond. Gonding singled to center, scoring Kneaves. Hall doubled to center and ANTELOPES DEFEAT DES MOINES

In the fifth Williams was hit by the ball and scored Williams. King singled to the infield, scoring Niehoff. Schoonover singled to center and King was caught at third on Kneaves grounder, Kneaves took first. Gonding tripled to center, scoring Schooney and Kneaves. Hall singled and scored Gonding. Hall was thrown out at second on Pick's grounder, who landed safely on first. He stole second and scored Cohe. and stole second. Niehoff doubled to left safely on first. He stole second and scored on Kane's hit to center. In the next inning Niehoff doubled to right, but was caught stealing third, Schoonover singled to right, stole second took third on Clemmons' error and scored when Kneaves, who had been passed, drew

Happy Hollow Club is to Open Saturday

Golf, Tennis and Base Ball to Provide Sport-Dancing in the Evening.

Happy Hollow opens its season Saturday afternoon with an eighteen-hole handicap medal play golf contest, a base ball game between the club team and Creighton university and a number of special tennis matches. In the evening there will be dancing at the club house. Three flights will be played in the golf contest. Scratch men up to 9 handicap will be in the first flight, nine to seventeen handicap will play in the second, and over seventeen handicap men are entered in the third. Special prizes are offered for each flight, the first prize in each class being a pair of fine golfing shoes. Alec Reed, manager of the club base ball team, has scheduled a game with the speedy college team of Creighton. The grand stand will probably be taxed to its utmost with the fans out to ses their men open the official season. The Happy Hollow club is opening a lit-

allowed but six hits.

Rouse had the Superiors eating out of his hand and let nine of the bunch down by the strike out route.

Claire made the only home ron of the day in the league Thursday and brought two other players around before him.

York had an easy time getting away with the game with Kearney. Thompson allowed but five scattered hits for York.
