MANY A MAN WHO HAS TAKEN for granted that there was no work in the navy he would like, on investigation has found more agreeable work there than in civil life. This is because there is such a great variety of positions in the navy. A man may find work as seamn, machinist, fireman, stenographer, bookkeeper, musician, carpenter, blacksmith, ship fitter, electrician, boiler maker, cook, steward or waiter. If he knows a trade, he can enter at higher pay: if he doesn't, he can entist as apprentice seaman.

Navy life is healthy, the work pleasant, opportunity for promotion and for saving money excellent, and change to learn by study and travel unequaled. Association with men of good character and ambition makes navy life a wholesome, heipful environment.

The Navy department never urges men to enlist, only to investigate navy opportunities. It is worth the while of any man 47 to 25 years of age to look into the subject of taking four pears' training in the navy or of making the navy his life's work.

Call at Navy Recruiting Station, P. O. Bidg., Omaha, Neb., and ask all the questions you wish, or send for interesting free book, 'The Making of a Man o' Warsman,' or address, Bureau of Navigation, Box 209, Navy Department, Washington, D. C.
