Now with the May contracts out of the way, there should be a more natural market unless the present buil interests extend their operations into the new crop of futures, contrary to the natural conditions and the prospects of a big harvest in sight. Recent rains have greatly improved pros-pects everywhere. Cash wheat is in slow demand and at a discout under the late demand and at a discout under the late if May contracts.

The run of corn has been very heavy for the last week and with a continuance of present receipts, stocks will accumulate. The new crop has a fine start, owing to general rains and cool weather. Easier cash prices will no doubt reduce the volume of country selling while the support of the futures is of good character.

Wheat advanced sharply under buying from all quarters. Favorable crop outlook had no effect, traders believing in the values and bid the market higher. Cash wheat advanced lo.

 CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS

Features of the Trading and Closing

Prices on Board of Trade. CHICAGO. June 1.—Energetic buying forces appeared in the wheat market to-day and put prices up with the help of statements by crop experts estimating the condition in the winter belt as 3 to 5 per condition in the winter beit as 3 to 5 per cent less favorable than a month ago.

At the close the market varied from 10 to 1%c higher than last night. All the other leading staples, too, showed a net gain—corô. %2%c to 3%c; oats, %c to 1%c and provisions, 7%200c to 25c.

At one time July wheat reached a level 2 cents above the final figures of yester-2 cents above the final figures of yester-day. As a result the question was promptly raised as to whether a new "corner" was being attempted, although the echoes of the May deal were still to be heard. According to some authorities, the leaders who have recently been prominent on the buil side were taking hold of the July option on a big scale. A favorite theory to explain this action was that the trade had been too generally bearish in the new crop months, expecting a development of weakness with May contracts out of the way. It was noticed that there was much selling of September on the part of the selling of September on the part of the chief purchasers of July, Very little re-action from top prices took place. During the day July ranged from 894c to 914c, closing firm, 1%c up at 90%c.

Corn was well supported all day. July fluctuated between 53% and 54%c, with the close steady at 54%c, a net gain of %67%c. Cash grades were firm. No. 2 yellow finished at 54%c54%c.

Trade in oats was lively and prices sharply higher. High and low points reached by July during the session were 394630%c, and 35%c, with last sales %c net higher at 35%.

Buying of provisions was stimulated because of the grain strength and the good cash trade. Pork at the end of the day was 30c to 35c dearer, and there was an advance of 74600c to 10612%c for lard and ribs. change During the Day.

NEW YORK, June 1.—The strength which developed late yesterday in the stock market was evident at the opening today and prices on many issues advanced briskly. Hill securities were influenced favorably by the announcement of the plan to issue a $500,000,000 mortgage. Both Northern Pacific and Great Northern preferred gained large fractions, and Chicago, Burlington & Quincy joint 4 per cent bonds advanced ½. The steel issues showed further heaviness, Republic Iron and Steel declining I4 and United States Steel a small fraction. Chesapeake & Ohio, Ransas City Southern and American Beet Sugar rose I and Inter-Metropolitan preferred 14.

A bear attack was concentrated against Reading and an endeavor to check the upward tendency of the market. Reading was hammered down from 18% to 187%, but, as the general market also suffered a slight setback, the selling stopped and prices mounted rapidly again. Reading went up to 188%, and there also were gains of 1 to 1% in St. Paul. Union Pacific, Northern Pacific, Great Northern preferred, Lehigh Valley, Canadian Pacific, Atlantic Coast Line, Erie second preferred and Amaigamnted Copper. Purchases of the Hill stocks were on a very large scale and there was an absorption of all the recognized dividend paying stocks as a resuit of the reception accorded the Hill financing plans. American Snuff sold at 25%, compared with 325, the previous sale last week.

Sustained strength was displayed in the Sustained strength was displayed in the stock market through the morning session and there was no trace of the nervousness and there was no trace of the nervousness which characterized yesterday's trading. The absorptive power of the market appeared to have been increasing largely and attempts to depress it met with no success. The Hill stocks attracted special attention by reason of the announcement of Great Northern proposed financing, and in some quarters the view was held that the project to take over the Burlington had been made more feasible by the tenor of the supreme court's decisions in the Standard Oil and American Tobacco cases. After stocks reached a higher level in the second stocks reached a higher level in the second hour, establishing numerous gains of between 1 and 2 points, the buying diminished and there was a slight easing off in the railroad section. Bonds were firm. The jump of 2½ to 9½ in Burlington joint 4s induced realising and they reacted 1½.

A report that the Burlington's surplus of $28,000,000 would be divided among the stockholders of the Great Northern and Northern Pacific caused another heavy buying movement in the Hill stocks and they advanced about 2 points over yesterday's closing. New strong spots cropped out elsewhere, Pennsylvania gaining 1 point on its good showing of April earnings. stocks reached a higher level in the second city council, at the special session held were so light that there was hardly enough on sale to make a very good test of values. All told about nine cars of stock were offered, almost all of them lambs, there being five cars of Weslean wooled lambs, there there cars of wooled westerns and a car of spring lambs and ewes. The spring lambs sold at $5.50, with a few off at $4.50 and the ewes at $4.15. A pretty good kind of Mexican wooled lambs sold up to $7.25. While the demand did not appear particularly urgent there was a very fair inquiry and the more desirable of the offerings changed hands in very fair season in the morning.

Light offerings sent prices off a fraction but this selling was mostly of a profit-taking character and the market showed little evidence of weakness. Number of sales and leading quotations on stocks were as follows:

Wednesday evening, ignored the question of police and fire relief and contented itself with the transaction of routine affairs that concerned paving and improvement bonds. In city hall circles it had been expected that the council, would vote on the mayor's proposition to finance the fire and police departments with money taken from the scavenger and excess tax collections.
