Omaha and Lincoln in Seventeen-Inning 2-to-2 Tie; Cubs Win, Giants Lose

SEVENTEEN TRIES LEAVE SCORE TIE

Darkness Comes on and Umpire Calls Lincoln-Omaha Game in Seventeenth Inning.

BULLETIN STANDS TWO TO TWO

Omaha Had Game Tucked Away Until the Eighth Inning.

KNEAVES MAKES COSTLY ERROR His Botchery Helps Lincolnites to Chalk Up Two Runs.

PITCHERS PERFORM STEADILY

However, it Was Fine Game, Filled with Startling Stunts, Fine Catches, Circus Plays and Much Noise.

For seventeen innings Omaha and Lincoln battled Saturday and then darkness ame on with the score locked at 2 to 2 It was a game filled with starling stops. sensational catches, circus stunts and much noise. Even J. Pluvius had a hand the game, stopping the play for a while after the eighth inning.

Robinson, the new pitcher, acquired from Toledo, made his debut before Omaha fans, and before the game was ended he was heralded as the coming terror to all Western league batters. Wolverton, who was on the firing line for the Antelopes, was there also and pitched a game equally as good as his opponent. Robinson struck out fourteen men, while the Antelope flinger downed thirteen in the same manner Eleven hits went to Lincoln and ten to the Rourkes. Omaha had the game cinched until the eighth inning when Stratton and Welverton each appropriated a hit and Kneaves donated the two men a tally each by making a poor heave to Kane, which tied the score.

After the fatal eighth no more runs wer made. Both pitchers settled down to the game and used every possible twister on the roster to mystify the batter. Strange to say, as the game progressed the more whisked across the pan. In the fourteenth inning, when it seemed that comething should happen. Robinson struck out three men in a row.

Not satisfied with the way his change worked Friday, Unglaub went back to sec-ond base and shoved Thomas in his old place at first.

Robinson Got His Angora-At the bat he was just as much a terror as ever to the pitcher, but Robinson got his "goat" in the eighth. Two men were on bass and none out when Gagnier suc cumbed to a strikeout. When Unglaub came to bat a groan went through the stands. But it was then that Robinson got busy and the mighty Unglaub fanned the breezes three times running.

The game was about as evenly divided as one possibly could be. Wolverton passed five men, Robinson two. A difference of strikeouts were fourteen and thirteen; the for Sloux City. Score: errors three to one. Omaha stole two bases, while Lincoln got three. In the eleventh it looked like Omaha's game Williams went out on a grounder. A h aplece put Schoonover and King on base and then Niehoff walked. Wolverton set tled and struck out Kneaves, and Arbo Lincoln had two men on bases i the twelfth with but one out and seeme good for a run, when Gagnier hit into double, retiring the side, No runs were made by either side uni the third. Omaha made two. Robinson singled to right. Pick pushed him to se end with a single to the opposite side the field. Kane singled to right and Ro inson scored. Pick went to third. A sacr fice fly by Schoonover to McCormic scored Pick.

In the eighth Lincoln came back ar deadlocked the score. Stratton singled right. Wolverton got to first on an i field hit and Stratton went to second, passed ball by Arbogast gave each ma another base. Cole hammered a nice or to Kneaves, who made a poor throw Kane. Stratton and Wolverton bo romped home on the error. Score: OMAHA.
