Men's Suits Now Half Price

At the close of this store's first season-dearly twenty-five years ago-we disposed of our remaining stock by means of a clearing sale. Not because we COULD not sell these suits the following season, nor because their value would be any less, but simply because we CHOSE to sell EACH season's garments DUR-ING THE SEASON for which they were bought. We rould thus commence the new season with an entirely new stock. We have followed this principle each year since its establishment. year we will dispose of our high grade suits at exactly ONE-HALF their all-season prices.
