GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Prospects of Rain Take Edge Off the Bull Side.

GREAT WHEAT STOCKS HELD

New Harvest Growing Nearer Stands in Way of Possible Advance—Greater Strength in Corn is Shown.

OMAHA, May 27, 1911.

Cooler weather and prospects for rain took the bull edge off the wheat market at the start. Rains were scattered over the southwest and the spring wheat belt had good heavy rainfall, making conditions perfect. The market is a genuine weather affair and there is a generally friendly feeling to the bull side. There are enormous stocks of wheat, however, and the new harvest is near at hand, which is in opposition to any marked advance.

The strength developed in corn must be credited more to the reduced stocks and the bullish commercial position of cash corn than to the hot weather talk of probable damage to the growing crop. The higher cash prices are likely to increase receipts and at this time shipping demand and sales show signs of slacking.

Despite bearish news and early selling, wheat turned strong on evening up trades for shorts who did not care to hold over Sunday, closed the market strong. Cash wheat was steady and unchanged.

Henry corn receipts weakened the market and cooler weather, with showers checked the bull sentiment. Cash corn was ¼c lower.

Primary wheat receipts were 675,000 bushels and shipments were 476,000 bushels, against receipts last year of 254,000 bushels and shipments of 214,000 bushels.

Primary corn receipts were 870,000 bushels and shipments were 240,000 bushels, against receipts last year of 589,000 bushels and shipments of 316,000 bushels.

Clearances were 182,000 bushels of corn, none of oats and wheat and flour equal to 322,000 bushels.

Liverpool closed unchanged to ¼d higher on wheat and ¼d higher on corn.

The following cash sales were reported:

Wheat—No. 2 hard: 3 cars, 88c. No. 3 hard: 1 car, 87¼c; 1 car, 86c.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS

Features of the Trading and Closing Prices on Board of Trade.

CHICAGO, May 27.—Rains and cooler weather west of the Missouri river made the wheat market easy most of the time today, but in the last half hour a smart rally occurred on account of renewed buying for an interest which has been conspicuous of late in taking the bull side. Closing figures vary from a shade lower than last night to ¼c up. The day's trading left corn unchanged to ¾c down, oats the same as twenty-four hours previous or running to ⅛@¼c decline and provisions strung out from 12½c loss to a gain of 2½c net.

Relief from the heat and drouth, even though the change was restricted in extent, brought a quick right-about-face among traders in wheat. Bearish feeling grew more pronounced when cables turned out to be flat. Prospects for large receipts here the next few days had a further depressing effect. General selling was the rule for quite a while, but gradually tapered off and in the end gave place to persistent buying on the part of bull leaders. As a result many of the early bears were forced to cover, influenced somewhat by reports of a shortage of wheat on hand in Oregon, Idaho and Washington. During the session July ranged from 90c to 88¾@89¼c, with last sales 89¼@89¾c, just a shade net gain.

Heavy realizing by local longs caused a downward tendency in corn. July fluctuated between 53¾@53¼c and 54¼c, closing steady, ¼@¾c down, at 53¾c. Cash grades were steady. No. 2 yellow finished at 54½@54¾c.

The oats trade proved large. High and low points for July were 35¼c and 35¾c, with latest transactions 35¾@35½c, a net decline of ⅛@¼c.

Selling credited to a Milwaukee packer more than offset in the provisions pit strength due to an advance in the price of hogs. In the end pork was 2½@12½c lower than last night, but other products showed no important change.
