OMAHA. July 10, 1911.

Wheat had a sharp break at the opening on favorable weather reports. Consucrable uncertainty and nervousness was due to the official crop figures to be given out after the close today, market values narrowing after the opening trades. For the present crop conditions in the northwest will outweigh all other news until the spring wheat crop is safe.

Good rains were received over the corn belt since Saturday and temperatures are much more favorable and for the time being the crop is beyond further injury. Trading was rather light, owing to the government report to be issued at 1:15 o'clock.

Stocks to Recede. BUSINESS INCREASES

Large Increase in Untilled Orders of Corporation During Month Indientes Unexpectedly Large Amount of Business.

NEW YORK, July in.—Disappointment at the government drop report issued shortly before the close of the market caused stocks to recede after a display of strength from the opening. The losses sustained cancelled the game of the to two points through the list of the active stocks. The character of the report was offset by the monthly statements of the copper producers and of the United States Steel corporation's unfilled orders, which were unexpectedly favorable. United States Steel and copper shares, however, yielded with the remainder of the list at the close. The decline in stocks was due in part to the expectations of operators who had bought heavily in anticipation of a more buillah statement. Reports of rain over the week encouraged buying this morning not only here but in London, where Americans advanced materially before the New York opening. The gains were extended in the local market.

The increase of 247,000 in the unfilled orders of the United States Steel corporation between June 1 and July 1 indicates are unexpectedly large amount of new business, June figures showing the largest gain since the revival of the "open market" of 1900, the increase in business which followed the reduction in prices being estimated at 50 per cent or more, on the basis of today's report and the known increase in shipments during June.

The decreases of more than $500,000 pounds in copper stocks was larger than was looked for, bringing down the total to the lowest point in several months. While domestic deliveries were somewhat disappointing, the export movement was the largest since last October and the list as a whole was regarded as distinctly favorable.

as a whole was regarded as distinctly favorable.

Good reports on both the copper and the steel trade had apparently been discounted for the market barely moved on their publication. Almost the only exceptions to the strength exhibited through the greater part of the day were Virginia Iron, which fell back 7½ points, and Virginia-Carolina chemical, which, although it remained stationary when the unfavorable annual report was published last week, declined a point today.

The bond market was firm. Total sales, par value, $2,415,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

Duliness was partly due to good-sized receipts, both locally and elsewhere. Chicago reported 24,000 head and a feeble demand, while Kansas City prospects were equally bearish. At this point a full twenty loads arrived, about thirteen of rangers and seven or eight of "chow-chow" from the corn belt. Oregon furnished three loads of wethers and idaho sent in six loads of wethers and four loads of spring tambs. All of the grass arrivals were in good killing flesh. The Idaho wethers, when trade finally started, sold at $4.50, but the lambs proved draggy and remained in first hands until late in the session. As compared with last week's prices it was a trade steady in spots with the general tendency a little lower. The feeder branch of the market had neither a supply nor a visible demand and ruled nominal.

In fed animals, the situation was much the same as it has been for some time past. Bunches of high finish were wanted and tailend strings were peglected. Some prime yearlings minus fleece reached $6.50, but common sheep and lambs sold on an uncertain basis.

"Omaha is the best looking town I have seen since I went away," said Mr. Lobeck, 'I am particularly glad just now that the Postoffice department decided to put the new mail headquarters here. My most important committee, the one on expenditiures from the treasury, which has been working for better service in the customs department, will not be very active, so I thought I could come home and see my family. The cotton schedule, which will take time of the house for a while, probably will come up next week.

Washington School Board "I was much surprised to learn that Mr. Davidson was coming to Washington. Of course it is a flattering appointment, but if he had asked me anything about it, I would have advised him to stay right here in Omaha. Of course, Washington has some advantages as an educational center and congress is liberal in its appropriations, but there are also disadvantages There are continual quarrels going on in the school board, and the government committees and conditions are unsettled. Washington is a fine city, but it has not the wideawake, push and energy that make Omaha such a fine place-to live in. I would rather be here all the time, although I suppose the post appealed to Dr.

Charges of Peonage Being Investigated

Greek Employment Agents Acoused of Extorting Money from Their Countrymen.

Charges of peonage by Greek employment agents are being investigated by Labor Commissioner Guve and City License Inspector Richard Schneider. More than 100 Greeks complained to the state labor office that one of their countrymen known as "Cook" was getting them positions on the Union Pacific line work and after getting $6 as a fee was coming around later and demanding weekly tribute on pain of losing the work. The men who refused to comply lost their jobs.

There are labor agents in the city, according to Mr. Schneider, who claim connection with the Union Pacific railroad and advertise that connection, although the railroad does not recognize it. The same trouble has been discovered in Iowa, where the labor commissioner prosecuted several Three Small Hauls agents and the Greeks who got into trouble were driven out of the state.
