

UNIFORM PLAN FOR SCHOOLS

Plans and Specifications by Latenser Approved in Committee.

RADICAL DEPARTURE IS MADE

First Floor Will Include Play Room and Lunch Rooms—Basement is Eliminated—To Be Erected in Units.

Plans and specifications for a uniform system of public school buildings in the city were approved by the committee on public grounds and buildings of the Board of Education Friday afternoon.

The plans were drawn by John Latenser, architect, pursuant to a resolution passed by the board more than two months ago.

Many radical departures are outlined in the new plans. The most striking of these changes is that which eliminates the basement entirely.

The placing of what is called the organized play room on the first floor is highly commended by the members of the board.

This room will be eighty-two feet wide and run the entire length of the building.

The plans are so drawn that buildings of four, eight, twelve and sixteen rooms can be built under the same plan.

Two new buildings, the Castellar school at Eighteenth and Castellar streets and the Central Park school at Forty-second and Saratoga streets, will be erected under the new plans.

Commencement exercises of the Bellevue College Normal school were held in the Presbyterian church of Bellevue Friday evening.

On Tuesday, June 6, at 11 a. m. occurs the annual meeting of the board of trustees in Clarke hall.

From 10 a. m. to 3 p. m. Wednesday, the library and laboratory will be thrown open to visitors.

The last event of the week will be the president's reception at Rankin hall.

SAILOR'S BELL-BOTTOMED PANTS CAUSE STAMPEDE

Jack o' Tar's Debut in Glad White Hat Completes Deception to Street Crowd.

The report that a harem skirt was going down the street upon the trim figure of a beautiful maiden brought a curious few down Douglas street early Saturday morning.

In an attempt to get a closer view of the Omaha maid who would dare to venture on the street in such an attire, the peace was quickened.

The supposed daring maid, heard the crowd in the rear and turned quickly around and exhibited a face with a pipe in it and a couple of days' growth of whiskers.

After suffering many years with a sore, Anos King, Port Byron, N. Y., was cured by Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

County Board Lets Its Advertising Without Asking for Bids

Lynch Objects to Railroad Scheme Through Without Competition from Other Papers.

Without competition or bids of any kind being asked for, the four democratic members of the Board of County Commissioners Saturday morning made the Evening World-Herald the official paper of Douglas county.

John C. Lynch cast the only dissenting vote, wholly objecting to the resolution as an effort to throttle competition.

The county clerk was instructed to advertise that the board would sit as a board of equalization for a period not to exceed twenty days, beginning June 11, to consider complaints on the 1911 assessment.

LYNCH MAKES STRONG CHARGE

Accuses O'Connor of Offering Job for a Whitewash.

Lynch Asserts He Can Substantiate Statement by Member of Investigating Committee to Whom Offer Was Made.

John C. Lynch, county commissioner, created a sensation in the committee of the whole Friday afternoon, when he charged Thomas O'Connor with having offered Joe Johnson all of the county plumbing for next year, provided he would whitewash the investigation of the plumbing at the county hospital, as a member of the investigating committee.

Lynch asserted that he can prove it by no less a person than Joe Johnson himself that the offer was actually made.

Joe Johnson, who is manager of the Western Plumbing and Heating company, was made a member of an investigating committee by A. C. Engel to look into the charges of exorbitance and overcharging material in the bill brought for the month of March for the county hospital by Fischer & Connel.

The committee returned a report highly unfavorable to Fischer & Connel at a meeting of the board last Saturday and the bill was cut 25 per cent.

With the cut the matter of the plumbing bill was supposedly dropped for good by the board, but Lynch is still working on other alleged leaks at the county hospital, which he charges to the charge of Commissioner O'Connor, and through some turn of discussion the plumbing bill, naturally a sore spot, came up again.

BABY HIPPO GETS SPECIAL CARE AT THE NATIONAL ZOO

Young Miss of 850 Pounds Received with Much Attention by the Government.

A fine young female hippopotamus from East Africa (Hippopotamus amphibius) is the latest addition to the National Zoological park in Washington.

Miss Hippo, as she is called by some of the keepers, arrived at the zoo on Friday, May 13, and Sunday she was the center of attraction to the thousands of visitors.

The hippopotamus is the species which inhabit the rivers and lakes of Africa south of the Sahara.

Miss Hippo has the best accommodations offered at the zoo. Zoologically speaking, her apartment corresponds to a room and private bath in a hotel.

ALUMNI WIDELY SCATTERED

Omaha High School Graduates Found in Many Lands.

THEY PLAN FOR A REUNION

Function Will Be Held at Field Club Monday, June Nineteenth, for Gathering of the Former Day Students.

With interested members in three foreign countries, Alaska, the Philippines and practically every state in the union, following all the regular lines of occupation and many unusual pursuits, the Omaha High School Alumni association can truly claim to be international in scope and varied in membership.

Even a woman down at Coney Island, Miss Maude E. Kimball of the class of 1894, is included in the roster.

Prominent soldiers and sailors under the Stars and Stripes also are proud to count themselves former students of the local high school.

Wallace Cadet Taylor of the class of 1891, is a colonel of Philippine constabulary, although temporarily located in California.

One of the most active workers in the reorganization of the Alumni association was Wirt Thompson.

Many known local newspaper men also count an Omaha high school course among their education assets.

No expense has been spared by the owners of the clubs in the two major leagues to make the season one of the greatest in the history of base ball.

Following are some of the other attorneys who claim Omaha as their high school Alma mater.

Hear Call of Class Room.

A number of the alumni have risen to positions of prominence in the nation's corps of university professors.

Miss May Copeland, '96; Nathan Bernstein, '98; Miss Lydia McCann, '98; Miss Eunice Stebbins, '98; Miss Carrie O. Brown, '98; Miss Jessie Towne, '98; Miss Abby Brown, '98; Miss Florence McHugh, '98; Miss Helen Mackin, '98; Miss Helen Brandeis, '98; Miss Jeanette Monroe Wallace, '98; Miss Zora Shields, '98; Miss Pearl Rockefeller, '98.

One of the comparatively few business women of Omaha is Miss Theodora Borglum of the Delta Tau chapter.

Many local business men proudly claim graduation or former attendance at the old school on the hill.

These and many other well known graduates are organized together with Samuel W. Reynolds, '96, as president, to make this year's reunion of the Alumni association the biggest in its history.

CITY TO MANDAMUS ROADS

Will Force Construction of Bancroft Street Viaduct.

PAPERS ARE DRAWN SATURDAY

Railroads Did Not Begin Work on June 1, as Ordered, and Now the Courts Will Be Used to Compel Them.

Mandamus proceedings to compel the Union Pacific, Chicago Great Western, Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroads, and the Omaha Grain and Terminal association to build the Bancroft street viaduct will be started in district court either Monday or Tuesday.

John A. Bine, city attorney, and W. C. Lambert, assistant city attorney, drew the papers Saturday morning and the petition will be filed early next week.

By the ordinance passed by the city council, those railroads were ordered to begin work and were given until June 1 to begin actual construction.

The plans and specifications, as drawn by the city engineer and approved by the council, call for a permanent viaduct along Bancroft street from Twenty-seventh street to a point near Thirtieth street.

WIFE BEATER IS RELEASED

Has Been in Jail Four Months for Failure to Furnish Bonds to Keep Peace.

An echo of the famous James Jardine Reed murder trial of some years ago was heard in district court Saturday morning when David Baker, one of the jurors in that case, came up before Judge Estelle on a charge of wife beating, having been confined in the county jail since February 9 unable to furnish peace bonds of $200.

"Why I know that man well," said James P. English, county attorney, when the prisoner faced the court. "He was a juror in the Reed case, and I remember him because, although he had served a short term in the penitentiary himself, he helped Reed there on a life sentence."

With the county attorney approving, and taking into consideration the fact that Baker had been in jail since February 9, Judge Estelle released him on the recognizance of his brother, Fred Baker.

101 Years Old--Hale, Hearty and Vigorous

Mr. W. B. Yohn Is a Remarkable Old Man. He Has Lived a Very Active Life, but at This Advanced Age Still Retains His Health and Strength.

William B. Yohn, of 123 North Seventh Street, Reading, Penn., celebrated the one hundred and first anniversary of his birth on May 4. Mr. Yohn was born in 1810, and recalls many of the country's early struggles along the frontier. In 1837 he at various times a miller, constable deputy sheriff and auctioneer. Notwithstanding his vigorous life, he looks and feels as fine as his photo shows.

Mr. Yohn attributes a considerable part of his wonderful length of life to the fact that he has been constantly using Duff's Pure Malt Whiskey, which has been constantly used by him whenever he felt the need of a tonic stimulant. In a letter to a friend recently he said, in part:

"I was 101 years of age May 4th, having been born in 1810. For a good many years I have used Duff's Pure Malt Whiskey, with very fine results. I always feel much better and stronger after using it. I attribute my long life to the use of pure liquors taken moderately all my life. As a medicine I could recommend nothing better than Duff's Pure Malt Whiskey."

When men and women pass the age of sixty they need a remedy that will quicken the circulation, bring restful sleep, invigorate the brain and prevent decay. Duff's Pure Malt Whiskey is the only agent that will produce these happy results. It improves the digestion and assimilation of the food and gives tone and vitality to every organ in the body. It has been used with remarkable results in the prevention and cure of all throat, lung and stomach troubles and all wasting and diseased conditions. It is invaluable for overworked men, delicate women and sickly children; makes the old feel young and the young strong and vigorous. It is recognized as a family medicine and prescribed by physicians everywhere. Sold in sealed bottles only by all druggists, grocers and dealers, or direct, $1.00 per bottle. Medical certificates, testimonials, also Dr. Yohn's advice sent free to any one who writes The Duff's Pure Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. Y.

WILLIAM B. YOHN went to Reading, and has resided there with his family ever since. Since 1846 he has resided in the same house, which he built for his own use.
