CORPORATIONS ARE IN DANGER

Many Seek to Evade Tax Levied by State of Nebraska.

NO WHOLESALE PROSECUTIONS Defunct Concerns Included in the List, but Live Ones Will Have to Face the Music in Court.

LINCOLN, Neb., May 31.—(Special.)—The list of Nebraska corporations delinquent for not paying their corporation taxes, which has been certified by the secretary of state to the attorney general's office for prosecution, will probably start something, but hardly the wholesale criminal prosecutions indicated on the face of the returns. Under the law the charters of corporations that do not pay up become self-forefeited, and those who continue to do business unlawfully under a corporate name are subject, on conviction, to fine and imprisonment.

- An Omaha man who was examining the list of delinquents for Omaha declares that room will be found for but few criminal prosecutions. There may be some, he says, like the Hartman Furniture company, the Hyman Grain company, the Monarch Acetylene company and a few automobile companies that have been trying to get away from paying their taxes, but most of the others are defunct, as well as delinquent. The firms Miller corporations, which include the Millard Hotel company, have been legally dissolved, and the Omaha Horse Railway company belongs to the antiquarians, while still others like the Cook Shoe company and the Balduff Pure Candy company have been wiped out by creditors. By checking the list up carefully the attorney general's task will be simplified, and perhaps resolved into making a few test cases.
