the children of their neighbors and of their children's playmates.

Every boy and girl in Omaha is watching The Bee to see what other boys and girls are having birthdays on the same day with them.

The interest of the birthday book is likewise heightened by being illustrated with reproduced portraits of one or more of the day's birthday boys or girls.

This great feature began with the first of January last, and will continue throughout the remainder of the year

The total number of birthdays recorded will exceed eighteen thousand, and includes the children in every family in Omaha who are going to school-it includes public, private and parochial schools.

Have your children got the habit of consulting The Bee's Junior Birthday Book?

When once interested, old as well as young will be captivated by it, ,and watch eagerly for each succeeding list.
