

Vacation Footwear For Children

Vacation days are hard on children's shoes—how hard every mother knows. Shoes for summer playtime must be strong, while they are comfortable. They must be shoes to stand the wear and tear of lake-shore pebbles and the sharp rocks of mountain camps; of the damp grasses of yard and field and the mud of river banks.

Your boys and girls will be "everywhere" this summer, scampering over all sorts of places—heedless of results so far as footwear is concerned.

For their own comfort, and your own peace of mind, the children must be well shod. We are especially well prepared to protect them and you against vacation shoe troubles.

Makers and Jobbers Exhibit Wares at Des Moines Convention.

FIGHT OVER PAROLE LAW

State Board Will Not Admit that Judges Have Right Under Statute to Limit Sentences.

DES MOINES, June 14.—(Special Telegram.)—The State Association of Jewelers, in session in the Coliseum, brought to the city the finest display of ever assembled any state association meeting. Manufacturers and jobbers are in rivalry for the most brilliant exhibitions of their wares and diamonds and fine jewelry worth a vast sum is on display. It has been decided that the association will come to Des Moines again next year for the convention.

Howard Carpenter, sales manager of the Rockford Watch company, talked on the subject, "Tact, Its Importance in the Business World." Discussions followed and then a talk on the subject, "Time and Its Tendencies," by George B. Irving of Chicago. Joe Goldstone of Bennett talked on the subject, "The Country Jeweler's Battle." Louis Trech of Durand on Taking in Repairing, and C. R. Runkle of Lisbon on "Cost of Doing Business in the Smaller Towns."

F. W. Heron of Omaha, president of the Royal Indemnity company, opened the afternoon session with an address on the subject, "The Model Salesman." In every respect the convention is the best ever had by the jewelers.

Golden Jubilee is Still Drawing Big Crowds to Yankton

Indians and Bullet Pierced Stage Coach Typical of Pioneer Days Attract Attention of All.

YANKTON, S. D., June 14.—(Special Telegram.)—Dakota's Golden Jubilee continued to draw crowds of pioneer settlers to Yankton. A great civic and Indian parade was the main attraction today. An old stage coach that was 90 years old before the territory was organized, half a century ago, was in the procession. It has kept on going west until replaced by the steel rails. For many years it ran between Sioux City and Yankton and from here to Deadwood. It is a battle-scarred vehicle and shows on its venerable sides many punctures by bullets and even rents in its cover caused by the shafts of arrows having been attacked by hostile Indians or murderous white men.

There are more Indians, cowboys and cowgirls in Yankton than have been seen in years. With these relics of other days appear the smart rigs of today, automobiles, beautifully trimmed, firemen, and fanciful creations of business houses. In a hard fought ball game, Yankton defeated a Wagner team, drawn from the reservation country, the score being 10 to 7.

"A Mid-Summer Night's Dream," by the college, is to be given tonight in the open air on the college campus. A great hit of the week is a women's minstrel, given by fifty young society women of the town, who have produced the bones, tambos, cake-walks, skirt dances and children's dance.

The returning pioneers come from all parts of the union and Canada. Former Governor William Jayne, with his remarkable memory and unimpaired faculties, is a center of attraction, always ready to tell of the days when he was the intimate of Abraham Lincoln and was Dakota's first governor.

The remaining three days of the jubilee promise to be very busy ones and still greater crowds are expected, as many special trains have been arranged for.

Winnebago Indian Bill Reintroduced by Senator Brown

Measure Will Allow Them to Present Claims Against Government to the Court of Claims.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, June 14.—(Special Telegram.)—Senator Brown today reintroduced his bill of the last session authorizing the Winnebago tribe of Indians to submit claims to the court of claims. The bill was favorably reported to the senate during the closing hours of the last session, but was not passed upon.

Representative C. H. Sloan, who delivered the memorial address last night at the ceremonial session of the Knights of Pythias lodges of this city, was today the recipient of many congratulations from those who attended the exercises, including a number of Sloan's colleagues who are knights, and who, without any particular announcement, were in the audience. W. E. Andrews also delivered a short address and it looked as if Nebraska was running things in Pythian circles.

MEIKLE ON WITNESS STAND

to examine them. Mr. Garrett was particularly insistent upon getting information in regard to the purchase of a Baltimore refinery in 1902.

Mr. Meikle said he had never heard the report that control of it was gained through a loan by a "dummy" who represented the American Sugar Refining company.

Secretary Freeman produced the minute books of the company, showing the outright purchase of a share of the stock of the Baltimore refinery for $100,000.

"Where is the resolution showing the abandonment of the Baltimore plant?" inquired Representative Meikle.

"I am not sure there is one," replied Mr. Freeman.

Mr. Meikle said that "he did not know" whether any money had been refunded at the Baltimore plant after its purchase by the American.

Representative Garrett questioned Mr. Meikle closely about the purchase and losing of the Pennsylvania Sugar Refining company's plant at Camden, N. J.

"It was poorly located," said Mr. Meikle. "Yet you were willing to pay $750,000 cash for it."

He was unable to throw light on the transactions by which the American gained control of the Pennsylvania company. The Pennsylvania refinery, he said, was not operated after it fell into the hands of the American.

Madison is interested.

Representative Madison expressed interest in the statement that there was not much discussion of business at directors' meetings. He asked if there were not other strong men on the board besides President Havemeyer, such as John S. Brown.

Mr. Meikle said Mr. Brown was a lawyer and knew little about refining sugar. "But hasn't the American made its money out of manipulation of stock and organization of corporations, rather than out of refining sugar?" inquired Mr. Madison.

Mr. Meikle was not willing to agree to that, nor to acknowledge that stock had been watered by the American officials.

That the American company, under President Havemeyer's administration, refused the giving of information regarding the company even to stockholders was brought out.

The following resolution adopted at the stockholders' meeting January 11, 1904, was introduced:

"Resolved, That any information of a general character which the directors may be in a position to furnish to the stockholders and that no further information is to be given to the individual stockholders."

Rev. Norman Place Pleasants Gentry, BOSTON, June 14.—A check of fifty was given in the midst of his testimony in the United States district court today by Rev. Gentry, former president of the indubitable investment company, who is a trial for using the mails in furtherance of a fraudulent scheme. Charles H. Brooks, co-president, and John J. Tetterton, treasurer, pleaded guilty to "technical" mail. All three were fined instead of sentenced. It is understood.

Waldron Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Taylor, to Mr. Clement Waldron, took place Wednesday evening at the First Christian church, Rev. J. M. Kersey officiating.

The bride wore white embroidered chiffon over white satin and carried lilies of the valley. The bride's left veil was held in place by a pearl clasp, and she wore a pearl and diamond lavalier, a gift of the groom.

Miss June Greedy, maid of honor, wore yellow chiffon over yellow satin, trimmed with pearl trimmings and carried white lilies. The bridesmaids, Miss Ellen Paterson and Miss Jessie Spence, wore white chiffon over white satin with pearl trimmings and carried armfuls of greens.

After the wedding a large reception was held at the bride's home, which was decorated with greens and lilies of the valley. Games lasting throughout the soiree were: Mademoiselle M. Garrett and Miss Taylor, maid of honor; Miss Virginia Elliot, South-northern; and Miss Virginia Elliot.

After a short wedding trip east the bride and groom will return and spend a couple of weeks in Omaha, before going to their home in Beach, N. D.

An Automobile Accident AND WHAT IT COST THE AETNA LIFE

William Porter, of the New York Stock Exchange firm of Erickson, Perkins & Co., was returning to New York from his country home on May 22d with a party of friends. Just outside of Paterson, New Jersey, in avoiding a driverless horse and cart his automobile ran into a ditch and upset. His friends escaped serious injury, but Mr. Porter was crushed under the machine and died June 1st.

On Feb. 5, 1908, Mr. Porter bought a $25,000 Accumulative Accident Policy of the AETNA LIFE, on which he paid four annual premiums of $125. Under the ten per cent. yearly ACCUMULATION FEATURE the insurance increased to $32,500.

On Oct. 22, 1910, he bought a second Accumulative Accident Policy for $25,000, paying a single premium of $125.

So for $625 the AETNA LIFE on June 2d paid $57,500. Weekly indemnity and surgical operation fees added $1,107 more, making $58,607 in all.

$58,607 for $250 Annual Premium

How can an automobilist with any business foresight go a day longer without Accident Insurance? The AETNA LIFE has paid over $16,000,000 because of accidents.
