

GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Wheat Market is Big Scalping Affair for the Present.

HEDGING AGAINST NEW WHEAT

Real Movement of Winter Wheat Will Be On in About Ten Days Unless There is Return of Spring Wheat Damage.

OMAHA, June 29, 1911. The wheat market is a big scalping affair for the present bull leaders, giving support on the depression and hedging against a new crop movement by cash and elevator interests, churning the market first higher and then lower.

The real movement of the winter wheat will be on in about ten days and unless there is a return of the spring wheat damage complaints, the situation is heavy on and values should work lower.

The wheat market is a big scalping affair for the present bull leaders, giving support on the depression and hedging against a new crop movement by cash and elevator interests, churning the market first higher and then lower.

Primary wheat receipts were 50,000 bushels and shipments were 140,000 bushels, against receipts last year of 30,000 bushels and shipments of 210,000 bushels.

Primary corn receipts were 250,000 bushels and shipments were 350,000 bushels, against receipts last year of 300,000 bushels and shipments of 400,000 bushels.

Primary soybean receipts were 100,000 bushels and shipments were 150,000 bushels, against receipts last year of 120,000 bushels and shipments of 180,000 bushels.

Primary cotton receipts were 50,000 bales and shipments were 70,000 bales, against receipts last year of 60,000 bales and shipments of 80,000 bales.

Primary sugar receipts were 10,000 tons and shipments were 15,000 tons, against receipts last year of 12,000 tons and shipments of 18,000 tons.

NEW YORK STOCKS AND BONDS

Market Swings Back Toward Higher Range Following Bear Raid.

PRICES HIGHER AT THE CLOSE

Official Crop Report of St. Paul Says That Considerable Damage is Done in Dakotas—Other Reports More Favorable.

NEW YORK, June 29.—On a small volume of trading the stock market swung back toward a higher range today, following yesterday's effective bear raid. The lower scale of prices established yesterday attracted a sufficient amount of buying to lift quotations easily at the outset.

Among the industrials the American Tobacco was the strongest. The stock of this company was almost coincident with the market.

Among the financials the American Bond Trust was the strongest. The stock of this company was almost coincident with the market.

Among the utilities the American Electric Power was the strongest. The stock of this company was almost coincident with the market.

Among the transportation stocks the American Railway was the strongest. The stock of this company was almost coincident with the market.

Among the foreign stocks the American Overseas was the strongest. The stock of this company was almost coincident with the market.

Among the bonds the American Government was the strongest. The price of this bond was almost coincident with the market.

Among the commodities the American Wheat was the strongest. The price of this commodity was almost coincident with the market.

OMAHA LIVE STOCK MARKET

Good Killing Cattle Strong to Ten Cents Higher.

HOGS ARE FIVE TO TEN HIGHER

Main Feature of Sheep and Lamb Trade is Poor Quality of the Receipts—Prices Show Very Little Change.

SOUTH OMAHA, June 29, 1911. Receipts were: Cattle, 1,100; Hogs, 1,200; Sheep, 1,300.

Four days this week 15,400 46,275 17,618 Same days 2 weeks ago 15,400 46,275 17,618 Same days 3 weeks ago 15,400 46,275 17,618

The following table shows the receipts of cattle hogs and sheep from South Omaha for the year to date as compared with last year:

Table with columns: Month, 1911, 1910, 1909, 1908, 1907. Rows: Cattle, Hogs, Sheep.

Receipts and disposition of live stock at the Omaha Stock Yard, South Omaha, for the twenty-four hours ending at 3 p. m. yesterday:

Table with columns: Receipts, Disposition. Rows: Cattle, Hogs, Sheep.

The demand for the desirable kinds of beef cattle is strong. The market is good for all grades of cattle.

Cows and heifers were very few sellers. The market is good for all grades of cows and heifers.

There were only a few stock cattle and calves. The market is good for all grades of stock cattle and calves.

There were only a few sheep and lambs. The market is good for all grades of sheep and lambs.

MR. TILDEN MAKES DENIALS

Corporation Man Asserts Knows Little of His Own Affairs.

Check for Big Sum Not Necessarily Entered in Personal Account—Does Not Feel Proud of His System.

WASHINGTON, June 29.—His methods of bookkeeping and his loyalty to the democratic party alike were under fire Wednesday when Edward Tilden, tank director, packing house manager and corporation man generally, appeared before the senate committee investigating the campaign of William Lorimer to testify that he was in no way interested in the raising of a fund to elect Mr. Lorimer to the senate.

Attorneys for the committee, attorneys for Senator Lorimer and members of the committee itself asked Mr. Tilden in almost every conceivable style of question if he had anything to do with the raising of a fund to elect Senator Lorimer, either before or after the election.

Mr. Tilden testified that he did not keep accurate books of his personal business, having merely loose leaf memoranda of his receipts and disbursements and only memoranda of checks written instead of check stubs.

Senator Kern had the witness draw checks on his bank accounts of bookkeeping.

The witness said he was not proud of his system, but that it answered the purpose, namely that of keeping track of money until he had the drawing of a check for $100,000 for personal expenditures.

He mentioned that he was president of the National Packing company, and named the names of five other Chicago corporations, of which he was president, besides being the head of concerns in other cities.

He was "confused" when asked by Senator Kenyon to state how many corporations he was president of, "because of the minor companies."

He "thought" he was director of banks in Sioux City, Ia., St. Joseph, Mo., and San Francisco, and he gave a long list of banks of which he was a stockholder, but forgot until nearly the end of his testimony to mention a bank in East St. Louis.

Either as treasurer or in some other capacity, he testified, he had the right to draw checks on the bank accounts of "twenty-five or thirty corporations."

Tilden testified that he did not keep accurate books of his personal business, having merely loose leaf memoranda of his receipts and disbursements and only memoranda of checks written instead of check stubs.

EARLE SAYS HE IS IGNORED

Asserts Roosevelt Overlooks Sugar Trust as "Big Game."

DEAD FIRM'S RECEIVER TALKS

Testifies that Government Fails to Move Against Big Organization When He Finds Valuable Evidence.

WASHINGTON, June 29.—That former President Theodore Roosevelt had lost "his preference for large game" because the government failed to prosecute former heads of the American Sugar Refining Company is the contention of a committee headed by George H. Earle, Jr., receiver for the trust company of Philadelphia, in the Pennsylvania Sugar Refining company deal in 1905, was asserted today before the house sugar investigating committee.

Mr. Earle also said that a considerable portion of his correspondence with Mr. Roosevelt in relation to the case was not communicated to the senate when a resolution was passed calling for all papers Mr. Earle submitted to the committee two weeks ago.

The letter follows in part: "I would like to see the letter which you wrote to Mr. Roosevelt subsequent to the one bearing date of September 21, 1905, submitted to the senate."

"On October 1, 1905," Mr. Earle replied, "nothing having been done by the government in this case, I wrote another letter to Mr. Roosevelt."

The letter follows in part: "I would like to see the letter which you wrote to Mr. Roosevelt subsequent to the one bearing date of September 21, 1905, submitted to the senate."

"On October 1, 1905," Mr. Earle replied, "nothing having been done by the government in this case, I wrote another letter to Mr. Roosevelt."

The letter follows in part: "I would like to see the letter which you wrote to Mr. Roosevelt subsequent to the one bearing date of September 21, 1905, submitted to the senate."

"On October 1, 1905," Mr. Earle replied, "nothing having been done by the government in this case, I wrote another letter to Mr. Roosevelt."

The letter follows in part: "I would like to see the letter which you wrote to Mr. Roosevelt subsequent to the one bearing date of September 21, 1905, submitted to the senate."

"On October 1, 1905," Mr. Earle replied, "nothing having been done by the government in this case, I wrote another letter to Mr. Roosevelt."

LOBECK PROPOSES INQUIRY INTO HARVESTER TRUST

WASHINGTON, June 29.—An investigation to determine whether the International Harvester company has violated the anti-trust interstate commerce or national banking laws, "and whether it has entered into relations in violation of law with other persons, firms or corporations," is proposed in a resolution introduced today by Mr. Lobeck of Nebraska.

The resolution calls for an investigation into the business of the International Harvester company, and whether it has entered into relations in violation of law with other persons, firms or corporations.

The resolution calls for an investigation into the business of the International Harvester company, and whether it has entered into relations in violation of law with other persons, firms or corporations.

The resolution calls for an investigation into the business of the International Harvester company, and whether it has entered into relations in violation of law with other persons, firms or corporations.

The resolution calls for an investigation into the business of the International Harvester company, and whether it has entered into relations in violation of law with other persons, firms or corporations.

The resolution calls for an investigation into the business of the International Harvester company, and whether it has entered into relations in violation of law with other persons, firms or corporations.

The resolution calls for an investigation into the business of the International Harvester company, and whether it has entered into relations in violation of law with other persons, firms or corporations.

The resolution calls for an investigation into the business of the International Harvester company, and whether it has entered into relations in violation of law with other persons, firms or corporations.

The resolution calls for an investigation into the business of the International Harvester company, and whether it has entered into relations in violation of law with other persons, firms or corporations.

The resolution calls for an investigation into the business of the International Harvester company, and whether it has entered into relations in violation of law with other persons, firms or corporations.

The resolution calls for an investigation into the business of the International Harvester company, and whether it has entered into relations in violation of law with other persons, firms or corporations.

CLAY CENTER, Neb., June 29.—(Special.)—J. E. Davis, president of the Good Roads Association of Nebraska, and a delegation of the business men from Sutton, appeared before the county board yesterday asking for the appropriation of money for the state road between Sutton and Harvard, in this county.

The board took the matter under consideration and will make the appropriation at its next meeting, July 11.

At the school election yesterday George Ward and Bert Hanson were elected directors in place of J. C. Kasper and J. H. Elder, the present incumbents.

Work on the extension of the water works system is now in progress in this city. The $50,000 recently voted for extension purposes is now available, and plans are being extended into the gutting districts.

The school election yesterday George Ward and Bert Hanson were elected directors in place of J. C. Kasper and J. H. Elder, the present incumbents.

Work on the extension of the water works system is now in progress in this city. The $50,000 recently voted for extension purposes is now available, and plans are being extended into the gutting districts.

The school election yesterday George Ward and Bert Hanson were elected directors in place of J. C. Kasper and J. H. Elder, the present incumbents.

Work on the extension of the water works system is now in progress in this city. The $50,000 recently voted for extension purposes is now available, and plans are being extended into the gutting districts.

The school election yesterday George Ward and Bert Hanson were elected directors in place of J. C. Kasper and J. H. Elder, the present incumbents.

Work on the extension of the water works system is now in progress in this city. The $50,000 recently voted for extension purposes is now available, and plans are being extended into the gutting districts.

The school election yesterday George Ward and Bert Hanson were elected directors in place of J. C. Kasper and J. H. Elder, the present incumbents.