Don't let the warm weather overcome your determination to win one of the prizes.

High School boys and girls will find in this contest an opportunity to make a lot of money in addition to winning one of the big prizes.

Read the rules and instructions carefully and secure nomination at once. Come to The Bee office—Bee Want Tad, Editor, will help you start right.

10% COMMISSION ON EVERY AD YOU GET.
Each day the ad appears counts as one vote.

REMEMBER THESE INSTRUCTIONS

Get BEE WANT ADS. Paid ads count as votes. Little ads count as much as big ones. Each day the ad appears counts as one vote, regardless of the size of the ad. For instance: A 10-line want ad for one time will count as one vote, while a 2-line ad appearing five times will count as five votes, although it cost the same as the 10-line ad run one time. So get the ad to appear as many times as possible.

At the end of the contest, August 19, 6 p. m., the one having the greatest number of votes to his or her credit, gets the first prize; the one getting the next largest number of votes gets the second prize, etc.

A little work each day, a few ads each day, will pay you well, and you will probably win a big prize in the bargain.

The Bee Pays You For All You Do

ONLY PAID WANT ADS count. On every ad you get The Bee pays you a commission of 10 per cent, whether you win a prize or not. THIS IS YOUR CONTEST AND GIVES YOU AN OPPORTUNITY TO MAKE A GREAT DEAL OF MONEY AND A GOOD CHANCE TO WIN ONE OF THE BIG PRIZES.

Get busy—start at home. There is something around the house—around every house—which can be sold; something which has no value to your folks, but would be worth a great deal to someone else. Get an ad at home first. Then go to your neighbors, they probably have a baby carriage, a bed, a couch, ice box, stove, table, chair, rug, desk, piano, phonograph, chickens, cat, dog, cow, horse, incubator or an automobile and a hundred and one other things, which will sell and bring them good money if advertised in The Bee Want Columns. Maybe your neighbor wants to rent a room, or buy something, or needs help of some kind or wants to sell their home or rent a house. Write them a Bee Want Ad, collect from them at the regular rates, 1 1/2 cents per word, if run only one time or ONE CENT A WORD IF RUN TWO OR MORE TIMES, consecutively; bring or mail the ad and the cash to BEE WANT TAD EDITOR, who will credit you with a vote each time the ad appears and pay you a commission of 10 per cent for your trouble. Remember the more times the ad appears the more votes you get.

Read the Rules Carefully

Any boy or girl under the age of 21 years is eligible, except employees of The Omaha Bee and members of their families.

Only paid want ads brought in or sent in by contestants count as votes.

Each paid want ad counts as one vote each time the ad appears. Want ads from Omaha real estate dealers and those already advertising in The Bee do not count.

All ads subject to investigation and rejection by The Bee.

Only bona fide ads will count; ads found to be of bogus address and inserted only for the purpose of getting votes will be declared void and not counted.

Cash must accompany each ad. As The Bee runs Domestic Help and Situations Wanted Ads Free, all contestants are obliged to take such ads with the same courtesy as a paid ad. Domestic help and situation wanted ads cannot be counted as votes.

No entry fee is charged. The receipt by The Bee Want Tad Editor of a nomination blank, properly filled out, constitutes sufficient entry, and counts as ten votes for the candidate. Only one nominating blank will be counted for each contestant.

Receipt books will be furnished all the contestants on application.

The Ad-Getter contest will close Saturday evening, August 19, at 6 p. m.

The standing of the contestants will be announced weekly.

The contest is limited to the following territory: Nebraska, Wyoming, Iowa and South Dakota.
