CONSOLS DECLINE IN LONDON

Drop to Lowest Point in Eighty Years Ascribed to Selling to Meet Liquidation and Political Uncertainty.

NEW YORK, July 11.—The sharp decline in stocks which resulted from announcement of the government crop figures...

In the London market the decline in consols to the lowest point in eighty years was ascribed to selling to meet liquidation elsewhere and the uncertainties of the political situation in eastern Europe and Morocco.

The strength of Americans in the British market gave a firm tone to the opening, and prices advanced in the afternoon.

The bond market was firm, American bonds were weak and the 66 were strong. Total sale, par value, $2,830,000.

Number of sales and leading quotations on stocks were as follows:
