ROURKES WIN, 11 RUNS TO Catcher Arbogast Makes His Initial

> Appearance Behind the Bat in Omaha and Catches on from the Jump.

Pa Rourke's Coles had little difficulty getting away with the first game of the series with Lincoln, 11 to 2, yesterda afternoon, atlhough it was played between showers. The game was called in the mid die of the eighth inning on account of darkness. Knapp, who was on th emound for the Antelopes, was found at will and hammered around the fleld for a total of

Hall was right and his mysterious wrinkies fabergasted the boys from the capital. Even after the ball had been soaked with water he refused to let up and ten men dled by the strikeout route, Cockman, Lincoln's third sacker, pounded the wind every time at bat, never getting even a

Arbogast made his initial appearance before the Omaha bugs and immediately made good by pounding out a two-bagger the first time at bat. Five of the Antelopes tried to steal, but only one managed to get away with the second sack, This lucky individual was Cole. Arbogast possesses a wing which will prove a terror to the would-be base stealers this season and is a handy man at the bat. Stratton had an off day and five of the Rourkes pilfered second.

Unglaub Switches to First. Manager Unglaub of Lincoln changed his position to first base and Thomas was not in the lineup, uDndon is holding down Ungiaub's old position on second, playing a good game at that station, nI the middle of the second inning the game was called for five minutes because of rain. Again in the fourth inning it was called and the allotted halfhour was almost up when it stopped raining so that the game could continue. However, it was so dark that the ball could hardly be seen by Lincoln opened the game like a winner. After Gagnier flew out to King, Unglaub singled to right. Cole followed with a long single to right and Unglaub scored. Cole stole second, but died there.

Omaha falled to score in the first, but Schoonover opened the second with a double to right. King drew a page. Niehoff sacrificed. Kneaves singled to left. scoring Schoonover and Niehoff. The second game this afternoon. Here's oping. Arbogast looks like the real goods. He nade a successful debut yesterday. For awhite the grounds had the appearance of a bathing pool in some spots. Williams is without a doubt the "ladies" nan." Hit batting will win him a home

George Clark is back in Omaha again, and kept the boys going as fast as possible between showers,

"Bob" Unglaub plays some game at first base and made a couple of stops which were of the grandstand class.

Something was the matter with the Antelopes. They seemed dopy and could not get any life into their playing. Nothing seems to get by Williams. He ran up almost to first base and then got the ball after a lunge into the air.

Hall sure had the Antelopes eating out of his hand yesterday. In one inning they went down by the strikeout route.

Kneaves played a snappy game at short and his noise kept the boys full of "pop." He is sure rounding into some shortstop. Evidently the Nebraska weather agrees with the Rourkes, for they played a spirited game and kept at it all the time. Pick drove a bail against the centerfield fence which looked like a homer, but the wet grounds only allowed him to get as far as second.

Lincoln tried hard to get that game called in the fourth before it was too late for the Rourkes to get the credit. Try another stunt, Bob. Although Knapp was found for twelve its up to the sixth inning, Unglaub did of deam it wise to jork him. Evidently a thought it was useless.
