TOTS KIDNAPED AT NIGHT Twelve Graduates Detention Home Broken Into and Two Children Stolen. MOTHER OF CHILDREN MISSING

Police and Juvenile Court Officers Are Not Able to Get Any Trace of the Little Ones Girl Held at Station.

The Detention home was broken into at 4 o'clock Tuesday morning and two children which had been placed there Monday of the diocese of Nebraska of the Episcopal by the juvenile officers stolen. The missing tots are Melba Tucker, 2 years old, and her 5-year-old brother, Harry. No trace of them had been found up to noon, although the police and the juvenile officers had been diligently searching for them.

The mother of the children is Mrs. Emma Tucker, who resides on Leavenworth street. near Twenty-second street, and is employed on a mangle machine in the Model laundry. During the absence of the mother at work the children had been cared for by Lena. Milback, a country girl from LaPlatte, Neb., who has been living with Mrs. Tucker since coming to Omaha in search of employment several weeks ago. Joseph Tucker, father of the children, is a roofer and the police say he has been separated from his wife for some time. He is at present employed in Council Bluffs, where he resides, but invariably visited his children every Sunday.

Not Properly Cared For. Recently the juvenile officers were notified that the little ones were not being properly cared for and Monday the officers took the children from the house and placed them temporarily in the Detention home. Immediately after the officers had left with the children the Milback girl asserts she notified the mother learned the proper meaning of life. The commencement exercises included a shurch service at St. Mathias'. The graduates, their schoolmates, the teachers, Miss Marsden, principal, and the ministers who officiated, formed the processional line at the hall at 10:30 o'clock. To the strains of a hymn they marched into the church and the service was conducted by Rev. James Noble, pastor of St. Mathias'

"What constitutes the Highest Calling in Life?" was the topic of the talk of Rev. J. A. Tancock, dean of Trinity cathedral, who addressed the class.

"The noblest calling is to be an interpreter," he declared. "You ask yourself what brings that look of power, of nobleness to one face in a thousand. It is be cause that man is God's interpreter. "Darwin, Wordsworth, Edison, St. Paul and St. John were all interpreters of life to the many people.
