

Cubs and Orioles Lose to the Giants in, Rourkes Yield to Moines

DES MOINES TAKES LONG ONE

Eleven-Inning Struggle Goes Finally to the Hopfuls from Iowa.

VICTORY IS HARD EARNED

Things Look Almost Even Until Error by Nischoff Allows Higgins' Men the One Run Needed.

For eleven innings Omaha and Des Moines battled for the first game of the series yesterday afternoon, and the desecrators from the Iowa town took the long end of a 3 to 2 score in that inning, by an error by Nischoff, followed by a triple by Kores. Cook worked on the mound for the Rourkes, while Benis did the hurrying for the Hopfuls.

Both pitchers were in fine mettle and put up a clever exhibition of pitching. For the first eight innings but two hits had been made off Cook, but in the ninth he was found for two more, which gave Des Moines the needed run to deadlock the score. Benz, who has pitched Des Moines to the only victories the team has taken this season from the Rourkes, kept his few hits well scattered and they came but one at a time with one exception. Cook proved a big help with the clutch, and pitched out two hits in four times at bat.

Despite the fact that each team made five errors the game was fast and interesting. Starting as well as sensational plays were pulled off with lightning-like rapidity. Schoonover played a consistent game in left field, which gave Des Moines which were difficult. Kneaves played like a vet at short and his work was a revelation to the fans. Nischoff was the only Rourke player who was not up to snuff.

He had but five chances and of three of these he made bobbles. Argobast did not have a chance at all, for the Rourke piffers three. For Des Moines, Kores was the big nose. His three-bagger in the eleventh inning put Omaha out of the running. He made three of the Des Moines hits.

Clark Comes to Des Moines. George Clark came with the Des Moines bunch from St. Joseph, Mo., to take McKee's place as umpire. McKee having gone to St. Joseph. His decisions were questioned. The game, although going two innings beyond the usual nine, lasted but two hours.

The games which are now being played here have been transferred here because of the poor attendance at Des Moines and from appearances yesterday it seemed that the eds Moines fans had been transferred here also. The entire west wing of the grandstand held a large crowd of rovers, all yelling for the Hopfuls, and a lively noise was heard at all times, and it was equally as loud as that sent up by the Rourke fans in the bleachers and the east wing of the stands.

Pick opened the game for the Rourkes with a clean swing to center. He stole second and took third on an error by Colligan, who made a poor throw to Mackee's glove to catch Pick at second. Dwyer fumbled Schoonover's line to first and Pick scored.

In the second Des Moines tied up. Anderson got to second on Ipek's pop throw to catch him at first. Graham followed with a single to first and Anderson scored.

Omaha came back in the half of the second and again took the lead, when Williams singled to center, stole second, was sacrificed to third by Kneaves and scored when Mattick dropped Argobast's high fly.

In the ninth Mattick singled to center, took third on a hit by Kores to left and scored on Anderson's error. Colligan got to first in the eleventh on an error by Nischoff, was sacrificed to second by Mattick and scored on Kores' triple to left.
