What Women Are Doing in the World

HE club women of Omaha are taking a respite from "clubbing" this month and are turntheir thoughts to picnicking. The members of the various political, temperance and patriotic organizations have eased up on their indoor business and educational meetings and are hieling to the parks for coolness

The American Woman's league will celebrate the Fourth with a picnic Tuesday evening at the Rod and Gun club, where they will be the guests of the treasurer, Mrs. Carrie D. Scott. The Woman's Suffrage society is also planning a picule for some time this month. The Francis Willard Christian Temperance union will have a picnic at one of the warks July 12, and the South Omaha union will picale at Elmwood July 11. Elmwood park has been chosen for another picnic-that on July 13, when the Daughters of the Confederacy will gather for sandwiches and a good time.

At the meeting of the American Woman's league, held Friday night at the home of the treasurer, Mrs. Carrie D. Scott, committees were appointed to take charge of next season's Work.

The league will have a booth at the Land show in October and the committee in charge will be Mrs. Clara E. Burbank, chairman, Mrs. J. W. Russell, Mrs. Scott, and Mrs. C. W. Hayes. mission Will Be Entertained at Major Belle Reynolds of Santa Barbara, the only woman holding a commission in the United States army, will be in Omaha some time next week as the guest of Captain and Mrs. T. C. Shelly of Fairacres. Major Raynolds was commissioned by Governor Dick Yates, war governor of Illinois, for her heroic services at the battle of Shiloh. She is now on her way home from the fiftieth anniversary of her regiment, Miss Myra, who has just graduated at the Seventeenth Illinois. The regiment was organized at Peoria June 14, 1861, and the reunion was June 13 to 15 at Joliet. Capsain Shelley, who will entertain the major here, also was a member of this same regiment for three years. "Major Belle" was idolized by the men of her regiment, and the fact that she came east to meet with them brought out the greatest number that has visited a reunion in years. The meetings and greetings were most enthusiastic. Major Reynolds is a practicing physician at her home in Santa Barbara.

The Bennett Co.'s Supremacy in the Player Field. The Bennett Co.'s Player Plano Dep't,

which has caused such a stir among Omaha musical ones with its recent 'Clubs," is now offering a later, much mproved Player Plano Club which will be designated as "No. 7." Through joining "Club 7," one is enabled to purchase an exquisite toned, perfectly built, new 88 note standard tracker board Player Piano for as little as $295.52, which is even less than the price of many a good ordinary "hand-played" instrument And those who have idle "hand-played" planes about their homes. (there are thousands right here in Omaha) will be glad to know that their old instruments will be taken in as part trade on a "Club" Player Piano, The Bennett Co, being in a position to make a startling large allowance because of its large outlet for used pianos among its western branch agencies. When first becoming interested in a Player Plano one invariably asks: "How about those music rolls? What do they post?" To this The Bennett Co. answers: "Don't pay anything for your rolls the first year. If you are a 'Club' member you are privileged to use three new rolls per day, exchanging new ones for others daily until you have reached 1.000 rolls at the rate of three a day." Thus you are kept in touch with the musical hits of America and Europe at no cost whatever. Each purchaser of a "Club" Player Plano, however, is given $10 worth of music Free with the instrument. And even if you should wish to purchase all your music outright the cost is not at all prohibitive, good rolls being on sale for as little as 40c each. The plan of The Bennett Co.'s Player Piano Club No. 7 is given here in a nutshell. Digest its features carefully; don't stay without a player plane another day: don't miss the musical joys that are coming to you.

The "Club" Player Plano sells at $320. Pay a membership fee of $14 when joining. (The $14 is immediately credited on the price of the piano.) Then pay dues or payments of merely $2 per week. Receive a cash rebate of 160 for each week that you pay in advance; thus, if all saving would amount to $24.48. Deduct 24.48 from $320, the price of the piano, and you have remaining merely $295.52. which is the lowest price quoted in Amerca on a new, standard size, 88 note Player Plano.

It may be readily proved that The Bensett Co., through its famous "Club," is selling 88 note Player Planes for less money than any other American concern. seventy-five of the leading American newspapers were recently scrutinized for lower prices, and not a single instance could be found where even as LOW a price was quoted on new 88 note Player. This newest "Club 7," is a challenge to all America-the price cannot be beatenneither can the grade of the Player Piano

A carload of Player Planos has just been unloaded and more car loads will be announced in the near future. And Bennett's Carloads are not mythical; they are sarioads and arrive when they are claimed to arrive. The Bennett Co. is going to make Omaha a notable stronghold on Player Pianos and should capture scores of new members in a "Club" that permits of one purchasing a "player" for as little Those living out of town are accorded every privilege offered to those living in Omaha. Write in now. Say whether or not you have a used instrument to trade in; at least find out what The Bennett Co. will allow you for it. If you love music join "Club No. 7."

Discriminating people who appreciate exclusiveness have their tastes satisfied by Josephine sliver. It is artistic durable and conforms to the exacting demands of the best table appointments.
