Conservative, but Free Lines Held Proper in Dress.

SILHOUETTE IS THE THING

Trimming Is Placed on Rather Than Built Into the Garment—Many Parisian Designs Are Offered.

Displays of gowns, dresses, materials and trimmings for the coming summer have awakened no end of interest...

The points that stand out definitely as "different" this season are the general catholicity of the length of jackets...

No particular period of dress prevails and really the women of this country...

Variety is the name of the game... Callot, Paquin, Drecol, Polart, Bernard...

A general tendency in gowns is to have them longer and in many cases a train of from twelve to fifteen inches is the style...

In the tailored suits the coat is the perplexing problem. The new suit coat is short in the back and a decided cut-away...

The general effect in building a skirt, as one dealer described it, is to do away with any idea of a flounce effect...

Freedom of motion is essential in any of the dresses of popularity this year. Tailored suits are naturally built to allow this...

One Piece Gowns in Favor. The volume of business this year will undoubtedly be done in the medium priced one piece summer gowns...

Sleeves on the dressy gown are still cut-in-one with the body and have the fullness of elbow length. A hand of trimming or a three or four in cuff of a contrasting material...

The peasant bodice holds its place although relieved of some of its simplicity by the clever designs of the period...

The surplice bodice, crossed in back and just meeting in front at the girdle, is seen on many evening frocks...

"Jupe colotte," the harem skirt, has aroused more interest than any other dress of the modern time...

For wear in general usage and not in party and formal dances, the one-piece empire gown holds its place well...

Suits of linen for wear at summer hotels and resorts have jumped into favor with a bound...

Gingham with a sailor collar is another of the dresses in popular use for the summer girl and her activities...

with hand embroidery. One of the new frocks in this shirtwaist is the all-handkerchief waist...

New Waists in Demand. The new styles of tailored suits call for two styles of waists...

The dressy waists consist of the yoked models of this period and the over blouse. Bands of eyelet embroidery...

For the waists themselves the colors are of dark blue, brown and violet, black and some the red and cinnamon. The side frill is not as much used in the west as in the east...

Stocks of white waists consist almost exclusively of marquisette and voile, with much embroidery. One color, several shades of one color...

A traveling suit, and a long traveling coat of plain cut are necessary, a mannish style being suggested in the suit...

Waists are necessary to the bride—very much so. Hand embroidered waists for fancy wear, with a host skirt are nice...
