MAKING CHRISTIAN CITIZENS

Young Men's Christian Association Not a Mollycoddle Garden.

NO STRENGTH IN OLD NOTIONS

Made Made by Southern Baptists to Find Ground for Compromise on Doctrinal Differences, Looking to Church Unity.

BY D. V. FRANCIS

NEW YORK, June 2.—(Special to The Bee.)—While the Young Men's Christian Association did not need President Taft's defense from the charge of making "mollycoddles" of boys and young men, it is gratifying nevertheless to have the president of the United States speak so unequivocally of the splendid work which is being done by this great organization.

Compromise on Doctrine.

The action of the Southern Baptist convention in appointing a committee to confer with other denominations to see if some agreement could not be reached on doctrinal differences is in line with the general trend of church unification along certain lines.

Sunday School Convention.

More than 100 representative men and women of North America will be heard at the International Sunday school convention, San Francisco, June 30 to July 1, on the value and method of Christian education for the youth and the adult.

Catholic Seminary for Missionaries.

At the annual meeting of Catholic archbishops, just held, the decision was made to establish as soon as possible a seminary for the training of American young men who volunteer for foreign mission fields.

First Time West of Rockies.

This International convention is the third to be held, the first west of the Rocky mountains. Represented in it are

Sales to America, and to the Russian country seat on Long Island. The Rawsons are a caste-proud lot, and the amusement is looked upon with the utmost favor, since the name "DeSelle" suggests Norman-French ancestry, and the family "must be well off."

Plays Strong Part at the Gayety This Week.

"The Melting Pot" tells the story of a young Russian Jew, David Quixano, who emigrated to America after witnessing the massacre of his mother, father, brothers and sisters in the pogrom at Kishineff. David is an accomplished musician—an idealist, as well. He dreams of a great new America, where Irishmen and Englishmen, Frenchmen and Germans, Russian and Jew will melt and reform, forget and put behind their feuds and vendettas and hold out their hands toward the republic of man.

SAYS WEST IS RICH IN CROPS

Results of Exhibits Made Here at the Last Show Most Convincing Argument for Their Repetition.

"Never did the west have greater crop prospects," declared W. O. Paisley of the Omaha Land show on his return to Omaha, Saturday morning.

Mr. Paisley has been through Wyoming, Utah, Colorado and Idaho, where he has been representing the interests of the Omaha show. Everywhere, he declares, he found prosperity for the farmers.
