COUNTY EQUALIZERS MEET

Assessor Joins in Board of Equalization, with Fickard Chairman.

REAL ESTATE RETURNS READY

Increase of Over Three Million Dollars is Shown for the County—Personal List is Nearly Ready.

The county commissioners met Tuesday morning and organized themselves as a board of equalization with W. G. Shriver, county assessor, as a member. The board will sit for twenty days. Oscar J. Fickard was elected chairman. The assessor's returns for real estate were ready, but as the personal list had not been reached the board adjourned until the afternoon. Douglas county real estate, according to the assessor's figures, shows the substantial increase in actual value over last year of $3,000,000. Assessed on the basis of 20 per cent of the actual value the proceeds show in comparison with last year as follows:

	1911	1910
Omaha	$18,048,887	$15,487,104
Benning	82,838	49,379
Chicago	334,000	331,500
Douglas	306,474	322,313
Dundee	41,314	27,745
East Omaha	38,967	38,388
Elkhorn	21,541	20,315
Flora	22,138	20,111
Jefferson	272,700	271,285
Meade	302,782	300,777
Millard	254,419	254,229
Union	260,762	261,713
Valentine	229,073	229,554
Waverly	12,713	11,710
South Omaha	2,857,410	2,850,230
Total	$21,542,101	$21,947,790

Meeting as county commissioners the board unanimously voted to reconsider the claim of George McElroy, Jr., for 12 1/2c in wages as an inspector, which was dismissed several weeks ago, and allowed the claim. Young McElroy was shifted from the office of his father, the county surveyor, to temporarily fill the position of Frank McElroy during a sickness of the latter that lasted for a period of fourteen days.

Mr. McBride explained that he had in reality saved the county money by the change, as the work at that time was light and no man was employed in his son's place.

Crawford Prepares for a Big Frontier Celebration in July

Arah Hungerford Closes Deal with Baysdorfer Brothers of Omaha to Exhibit with Aeroplane.

Arah Hungerford of Crawford, Neb., is in Omaha arranging for concessions and events for the Quarto-Centennial Celebration and Frontier exhibition to be held at Crawford July 1, 2, 3 and 4. The exhibition will consist of chariot, Roman standing, pony and harness races, bronco busting, roping, steer throwing, etc. Colonel Dodd of Fort Robinson, with his command of over 1,000 men, with participate with military maneuvers. Mr. Hungerford just closed with Baysdorfer Bros., of Omaha for an exhibition of air flights with their aeroplanes.
