ing Opinion of I sited States Supreme Court.

LINCOLN, July D. - Fred with - Holding that the state earnest under its present compensation has how make collections of tures on full pand up capital stocks of poerus doing business in the state, Assistant Attorney General Frank E. Edgerinn has bested an endsion in which is states that the most the state can have to garner in its treature because of this enactment is a tax on the amount of expital clock employed in the conduct of intrastate business only.

Attorney Edgerton's interpretation of the King corporation tax act follows a facision in the United States supreme nouri. which was given in a case brought to that Food Inspector tribunal from Kansan. There the Western Union Telegraph company was sued for a collection of the tax on th centire paid up capital stock. The opinion reprede by the feberal pourt was that bearmuch as the entire uppited stock was assessed under be taxed to the amount in every state in which it transacted business.

According to the ruling and the opinion given by Attorney Edgerton it is not believed that the corporation tax law will a purely intrastate business.
