Higgins Hopefuls won their first game o fthe season off Pa Rourkes athletes yesterday afternoon in the tenth inning, o the third and last game of the series Omaha made strong bid for two runs it its half of the tenth, but failed to scor although two men tot on bases. The final score was 5 to 3 with the Hopeful but was found freely by the Des Moine sluggers and was retired in favor of Cool at the beginning of the eighth. For De Moines, Heuston was sent to the moun and pitched a clever game and his hurl ing meant the game for his team. In th sixth inning he pulled off a double play the bat and tagged first before Schoonove

For Omaha, Thomason was again th big noise. He had but two chances in th field and got away with them in nic style. At the bat and on bases he wa the whole show. In the third inning afte Moines had secured a lead of two runs he tied the score with a triple to cen ter with two men on bases. In the first inning he beat out a bunt by a good mar gin and stole second, but there he died. Des Moines took the lead from th start, by getting a run in the first am another in second. After Omaha had tied up in the third, the Hopefuls came bac and took the lead in the fourth. Rourkes again tied up in the seventh, bu falled to score afterwards. Des Moine won in the tenth with two runs.

Des Moines Shows Up Well. Every fan in the park yesterday wa full of praise for the fighting spirit and play of the Des Moines team. The Hopefuls certainly played like fiends. They were on their toes at all times and took advantage of every opportunity to get
