

HEAVY EGG SUPPLY IS STORED

Every Cold Storage House in Omaha is Filled to Capacity.

EXPERTS WILL INVESTIGATE

Dr. Mary Pennington, Chief of Food Research Department of Government, Will Arrive in Omaha in a Short Time.

Experts for the government who are to conduct research into the conditions for storing eggs will find an unprecedented condition in Omaha.

Dr. Mary Pennington, chief of the food research department of the government, will arrive in Omaha within a short time to conduct the investigation.

Dr. Pennington has conducted similar inquiries at Atlantic, La., and at Memphis, Tenn. It was she who discovered that the best egg for cold storage purposes is the April product, instead of that which comes later in the summer.

Affections of Wife Are Valued at $500

Jury Decides Henning Gustafson Must Pay That Amount to John Parsons.

John Parsons' wife's affections were worth $500, according to a verdict returned Tuesday morning in Judge Beare court.

FORMER PRESIDENT OF CITY COUNCIL IS MARRIED

Quietly Comes to Town and Falls to Notify His Many Friends Here.

Edgar P. Davis, president of the city council from 1888 to 1896, and president of the Davis & Cowgill Iron Works at that time, and one of Omaha's old timers, surreptitiously "put on one" on his many old friends here by slipping into town last week and quietly getting married.

His bride was Mrs. Anne Richhart of Neola, Ia., erstwhile widow of John P. Richhart, a prominent South Omaha and publisher of the first Stock Journal there, "The Hoop and Horn" in 1873.

They wished to be married by Judge Sutton, but as the judge is in favor of marriage by a man of the cloth whenever possible, Dean Hancock was called in and the ceremony was performed in the court room.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis left for Leavenworth, Mo., where they expect to make their home, shortly after the ceremony.

M. E. SMITH SALESMEN GATHER

One Hundred Are Here for the Annual Meeting—Will Picnic at Sarpy Mills.

Every salesman of the M. E. Smith company is attending a convention at the office of the company, where the affairs of the trade are being discussed.

The first session was held this morning. The last formal meeting will take place Thursday afternoon. On Saturday afternoon the salesmen will picnic at Sarpy Mills, when a program of "stunts" of various sorts will be presented.

Ward M. Burgess, vice president of the company, presided at the meeting and A. C. Smith welcomed the salesmen. Addresses upon subjects of the trade were delivered by L. E. Clough and J. R. Scobitt, the former speaking on blankets, carpets and draperies, and the latter on prints and ginghams.

CAMPBELL GOES TO ST. PAUL

Head of the Omaha Publicity Bureau Lured to the North by a Larger Pay Check.

The resignation of Will A. Campbell as director of the publicity bureau of the Commercial club has been accepted by the publicity committee, of which C. C. Rosewater is chairman.

Mr. Campbell's new headquarters will be in St. Paul. He will leave July 15. It is expected that the vacancy in the publicity bureau will be filled within ten days, as several applications have been made for the place.

F. S. Restford, 616 New York Life Bldg., Kansas City, Mo., says: "I had a severe attack of a cold which settled in my back and kidneys and I was in great pain from my trouble. A friend recommended Foley Kidney Pills and I used two bottles of them and they have done me a world of good." For sale by all druggists.
