the Charges Against the Detective.

After deliberating one hour last evening the coroner's jury, which heard the testimony at the inquest into the kfiling of Wiltiam Metz at Sixteenth and Chicago streets Saturday night, returned a verdict finding Detective Wooldridge responsible for the man's death and recommending that he be held to answer for the crime.

The entire matter is now up to County Attorney James P. English, who stated last night that he would file a complaint a, inst Wooldridge today, making the charge either murder in the second degree or manslaughter.

The taking of testimony consumed over our hours, during which time over thirty witnesses who were present at the killing. Hearing in Suit Against Alleged Trust were witnessed. The prepanderance of the testimony went to show there was no provocation for the shooting and seven witnesses swore positively that the detective was visibly infoxicated when he shot point blank at Metz, who was returning home to his wife and bables after a hard day's work.

Brotherhood Demands Inquiry.

The killing of William Mets by Detective Wooldridge at Sixteenth and Chicago street Saturday night has been taken up by the Omaha members of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen and the officers of the organization in this city will demand a thorough investigation into the circumstances of the shooting.
