Williams & Dolliver $55,000 Bankrupt Stock

of seasonable ready-to-wear general merchandise was sold to us by the Sheriff. This firm was in business in Cincinnati, Ohio, and like a good many merchants, overbought, and when liquidation time came they could not settle with their creditors. The Sheriff was ordered by the creditors to take possession and sell to the highest bidder. We being the highest bidders, the entire stock was sold to us at less than 50 cents on the dollar. This will be the greatest celebration for the people of Omaha and surrounding country for the 4th. We place this immense stock on sale at unheard of prices.

Ladies' Brilliant Hat Pins, $1.00 values .. 25cFour Men Are Bound Over*Preliminary Hearing in Sellers Murder Case at Valentine.*CRIME WAS CAREFULLY PLANNED

Warning Given of the Purpose, but Did Not Prevent Four Ranchmen from Stringing Other to Pole.

VALENTINE, Neb., June 27.—(Special)—The preliminary hearing in the case of the State against Harry Heath, Kenneth Murphy and Alma and George Reed, charged with the murder of Charles Sellers on the ranch of Hutch Jack, was held in the court house today and they were bound over without bail for the district court.

From the evidence it was learned that Charles Sellers and Harry Heath were both infatuated with Miss Eunice Murphy, a sister of one of the prisoners. Some few years ago they had fought over the girl and bad feelings had existed since that time.

On Friday night, June 16, a dance was held at the T. O. Grove and Sellers had been quite attentive to Miss Murphy. Early on the same evening she had been seen talking with Sellers at the mail box in front of the Jack ranch where Sellers was staying. Apparently they were on very friendly terms, and she showed no signs of being afraid of him.

After the dance Heath and Murphy decided to put a stop to Sellers' courting and on Saturday night rode over to the Jack ranch. Their nerve apparently failed, for they did not enter the ranch house, but on Sunday sought friends to assist them in carrying out their intentions. The Weed brothers were the first ones approached and they consented.

Fear Meet at Ranch.

On Sunday night the four prisoners met at the Gillaspie ranch and left there at 9 o'clock for the Jack ranch. Early on Sunday night when their plan was settled, Miss Weed, a sister of the two brothers in law, rode to the Diamond Bar ranch and told Jessie West, the foreman, of the proposed crime and asked him to interfere at once. West rode over to the Jack ranch, arriving there about 8:30 o'clock, and remained on the outside watching for developments, but when he saw Sellers retire about 9 o'clock he returned to his ranch and told Miss Weed that everything was quiet.

Shortly after 9 o'clock the Weed brothers and Murphy cut the telephone wires and released all of Jack's horses while Heath went inside and talked with Jack. After a few minutes the trio entered and while Heath covered Jack with a gun they went to Sellers' bed and bound his hands and led him to the main room where Heath placed the noose of his lariat around his neck. They then told Jack to remain indoors if he knew what was best for him, and led Sellers from the house. Jack thought they intended to frighten Sellers so that he would leave the country and looked upon the matter as a joke.

"Buck" Buchanan, a young man well known in political circles in this section of the state, was sentenced to ninety days in the county jail yesterday by Judge Crawford at Wymore for stealing some merchandise from the hardware store of D. A. Leasher & Son at Wymore.

Lee H. Hurst Injured.

GRAN DISLAND, Neb., June 27.—(Special)—Lee H. Hurst, residing with his family at 308 East Ninth street, a brakeman for the Union Pacific, was this morning thrown from a boxcar to the track below, with the result that the left leg was cut off, his collar bone broken and his head severely bruised. He was taken to St. Francis' hospital. Hopes for recovery are entertained.

Strung Up to Pole.

The four men then led Sellers to a telephone pole and strung him up where he was left to strangle to death.

When Jack got up early the next morning he saw Sellers hanging to the pole, but was then so frightened that he did not dare to cut him down, but catching a saddle horse rode to the ranch of George Clegg, where he telephoned the facts of the murder to Cody, Neb., and the marshal of that town notified the sheriff and coroner at Valentine.

These two officials left for the scene of the crime in an automobile early on Monday morning, arriving at the Jack ranch at 11 o'clock, where they found the body of Sellers still hanging to the pole and some twenty ranchers gathered around.

The body was immediately cut down by the coroner and a jury impaneled from the ranchers gathered. The jury met in the Jack ranch at once and rendered a verdict of murder.

Four Men Ride into Cody.

In the meantime the four prisoners returned to their own ranches, had breakfast, talked freely with every one they met, telling them of the crime and then rode into Cody to give themselves up to the authorities. They walked the streets of Cody until 5 o'clock in the afternoon, when the sheriff arrived and placed them under arrest. To everybody with whom they talked during the day they laughed about the farce, stating that Sellers had threatened his just due because he had threatened Heath, Miss Murphy and her brother. This is the only excuse offered so far for the crime.

When the body of Sellers was brought into Cody for burial on Monday night, the people of the surrounding country were just beginning to realize the enormity of the crime and threats were heard on all sides against the four prisoners. The sheriff, hearing these rumors, put the prisoners in his automobile and took them to Nance to await the night train for this place.

Men Light Hearted.

Since their confinement in the county jail they have appeared light hearted and happy and so far the crime has had little effect on their nerves. The aged father of the Weed boys has arrived from Missouri and retained Walcott & Morrissey as attorneys for the four prisoners.

Danielson is Popular at Home.

BLOOMFIELD, Neb., June 27.—(Special)—The republicans of this country are most highly pleased over the appointment of O. Danielson to the position of deputy state treasurer. Mr. Danielson served two terms as county treasurer of this county (Knox) and made an excellent record in that office. Since retiring from the treasurer's office two years ago he has been engaged in the real estate business at Center. There was strong talk among the republicans of nominating Mr. Danielson again for county treasurer this fall if he hadn't received this appointment from State Treasurer George.

School Meeting in Deshler.

DESHLER, Neb., June 27.—(Special)—At the annual school meeting this afternoon E. J. Mitchell was elected treasurer and Henry Sittler, moderator. There was $148.07 in the treasury and $30.00 was voted for the ensuing year. The board was instructed to put in the eleventh grade if deemed expedient.
