HIGGINS DROPS TWO TO DENVER

Des Moines Puts Up a Poor Exhibition of Base Ball in Second Game.

DENVER, June 4.—The Des Moines team played poor ball and lost both games today to Denver, the first game, 13 to 3, and the second, 14 to 1. The second game on Des Moines' part was the poorest base ball ever witnessed on the local grounds. O'Brien pitched both games and the visitors were unable to do anything with his delivery.

CREIGHTON JUNIORS TRIUMPH

Swamp Other Classmen in First Track Meet in History of School.

ROLL UP FORTY-TWO POINTS

Fourth High Team to Second, with Thirteen, and Freshmen Come Third, with Twelve—Festner Gets High Score.

In the first track meet in which Creighton college athletes ever competed, the junior class grabbed the silver trophy cup and first honors with 42 points. The next competitor was the Fourth High class with 13, then came the Freshman College class with 12 points, and the Third High a close fourth with 11 credits. Second High collected 9, First High 7, and Specials 5.

Julius Festner of the Junior class took first individual place and won the individual cup with 14 points, with Duffy of the Third High and O'Connor of the Juniors tied for second honors, with 10 points each.

Festner Good Point Getter.

Festner won first in the running broad jump, second in the standing broad jump, the shot put and the high jump, all field events. Duffy won first places in the 100-yard and the 220-yard dashes, making a time of 0:10⅘ for the 100-yard distance.

O'Connor was the distance man, winning first in the mile and one-half mile.

The meet was the first ever held and consequently the records made will hardly stand when the track athletes of the school meet again after a year's training. Enthusiasm is high in the school and it is likely that a good track squad will be developed before two years, as there is plenty of material. The results:

100-yard dash: Duffy, Third High, first; Lamphier, Juniors, second; Burns, First High, third. Time: 0:10⅘.

220-yard dash: Duffy, Third High, first; Burns, First High, second; Ed Smythe, Second High, third. Time: 0:26⅘.

440-yard run: Murphy, Fourth High, first; Clarke, first high, second; Norris, Juniors, third. Time: 1:03⅘.

880-yard run: O'Connor, Juniors, first; McGuire, Second High, second; Moore, Juniors, third. Time: 2:36.

Mile run: O'Connor, Juniors, first; Moore, Juniors, second; R. Connell, Juniors, third. Time: 5:45⅘.

12-pound shot put. Tamisea, Fourth High, first; Festner, Juniors, second; Young, Freshman, third. Distance: 37 feet, 1 inch.

High jump: McGuire, Second High, first; Festner, Juniors, second; Hamilton, Fourth High, third. Height: 5 feet, 3½ inches.

Standing broad jump: Deringer, Freshman, first; Festner, Juniors, second; L. Ryan, Freshman, third. Distance: 9 feet 3¼ inches.

Running Broad jump: Festner, Juniors, first; L. Ryan, Freshman, second; Murphy, Fourth High, third. Distance: 18 feet, 4 inches.

60-yard hurdles: Gouvreau, Special, first; Morris, Juniors, second; H. Connell, Juniors, third. Time: 0:11⅘.

Relay race: Juniors team composed of Lamphier, Miller, Tobin and Festner, first; Freshman team, second; Fourth High team, third.

Tug-of-War: Freshman and Fourth High teams pulled Juniors and Seniors over line.

DIETZ TEAM TOO STRONG FOR ROD AND GUN CLUB

Former Administers Defeat to the Tune of Twenty-One to Five.

Two Carter Lake ball clubs came to combat Saturday afternoon and when the smoke and steam cleared away the Dietz club had walloped the Omaha Rod and Gun club, 21 to 5. The Dietz warriors were too strong in batting for the Gun club twirlers and twenty-one hits resulted.

McLean, Hall, Drummy and Speilman did great work for the Dietz in batting, while Eisenhart, the Dietz pitcher, allowed only seven hits and fanned the hoodoo number thirteen.

Saturday the Dietz will play the Burlington Headquarters. Score:

Dietz	1	0	6	3	1	0	3	7	*	—21
Rod and Gun	0	0	0	4	1	0	0	0	0	—5

Batteries: Dietz, Eisenhart and Hachten; Rod and Gun: Fletcher and Yost. Hits: Dietz, 21; Rod and Gun, 7. Errors: Dietz 2; Rod and Gun, 8. Struck out: By Eisenhart, 13; by Fletcher, 2. Bases on balls: Off Fletcher, 2.

John Paul Jones is Best Mile Runner

Cornell Lad Only Living Man with Chance to Lower Professional Record.

ITHACA, N. Y., Jue 4.—Another John Paul Jones has written his name in letters of gold on history's pages—John Paul Jones, student and athlete, of Cornell college, Ithaca, N. Y.

The Jones of today has proved himself the premier mile runner of the world and his name has become a household word wherever the great American press has entry.

John Paul Jones is a mere youth, just turned 20 years. He weighs 145 pounds. It is not so many years ago that his family physician in Washington, his home town, looked at him sorrowfully, felt his pulse, tested his lungs and shook his head hopelessly. "He hasn't many months of life," was the doctor's verdict. An athletic course of treatment was suggested, and this peerless athlete of today bears little resemblance to the stooped-over, hollow-cheeked weakling of a short time ago.

Jones is the only man in the world today that looms up as having a possible chance to lower this professional record.

DAD CLARKE OUT FOR GOOD

Famous Old Pitcher Dies from Stroke of Paralysis.

WON OMAHA'S FIRST PENNANT

Was Star on Team in '89, '90 and '91, and Afterwards Pitched for the New York Giants.

Here passes one of the veterans of the game, a man whose name will be recalled by the older fans, and always with pleasure, for "Dad" Clarke was a pitcher of those good old days of base ball to which all cling so fondly. His passing is thus briefly told by an Associated Press dispatch received at The Bee office last night:

LORAIN, O., June 3.—William Clarke, well known to base ball followers years ago as "Dad" Clarke, pitcher of the New York Nationals, died in a hospital here today from a stroke of paralysis suffered several days ago on the street.

"Dad" Clarke pitched for Omaha in 1889, under the management of Frank Selee, and with Charlie Nichols, he was the cause of the pennant coming to Omaha, the team winning the championship of the Western league in decisive fashion. Just before the season closed, Clarke was released, that he might join the San Francisco team, which needed help. The pennant was safe for Omaha, and so "Dad" journeyed to the coast and by his wonderful work pitched San Francisco into the championship of the Coast league. This is perhaps the only time on record when one pitcher was a factor in winning two pennants in different leagues in the same season.

Two More Seasons Here.

In 1890 and 1891 Clarke was again a member of the Omaha team, and with Eddie Eiteljorg was the mainstay of the celebrated Danny Shannon bunch that was leading the race when the season exploded in the latter year. His last game for Omaha was pitched against the Lincoln team, on which were such celebrities as Jesse Burkett, Jack Rowe, Dave Rowe, Harry Raymond, Hank O'Day, Red Ehret, Parke Wilson, "Monkey" Kline and others whose names are famous in the annals of base ball, and who were unable to score a run off "Dad" that day.

From Omaha he went east, and turned up the next year on the New York Giants, for whom he did much excellent service and with whom he spent a couple of seasons. It was while he was with the New Yorks that he got his revenge on "Pop" Anson of Chicago. Before Dad ever came to Omaha he had hired to Anson as a pitcher for Chicago. Anson watched him pitch part of an inning and then chased him.

"Get out of here!" roared Anson, as he hustled Dad off the field. "You couldn't even pitch hay!"

Struck Anson Out.

Dad remembered this, and the first time he faced Anson, and it was on the Chicago grounds, he saluted him with some reflection on his ancestry. Anyone whoever listened to Dad in one of his explosive moods need not be told just what he said. He had a most picturesque vocabulary, and was never at loss for an epithet, for he coined them as readily as he needed them. Along with one of his most minutely descriptive and offensively objurgative verbal outbursts, Dad shot the ball at Anson, and the latter in surprise let it go by. It was a strike. Dad grinned, and sent up another, with another round of abuse. Anson let it go by, and it was a strike, too. Then Dad was beside himself with glee. He danced around the box, calling on all the catalogued gods and some unknown to watch him strike out the great slugger, and then he turned to the plate.

"Here, you blinkety-blank double-blanked Swede, see if you can hit this," he shouted, and he shot a straight one over.

Anson waited, and swung with all his force and missed, and Dad had his revenge. He had struck out the great Anson, the man who told him he couldn't pitch. And what is more, he did it twice in that game.

Anson Gets Even.

But Anson got back at Dad on the Polo grounds a little later in the season. Dad was pitching and New York had Chicago beaten. Two Chicago runners were on bases and two runs needed to tie. Anson was coaching at third base, and as Clarke was getting ready to pitch, he called to him, "Here, let me see that ball." Without thinking Dad shouted, "Take it, you——" (the same kind of a Swede he had called him in Chicago), and flung the ball with all his force. Anson stepped to one side, the ball went into the bleachers and two Chicago runs came in.

In 1901 Dad pitched for Minneapolis in the Western league and made his last appearance in Omaha with that team. He won his game here, visited with some old friends and went away. His habits were those of the older class of ball players, and he saved nothing from his pay. At various times during the last ten years he has been heard of in connection with smaller teams, but he had not been prominent with the game. Frank Bandle and some of the others
