

Council Bluffs

Minor Mention

The Council Bluffs Office of the Omaha Bee is at 15 South Street, South Omaha 62.

Wedding at Lefferts. Wedding at Lefferts. Wedding at Lefferts. Wedding at Lefferts. Wedding at Lefferts.

Wedding at Lefferts. Wedding at Lefferts. Wedding at Lefferts. Wedding at Lefferts. Wedding at Lefferts.

Wedding at Lefferts. Wedding at Lefferts. Wedding at Lefferts. Wedding at Lefferts. Wedding at Lefferts.

Wedding at Lefferts. Wedding at Lefferts. Wedding at Lefferts. Wedding at Lefferts. Wedding at Lefferts.

Wedding at Lefferts. Wedding at Lefferts. Wedding at Lefferts. Wedding at Lefferts. Wedding at Lefferts.

Wedding at Lefferts. Wedding at Lefferts. Wedding at Lefferts. Wedding at Lefferts. Wedding at Lefferts.

Wedding at Lefferts. Wedding at Lefferts. Wedding at Lefferts. Wedding at Lefferts. Wedding at Lefferts.

Wedding at Lefferts. Wedding at Lefferts. Wedding at Lefferts. Wedding at Lefferts. Wedding at Lefferts.

Wedding at Lefferts. Wedding at Lefferts. Wedding at Lefferts. Wedding at Lefferts. Wedding at Lefferts.

Wedding at Lefferts. Wedding at Lefferts. Wedding at Lefferts. Wedding at Lefferts. Wedding at Lefferts.

Council Bluffs

CROWD OVERFLOWS TREYNOR

Between Two and Three Thousand People at the Road Opening.

LITTLE TOWN DOES ITS BEST

Test Shows Down on Speakers and Joe Gives Out, but Crowd is Happy—No Big Accident.

A crowd of between 2,000 and 2,500 people gathered at Treynor yesterday to take part in the dedication of the new line that connects the village with Council Bluffs.

The train was made up of four coaches and a baggage car and was pulled by a Walsh engine. Two of the coaches belonged to the Union Pacific, one was the property of the Short Line and the other was taken from the Walshaw equipment.

The train was made up of four coaches and a baggage car and was pulled by a Walsh engine. Two of the coaches belonged to the Union Pacific, one was the property of the Short Line and the other was taken from the Walshaw equipment.

The train was made up of four coaches and a baggage car and was pulled by a Walsh engine. Two of the coaches belonged to the Union Pacific, one was the property of the Short Line and the other was taken from the Walshaw equipment.

The train was made up of four coaches and a baggage car and was pulled by a Walsh engine. Two of the coaches belonged to the Union Pacific, one was the property of the Short Line and the other was taken from the Walshaw equipment.

The train was made up of four coaches and a baggage car and was pulled by a Walsh engine. Two of the coaches belonged to the Union Pacific, one was the property of the Short Line and the other was taken from the Walshaw equipment.

The train was made up of four coaches and a baggage car and was pulled by a Walsh engine. Two of the coaches belonged to the Union Pacific, one was the property of the Short Line and the other was taken from the Walshaw equipment.

The train was made up of four coaches and a baggage car and was pulled by a Walsh engine. Two of the coaches belonged to the Union Pacific, one was the property of the Short Line and the other was taken from the Walshaw equipment.

The train was made up of four coaches and a baggage car and was pulled by a Walsh engine. Two of the coaches belonged to the Union Pacific, one was the property of the Short Line and the other was taken from the Walshaw equipment.

The train was made up of four coaches and a baggage car and was pulled by a Walsh engine. Two of the coaches belonged to the Union Pacific, one was the property of the Short Line and the other was taken from the Walshaw equipment.

Council Bluffs

Money Spent for Auto Causes Death of Three

Crambit Family, Near Eddyville, Cried at Thought of Waste and Agree to Die.

Tom R. King, chief assistant undertaker at Woodring's, felt a personal interest in the tragedy that occurred near Eddyville, Ia., on Tuesday afternoon, which resulted in the extinction of the last surviving member of the Crambit family.

The tragedy occurred at 1:30 o'clock. A few minutes before that hour Mrs. Crambit called her father, Elias Canfield, over the telephone, asking him to come to the home at once and to bring the mother and daughter.

The tragedy occurred at 1:30 o'clock. A few minutes before that hour Mrs. Crambit called her father, Elias Canfield, over the telephone, asking him to come to the home at once and to bring the mother and daughter.

The tragedy occurred at 1:30 o'clock. A few minutes before that hour Mrs. Crambit called her father, Elias Canfield, over the telephone, asking him to come to the home at once and to bring the mother and daughter.

The tragedy occurred at 1:30 o'clock. A few minutes before that hour Mrs. Crambit called her father, Elias Canfield, over the telephone, asking him to come to the home at once and to bring the mother and daughter.

The tragedy occurred at 1:30 o'clock. A few minutes before that hour Mrs. Crambit called her father, Elias Canfield, over the telephone, asking him to come to the home at once and to bring the mother and daughter.

The tragedy occurred at 1:30 o'clock. A few minutes before that hour Mrs. Crambit called her father, Elias Canfield, over the telephone, asking him to come to the home at once and to bring the mother and daughter.

The tragedy occurred at 1:30 o'clock. A few minutes before that hour Mrs. Crambit called her father, Elias Canfield, over the telephone, asking him to come to the home at once and to bring the mother and daughter.

The tragedy occurred at 1:30 o'clock. A few minutes before that hour Mrs. Crambit called her father, Elias Canfield, over the telephone, asking him to come to the home at once and to bring the mother and daughter.

The tragedy occurred at 1:30 o'clock. A few minutes before that hour Mrs. Crambit called her father, Elias Canfield, over the telephone, asking him to come to the home at once and to bring the mother and daughter.

Social Settlement Children in Play

Top Row, Left to Right—James Barta, Frank Bacon, Ethel Striess, Eula Kramer, Helen West, Rose Volbert, Vera Hirtz, Bertha Granger, Mary Ellen James, James Dromet, James McKeown, Second Row—Elias Canfield, Miss Mary Wallace, Director, Mary Ostronic, Lower Row—Jenna Canfield, May Sobotta, Helen Suckack, Dora Swartz, Sam Swartz.

A unique entertainment will be given at Happy Hollow club Friday evening, July 1, at 8:15, when thirty boys and girls, mostly foreigners of the social settlement on South Thirteenth street, will present "Oberon's Triumph," an outdoor performance of the nature of Shakespeare's "Midsummer Night's Dream" under the direction of Miss Mary Wallace.

HUSBAND, DESERTED, SHOTS WIFE AND SELF IN CEMETERY

New in Dead Man's Pocket Says Intends to Kill Woman if She Remains Awa.

SPENCER, Ind., June 30.—Attracted by the sound of shots in a cemetery today, passersby found Mrs. Oden Phillips lying probably fatally wounded across the dead body of her husband. The woman, after saying her husband had shot her and then himself, lost consciousness.

Postmaster Charged With Robbing Mails

Herington, Kan., Man Arrested in Connection with Disappearance of $2,000 Package.

GREAT BEND, Kan., June 30.—Warren Vincent, postmaster at Herington, was arrested there today and taken to Wichita to answer a charge of robbing the mails. His arrest is understood to be in connection with the disappearance of a $2,000 package of currency which was mailed from the J. V. Hutchinson company's bank here on several months ago, but never arrived at its destination.

WEST POINT BOOSTERS' TRIP

Second Year in Automobile Made to Advertise Bacon Second Week.

WEST POINT, June 30.—(Special.)—The West Point Boosters, headed for the forthcoming season to be held July 2, 3 and 4 left on their second trip this morning with thirty automobiles. They visited Superior, Dodge, Leigh, Stanton, Elgin, Whiter and Deemer.

Police Make Capture of Expert Check Artist

J. Johnson, Accused of Passing Paper at Several Firms, Under Arrest.

J. Johnson, one of the best check artists in the country, was arrested last night after he had secured at 123 South Fourteenth street by Detective Arnold and Policeman Joseph of Council Bluffs.

Gannett Had Planned Hobo Tour with Girl

Officers Have Not Yet Captured Man Who Enticed Grace Bothwell Away.

Mrs. Frank Southen came to Council Bluffs yesterday afternoon and had an interview at St. Bernard's hospital with her daughter, Grace Bothwell, the 17-year-old girl who was enticed from her home by Harold Gannett, the Omaha editor, and held for a week in a deserted log house on the Owens farm three miles northeast of Council Bluffs.

Mrs. Frank Southen came to Council Bluffs yesterday afternoon and had an interview at St. Bernard's hospital with her daughter, Grace Bothwell, the 17-year-old girl who was enticed from her home by Harold Gannett, the Omaha editor, and held for a week in a deserted log house on the Owens farm three miles northeast of Council Bluffs.

De Longpre, Famous Painter of Flowers, Dies at Hollywood

Artist Succumbs to Complication of Diseases from Which He Suffered for Last Two Years.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., June 30.—Paul De Longpre, the famous painter of flowers, died at his home at Hollywood tonight from a complication of diseases from which he had suffered for the last two years.

WOULD GIVE MR. TAFT $1-800

Generosity of Washington Visitor Leads Him in Washington Asylum Hospital.

WASHINGTON, June 30.—President Taft would have been presented with a large roll of "yellow backs" by Andrew Tomaso, of McKees Rock, Pa., today if Tomaso's intentions had been carried out. But he was interrupted by a policeman.

Advertisement for Onimod Shoes, featuring an image of a shoe and text describing the shoes as comfortable and sensible.

Large advertisement for Budweiser beer, featuring an image of a bottle and text describing it as 'The Home of the A and the Eagle' and 'King of All Bottled Beers'.