

Great Reduction on Trimmed Hats

Every Hat Will Be Sold Saturday at Half Price

$10.00 Hats—$5.00 at.....
 $15.00 Hats—$7.50 at.....
 $20.00 Hats—$10.00 at.....
 $25.00 Hats—$12.50 at.....

About 100 Trimmed Hats to Be Sold While They Last at $1.50—Every blue hat, up to $7.00; every green hat, up to $9.00; every red hat, up to $10.00—and every other color hat, up to $12.00—on sale Saturday at..... $1.50

Sale Begins 8:30 A. M.

Thos. Kilpatrick & Co.

Millinery Department.

Second Floor.

IF YOU LOOK UP

the records of all ready-to-wear clothing, you will know why it is that ours is so far superior. Why is it that Kuppenheimer, Schloss, Society, Steinbloch famous makes, look better, wear better and fit better than any others?

Its because brains, skill and experience is woven into every garment. They are far in advance of all others and are the greatest possible values without advancing the price. Not overdone, new and original, and you'll like them if you'll try them on; $18.00; $20.00, $22.50, $25.00 up to $40.00. Fine picking also at $15.00, $12.00, and even $10.00.

You Can't Insure a Boy's Clothes against wear and tear, but you can put off the day when you will have to buy a new-suit by getting the best boys' clothes in the first place, and you'll find them here—

$3.50 to $10.00

Extra trousers 50c, 75c, $1.00, etc. Waists 45c, with or without collars. Stockings 15c to 50c. Underwear 25c up. Play Suits, Overalls, Rompers, etc. Graduation Suits will soon be due and no other store in town can please you better nor for so little cost.

$15 and $18

are two popular prices and you really ought to see the great amount of value you get in these splendid suits. Handsome grays, tans and blue serges that outside of this store would cost you $22.50 and $25.00. And the most convincing of all is a look.

Select Your Straw Hat Now While the Stock is So Complete

There's more distinction in starting the season with a fresh new straw hat than waiting for a second crop. The best straw hat men have contributed their best to our collection and we can please you every way, especially the price—

$1 to $7.50

We Make Uniforms of Every Description

The Berg Clothing Co.

Council Bluffs

Minor Mention

The Council Bluffs Office of The Omaha Bee is at 15 South Street. Both Phones 43.

Davis, drugs.
 Wedding silver at Lefferts.
 Corvairs, undertakers, Phones 14.
 PAUSET BEER AT ROGERS BUFFET.
 Woodring Undertaking company, Tel. 239.
 Lewis Cutler, funeral director, Phone 97.
 PURE GOLD WEDDING RINGS—LEFFERTS.
 See the new 1911 wall paper patterns at Burwick's, 211 South Main street.
 Call 142 for a case of Gund's Peerless Beer. J. J. Klein Co. distributor.
 Occultist prescriptions accurately filled the same day at Leffert's Big Jewelry Store.
 Congratulations cards and choice pictures for the graduates. Fauble Art Shop, 333 Broadway.
 City Engineer Stinson qualified for his duties yesterday and filed his official bond for $5,000.
 The Woman's Relief corps will meet this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Grand Army hall in the Young Men's Christian association building.
 Harmony chapter No. 35, Order of the Eastern Star will hold a special meeting this evening for initiation. All members are cordially invited.
 Good healthy rose bushes, American Beauties, Madame Chatney and Pink Killarney, guaranteed to bloom this season each or two assistance than was offered morning, Herman Bros., 10 Pearl St.
 Laura Cordell began a suit for divorce yesterday in the district court from her husband, Benjamin Cordell. She alleges drunkenness and cruelty. They were wed on July 25, 1906 and separated March 13, 1910. She asks the custody of their child.
 A personal injury suit was begun in the district court yesterday by Charles Emerson against the Illinois Central Railroad company. On August 15, last, when Emerson was a brakeman in the employ of the Burlington, he was engaged in the discharge of his duty on First avenue, between Sixteenth and Seventeenth streets, where the Illinois Central track crosses the combination tracks. He was hit by a passenger train belonging to the defendant company and badly injured. He claims negligence in several degrees and asks a judgment for $5,000.
 Dan Cupid got busy yesterday and threw his rosy fetters around sixteen captives, whom he led docily through the corridors of the county court house and presented them to Marriage License Clerk Roy Hardesty. Several of the eight June brides sought no other assistance than was offered by the justices' offices in the county building. Justice Joseph performed two of the ceremonies at once, entering M. W. Kealey of Omaha, clasped the hand of Elsie Jenne of Stronburg, and Fred Fuller and Vera Elliott, both of Omaha. She also performed their vows. Justice Cooper also had his share of the important business.
 Marriage Licenses.
 Marriage licenses were issued yesterday to the following named persons:
 Name and Residence. Age.
 W. H. Jackson, Council Bluffs, Ia., 28
 F. W. Croson, Pacific Junction, Ia., 51
 Ben Lambhear, Ord, Neb., 30
 Vera A. Rice, Burwell, Neb., 21
 Fred Beck, Council Bluffs, Ia., 22
 Elsie Fuga, Council Bluffs, Ia., 20
 Henry Harrier, Omaha, 26
 Belle Palmer, Carlisle, Ia., 25
 D. B. Christie, Omaha, 42
 Anna M. Orr, Omaha, 42
 Henry M. Weakley, Omaha, 44
 Elsie Jenne, Stronburg, Neb., 23
 Fred Fuller, Omaha, 28
 Vera Elliott, Omaha, 18
 V. A. Nelson, Chicago, 24
 Clyde Draper, Cobden, Ill., 22
 N. Y. Plumbing Co. Tel. 256. Night F-172.

Real estate transfers reported to the Bee June 1, by the Pottawattamie County Abstract company:
 Roxie Hughes to Benjamin Febr, Real Estate Co., lots 2, 7 and 8, block 13, Perry addition to Council Bluffs, Ia., w. s. 40
 Mary Wallace et al. to G. T. & E. A. Karges, lots 14 and 15, in block 23, Central subd. in Council Bluffs, Ia., w. s. 40
 Ruth Wallace et al. to G. T. & E. A. Karges, lots 14 and 15, in block 23, Central subd. in Council Bluffs, Ia., w. s. 40
 Three transfers, total..... $501
 Drink Budweiser, King of Bottled Beers.

Refrigerators that save ice. We have the Yukon and Economic refrigerators, $9 up. P. C. De Vol Hardware Co.
 Rosson Has Close Call.
 OSCEOLA, Ia., June 1.—(Special.)—Hugh Rosson, express messenger between Omaha and Chicago, narrowly escaped drowning at Osceola yesterday. Rosson is just recovering from an illness of several weeks, but was able to go with a companion, Walter Scurr, on a fishing expedition to Osceola. They found an old boat from which they commenced to fish, not noticing that it leaked until it began to sink. They abandoned the boat and struck out for the shore. Scurr reached shore first and, looking back, saw Rosson sinking. Quickly leaping back in the river, Scurr started for his companion and reached him just as he was sinking for the last time. After a desperate struggle with him Scurr succeeded in overpowering the drowning lad and swam back to shore with him.
 Persistent Advertising is the Road to Big Returns.

STUDENTS RECEIVE DIPLOMAS

Dean Charles Fordyce of Nebraska University Talks to Seniors.

HIGH SCHOOL COMMENCEMENT
 Seventy-Three Graduates Take Honors, Largest Class Ever Turned from Council Bluffs Public Schools.

An audience that filled every available foot of space in the high school auditorium gathered last night to witness the graduation of the largest class of boys and girls the Council Bluffs high school has yet turned out.
 The high room was tastefully decorated with the class colors and the class spirit vibrated in the very air of the place. It required nearly all of the stage to afford room for the chairs of the seventy-three graduates, members of the Board of Education and the school faculty. The girls were dressed in white and carried bouquets of red roses. They marched in, led by Miss Grace Barr, instructor in music, singing an original song they had written, "The Pilgrim's Progress." It was a new and novel feature that aroused much enthusiasm in the decidedly friendly and sympathetic audience, composed largely of proud fathers, mothers, brothers and sisters of the young people.
 Dean Fordyce speaks.
 After the invocation, a singularly beautiful prayer, by Rev. S. Grant Lewis, pastor of the Fifth Avenue Methodist church, Emmet Tinley, president of the Board of Education, introduced Dean Charles Fordyce of the Nebraska university, who delivered the oration. His theme was "Development of Destiny." He handled it in a masterly manner, drawing from it lessons that were appreciated by old and young. He said there was a power within the breast of each human individual capable of enabling each to rise to whatever heights desired. He described the human mind as the God-like attribute of man, which she directed, composed of ready talent in the class. This included the rendition of the class song, "Away to the Woodlands," by the chorus and all the class members.
 The diplomas were conferred by President Tinley in well chosen phrases.
 List of Graduates:
 Following is the list of graduates:
 Roy C. Allen, Ethel M. Anderson, Arthur John Bauman, Albert Frederick Beck, Lu-Clementine Rosier, Nola Marie Blackburn, Howard S. J. Boylan, H. Lucile I. Brackett, Mary Leslie Chapman, Stuart Kennedy, Mark, Helen Ellsworth Clatterback, Walter D. Christie, Edna E. Laidie, Raymond Deffenbaugh, L. Ulmott Edeon, Gladys Miriam Ellsworth, Mary Virginia Frank, Margaret Catherine Fricke, Otto F. Gibson, Beatrice Gillinski, Lloyd S. Goldsmith, Joseph C. Grason, Martha Ideel Green, Theodor Greaser, Grace Olive Gunn, Olga M. Hansen, Ruth Henderson, Ruth Bedison Hendrick, Florence Ellen Higginson, Irene Isabel Van Poessem, Mary F. Hunt, Leland Andrew Johnson, Valdece Kinsinger, Margaret Jean Kerr, Nellie Kinsel, Elizabeth Komrager, James Arthur J. Leason, Edith Una Long, John B. Long, Jr., Beatrice Genevieve Lowry, Roy Leason, Beulah Harriet Mahon, Hollo Herbert Mathis, Leroy Eugene Meldrum, Clarence E. Miller, Harriet M. Morrow, Eva Mae Moore, Clara Marie, Elizabeth Montgomery, Wylie L. Nichols, John A. Oliver, Louis A. Olson, Olive Osborn, Mary Peterson, Ralph H. Fryer, Edward C. F. Sauer, Lester Frederick Schroeder, Hazel R. Smith, Ingelista C. Smith, Kenneth McGaughrin Snyder, Clarence L. Spaulding, Ada Rose Spetman, George Ashton Spooner, Florence Ella Tibbitt, Margaret Beatrice Tinley, Irene Isabel Van Poessem, Mary F. Virtue, Rose May Weinberg, L. Wallace Wheeler, Loretta May White, David Whitebrook, Robert Oliver Wise, Adelaide Griffith Wright.

City Now Has Full Possession of Water Works Property

Formality of Transfer Gone Through with and Money is Paid Receiver Hart.

The program for the transfer of the water plant was carried out yesterday without a break or an exciting incident. The ceremonies were conducted at high noon, and as far as outward appearances were concerned it might have been a purchase at the 5-cent counter of a 10-cent cigar.

Several hours before the interesting ceremony, was carried out the city was in actual possession of the plant, for Superintendent S. L. Etnyre had virtually taken possession of the office and established his headquarters in the comfortable office so long occupied by Manager E. W. Hart. In the front office, surrounded by piles of books was H. F. Cox, state municipal accountant, who has been called here to supervise the checking of the company's accounts to determine the amount that must be refunded to the city for the June collections paid by the consumers at the beginning of the quarter on April 1. The first task assigned to Etnyre came in the shape of a huge bundle of invoice sheets, comprising the property, tools and supplies of the company, which he must check over, a task that will occupy several days.
 City Solicitor Kimball, who went to Red Oak on Wednesday to confer with Judge Smith McPherson, relative to the payment of the money, returned yesterday morning with the court's approval of the method shaped in the form of a modification of his original order requiring the city to pay the money directly to the Omaha National bank, which in direct conflict with the orders of the district court judge and the laws of the state.
 The city first tendered the money to Harry M. Brown, clerk of the district court, in the form of 1,921 city warrants, each for the facsimile signature of the city officers printed in the form. These warrants were received by the clerk and accepted for them a check for the full amount of $210,500, signed by City Treasurer True, and drawn on the First National bank, was given him. This he endorsed payable to Receiver E. W. Hart, who forthwith deposited it in the Omaha bank, subject to his own check. In the meantime all of the papers required for the complete surrender of the plant had been delivered by Receiver Hart, and the plant in every respect became the property of the city.
 Accountant Cox stated yesterday that his work would probably consume two or three weeks, and believed that it would be very helpful for the city. It will involve the opening of a new set of municipal account books and the instructions for their keeping. Mr. Cox said he found the water company's books in splendid shape and the task of fixing out the amounts due the city comparatively simple, although involving long and tedious work. He is receiving the most helpful and hearty assistance from the bookkeeper, Miss Bonham, and Frank Haas, who has long been in full charge of the collections department.
 Superintendent Etnyre filed his bond yesterday in the sum of $5,000. The city will require similar bonds from the chief clerk and cashier.

Deputy Marshal Argues Man Out of Deed of Murder

And Incidentally Saves His Own Life While Deranged Man Held Bead on Him.

For a few minutes yesterday forenoon Deputy Marshal Charlie Crum faced death in a cool and unflinching manner and saved himself by calmly arguing with the half crazed man who stood in front of him with a repeating rifle almost touching his stomach, while two loaded revolvers protruded from his belt.
 The exciting incident occurred at the foot of the stairway leading to the police headquarters. The enraged man was Leonard Panique, a teamster employed by J. F. Wilcox, and residing at 1272 East Pierce street. The cause of the trouble was the arrest of Mrs. Panique by the officer an hour before. Mrs. Panique and her neighbor, Mrs. Sicker, residing at 1275 East Pierce street, had been involved in some dispute that led some of the other neighbors to file a complaint for disturbing the peace.
 Police Judge Snyder had issued the warrants and Officer Crum had been directed to serve them. He went to the home of Mrs. Panique and she readily consented to accompany him to the station, and after dressing rode with him in his buggy. At the station her own recognizance was taken and she was permitted to immediately return to her home.
 Word of the arrest was conveyed to Panique before his wife reached home, and he flew into a violent passion. Arming himself with a .32 caliber repeating Colt's rifle and two .32 caliber revolvers, with a belt full of cartridges and two extra boxes, the enraged husband started out to kill the man who had arrested his wife. Roy Wilcox heard of it and tried in vain to restrain the man and telephoned to the station that he was coming.

 The officers at headquarters took it as a joke and Crum went out on the street alone to meet the man. He had scarcely reached the pavement when he saw Panique jump from a wagon that was coming down Vine street and start toward the station with his rifle poised in front of him and his hand on the mechanism. Wilcox had accompanied him and was still trying to dissuade him. Crum went to meet him and told him frankly that he was the man who had served the warrant, explaining that the woman was not in jail and had not been detained five minutes.
 After a long and doubtful contest, during which the muzzle of the gun was almost touching Crum's stomach, the words won. Panique consented to go upstairs and talk it over with the chief, and, preceded by Wilcox and followed by Crum, he mounted the stairs. Chief Froom was waiting at the head of the stairs and as the man appeared he seized the rifle and jerked it from him. Crum instantly snatched away one of the revolvers and Detective Richardson got the other at the same instant. Each weapon was fully loaded and the man had more than 100 extra cartridges.

 Panique was plainly suffering from temporary insanity, and one false move would have started him wildly shooting. He was locked up, charged with disturbing the peace and carrying concealed weapons, although they were anything but concealed. The man had never been arrested before and his employers say he is sober and industrious.

Iowa News Notes.

CRESTON—The five high school students of the local school who were arrested for a malicious mischief, were given a hearing yesterday which resulted in one boy being given a fine of $5 and costs. The others were dismissed.
 CRESTON—Lena Goddard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Goddard of Billings, Mont., died here at the home of her parents, where she had recently been brought from her western home. The little girl was 12 years old and had been an invalid nearly all her life. The father and brother from Billings, are expected to arrive here today.
 ESTHERVILLE—The Rev. R. C. Mitchell, pastor of the Presbyterian church of this city, formerly of Indianapolis, Ia., will be installed as pastor of the church here next Sunday, June 4. Those who will participate in the installation are: Dr. Parment of Des Moines, synodical superintendent of missions; Dr. S. R. Ferguson, district superintendent of Iowa, Kansas and Missouri; and the Rev. E. M. Bell, D. D., of Spirit Lake, Ia.

VETERAN OF THE CIVIL WAR IS NINETY-FIVE SATURDAY

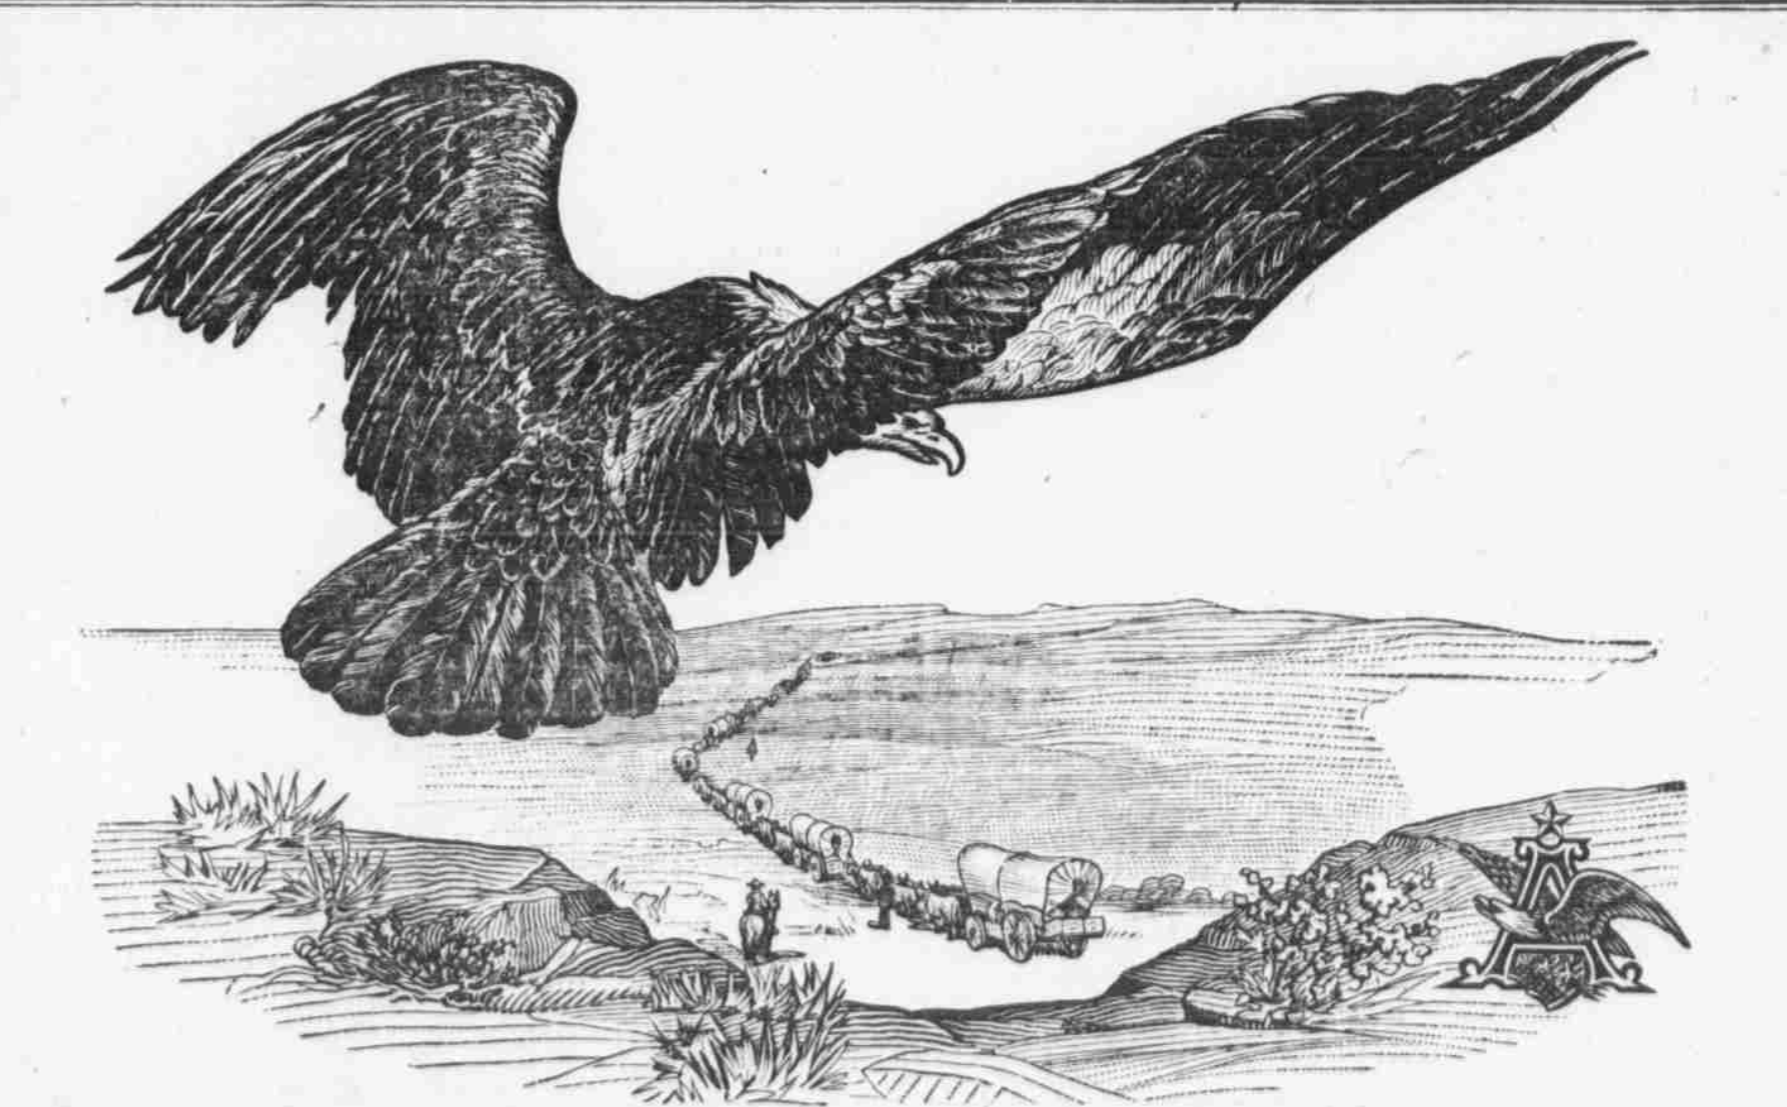

Former Omaha Man, Now at Sioux City, One of the Oldest Veterans.

T. H. Farnsworth, father of E. H. Farnsworth, an attorney in Omaha, will celebrate his ninety-fifth birthday anniversary in a hospital in Sioux City, Ia., on June 2. Mr. Farnsworth is one of the oldest members of the Grand Army of the Republic and was the fourth man to enlist in the Fourth Maine regiment at the outbreak of the civil war. He served throughout that struggle. More than thirty years of his life was passed in Omaha, but he left here to make his home in Sioux City ten years ago. His health now is failing.

Murdered Woman's Husband Arrested

Henry J. Schieb Charged with Murder on Affidavit Sworn to by Police Inspector.

NEW YORK, June 2.—The cautious steps which the police have taken in holding Henry L. Schieb, pending investigation of the mysterious death of his wife, Lillian Schieb, whose decomposed body was found in the bathtub of a vacant flat three days ago, led tonight to his arrest for a third time, finally charging him with murder on an affidavit sworn to by a police inspector.
 Schieb is held pending the completion of a hearing which was adjourned to allow the district attorney's office to call other witnesses.
 The authorities today had a lively time trying to keep their hands on Schieb. When arraigned for running an automobile without a license he paid a $10 fine, but obtained his release on a writ of habeas corpus when charged with being a suspicious person. He was arrested again, charged with the alleged theft of an overcoat from the garage where he was employed, but the case was dismissed. Then the authorities decided to charge the man with homicide.

THE VERY HIGHEST POINT known to the Art of Modern Brewing is found within every bottle of

Budweiser

"The Old Reliable"

Brews will come and brews will go — have their little day — then vanish — but Budweiser goes on forever — everlasting Quality, Purity and Mildness is the reason.

Bottled only at the
ANHEUSER-BUSCH BREWERY
 St. Louis, Mo.

Anheuser-Busch Co. of Nebraska
 Geo. Krug, Gen. Mgr.
 Omaha, Nebraska